Six-Story Commercial Building To Rise In San Anselmo

A six-story commercial building, with deluxe studio apartments, on the upper stories, will go up in downtown San Anselmo this year.

San Anselmo city councilmen looked approvingly at the plans last night and gave the project a unanimous green light, on condition that the developers deposit money with the city in lieu of offstreet parking.

This is the first major commercial structure approved by the city under a new parking proposal advanced by Councilman Cedric Clute. The city will waive the offstreet parking requirements if the builder will deposit money instead at the rate of $1,500 per parking stall.

City fathers referred the project to the planning commission, asking the planners to grant a parking variance for the building on condition that the developer agree to the parking deposit.

Owner of the property is Mrs. Hildred H. Huyssoon of 83 Cielo Drive, Greenbrae. Her development coordinator is Walter N. Allen of Greenbrae, branch manager for Robert G. Cruishank Realty.

The building will be called the Hub Center Building. It will be higher than any building in downtown San Rafael.

Construction will be of functional steel, glass and prestressed concrete. The first three floors will include retail shops at ground level, and administrative and professional offices in the second and third floors.

The first three floors should be completed in about six months, Allen estimated.

The second stage construction will provide 12 apartment studios on the fourth, fifth and sixth floors. The building will be air conditioned, and an elevator will be located in the center.

Mrs. Huyssoon said she has dealt in real estate before, but this is her first venture in commercial buildings.

Under the city's new zoning law, the building would require about 50 parking spaces, which means the developer must deposit $90,000 in lieu of offstreet parking.

The building will face San Anselmo Avenue. However, its back will be "dressed up," Allen said, if it will have access to the Greyhound bus depot area, which the city has just taken over for parking and street widening.

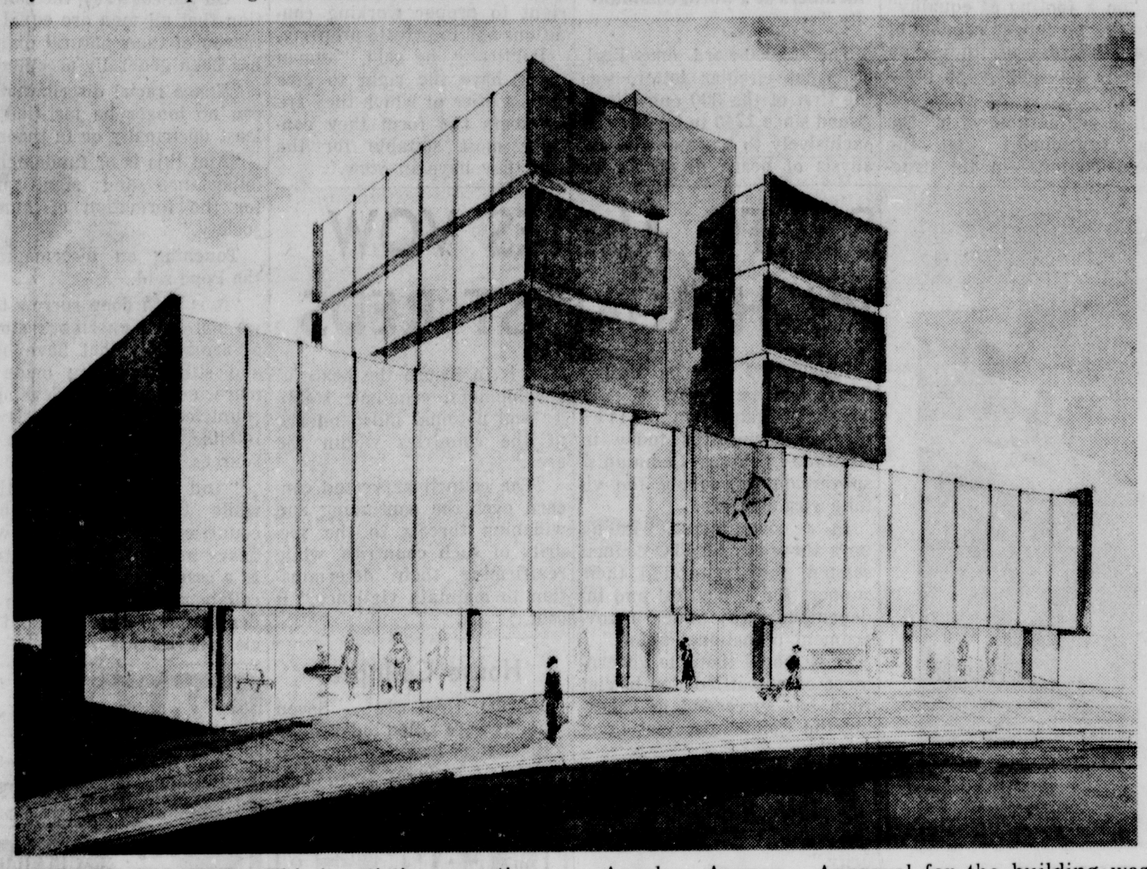
Sierra Nevada: Heavy snow likely starting tomorrow; continued cold.



NEW LOOK FOR HUB—This is artist's conception by K. G. Jarvis of how six-story, 70-foot-high Hub center Building will look when completed on San Anselmo Avenue. Approval for the building was given last night by the San Anselmo City Council. It will have stores on first floor, offices on next two floors, and studio apartments on top three floors.

Brown Says He'll Pick Delegation

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today he's going to select California delegates to the 1964 Democratic national convention.

He didn't say so directly but his news conference statement implied strongly that he has President John F. Kennedy's backing to form a Kennedy-Johnson slate.

Brown said it will be "a very representative delegation" and united behind Kennedy's renomination.

There have been published reports that Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) regarded as a political favorite of the Kennedys, would be the key man in picking next year's delegation.

Brown said he didn't discuss the matter with the president on a trip to Washington earlier this week but that he had discussed it on previous visits.

Slamming Storm Brings Downpour

Lightning, Thunder In Marin

A bright, almost blinding light struck some areas of Marin County today. Old timers said it was sunshine.

There was some hope that the sun may appear again, but the Weather Bureau said not tomorrow. The forecast is for general rain.

Last night the bright lights were flashes of lightning. A slam-bang storm with rolling thunder, sudden lightning and heavy downpours—including sleet—woke many Marinites.

Fairfax had the heavies downpour with a total of 1.3 inches, most of it between 11 p.m. and 1 a.m. There was no damage reported there.

FUSES OUT

Separate lightning bolts at 4:10 a.m. knocked out fuses in transformers in the Bret Harte and Glenwood areas of San Rafael. A few homes in both areas were without power for half an hour, a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. spokesman said. There was no other damage reported.

Marinwood reported .35 of an inch of rain between 7:30 a.m. and noon today, for a total of 1.20 inches since yesterday morning. But in most areas, the rain slacked off soon after 8 a.m.

The Weather Bureau said there would be showers tonight, general rain in the north half of California tomorrow, and snow in the Sierra.

Chains were required on Highways 40 and 50 today.

STORM TOTALS

The 8 a.m. totals for the storm that began Monday night included Phoenix Lake, .87; Lagunitas Lake, .83; Kent Lake, .78; San Rafael, .66; Woodacre, and San Anselmo, .65; Nicasio Lake, .60; Alpine Lake, .55; Forest knolls, .54; Chevy Chase area in Larkspur, .49; Novato, .48, and Point Reyes Station, .44.

The San Rafael total gave 42.58 for the season. Last year at this time the total was 36.91. Average total for the entire 12 months—July 1 to June 30—is 36.39.

The State Department of Water Resources reported today that water storage in Northern California reservoirs is normal or above normal, but Southern California faces serious shortages.

San Diego, the report said, is having its driest year in 113 years.

DOG UNDERGOING TEST FOR RABIES

A mongrel dog that was with a sick fox in West Marin three weeks ago, was put to sleep in order to test its brain for rabies today as county officials continued to worry about spread of the disease.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, said the dog's owner, a ranch worker, has left the county. The dog was taken into custody on Monday by the Marin County Humane Society on orders of Dr. Albrecht.

The action came on the heels of a report of a rabid skunk shot in Novato March 21. It was the fourth rabid skunk report since last summer.

The dog had never been vaccinated against rabies, and the fox, found in the basement of the ranch home, was frothing at the mouth and acting strangely.

The ranch worker shot the fox, destroying its brain so that it could not be tested. Dr. Albrecht said results of tests on the dog's brain tissue should

Hub Will Annex 38 Acres Of Land

San Anselmo City Council last night passed a resolution of intent to annex 38 acres of land adjacent to The Alameda and set a public hearing for 8 p.m. May 14.

Delmay Investments Inc. of San Rafael wants to put in residences on about 50 acres of land lying between The Alameda and Durham Road.

A delegation of nearby residents, armed with a petition signed by 129 persons, appeared at the council meeting last night to get more information on roads, drainage, and typeof homes planned for the area.

Thomas Stoddard of The Alameda, spokesman for the group, said the homeowners group in the area is not necessarily opposed to the annexation as such. "We just want to find out more about the developers—who they are, what type of work they've done."

The petition presented by Stoddard asks that the homes be limited to one-family residential. It also requests the city to join the county and San Rafael in working out a master plan for the entire 425 acres of the Short Ranch, which includes the 38 acres to be annexed to San Anselmo.

Mayor John M. Reichmuth explained that annexation of land is the only question before the council at this time, and that matters of zoning, roads, drainage, etc. will be taken up later. He said the residents will have a chance to air their protests and argue the pros and cons at the May 14 hearing.

No Word On Phone Merger

Six former directors were re-elected and one new director elected last night at the stockholder's meeting of the Western California Telephone Co. in Los Gatos, but a proposed merger with General Telephone Co. did not come up at the meeting.

Boy Is Treated After Bike Collides With Car

Michael Wylie, 13, of 127 Reservoir Road, San Rafael, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday for bruises and abrasions suffered when he and his bicycle collided with a car on Miramar Avenue near his home.

The driver of the car, Mrs. Betty Louise Keen, 29, of 16 Miraflores Avenue, San Rafael, was not cited. The boy was sent home after treatment.

Northgate Ceremonies Set Tuesday

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Emporium department store in San Rafael's Northgate Regional Shopping Center will be held next Tuesday, it was announced today.

Officials of the Emporium Capwell Co. headed by the company's president, Frederic S. Hirschler, will gather at the building site at 10 a.m. along with Jerome C. Draper Jr., president of the Draper Companies, developers of the shopping center, city and county officials and civic leaders. The 200,000-square foot store is expected to take 14 months to complete.

The Emporium will be the initial major department store in the Northgate development south of Manuel Freitas Parkway, and is planned for opening in mid 1964. Six million dollars are to be spent in construction and equipping and stocking the store.

Welfare Staff May Grow By 31 Persons

The Marin County Welfare Department will have to add 31 persons to its staff during the next year to handle the work imposed by new state and federal laws, but this will cost the county only $1,045.

Greatly relieved, the three supervisors present voted unanimously on three commitments necessary to get the program going, including hiring a dozen people July 1.

Miss Presley warned, however, that county costs may increase sharply in future years.

The 12 added employees will get the program under way, she said, but by June 30 of next year, the number of additions will mount to 31.

Base of the problem, Miss Presley reported, is federal public law 87-543, passed last year. It seeks to make welfare programs strengthen family life, encourage rehabilitation and bring about maximum self-care. Its rules increase costs all down the line, Miss Presley said, but most of the costs will be 75 per cent reimbursed to counties as compared with the previous level of 50 per cent.

Miss Presley cited that Marin County is expected to have three-quarters of its old age security caseload in the "service" category as compared with a statewide estimate of 30 to 40 per cent. She attributed the difference to the fact that most Marin County applicants are in their 70s "and apply because financial need arises out of increasing expenses of medical and personal care in advancing years."

In agricultural counties "people apply as soon as they are old enough (65) because they just need the money," she said.

Preliminary budget without consideration for the new requirements would have totaled $512,341 for welfare in the next fiscal year, with county share $280,754. With increases under new laws the items total $579,453, but the county share will be only $1,045 higher.

Auditor - Controller Michael Mitchell said his latest calculations of county budget prospects show that department requests definitely run over the 17 million dollar mark, while recommended outlays will be just under 17 million. This year's budget totaled just over 14.2 million.

Time Is Running Out On Property Taxes

If you own property in Marin, you haven't much time to pay your tax bills for 1962-63 before they will become delinquent.

County Tax Collector Stanley J. Fontez said his office in the civic center will remain open until 8:30 p.m. today to collect payments, but any payment postmarked before midnight will be considered paid before the deadline.

Bills not paid today will be subject to a 6 per cent penalty, and if they are not paid before May 15 the property will be listed on delinquent tax rolls. Failure to pay before June 30 will cause the property to be listed with the state, subject to sale at public auction in five years.

As of this morning, Fontez said about two million dollars, or nearly 10 per cent of a total $25,836,000 due to the county, was still to be collected.

He said about 3 per cent of the total charge usually becomes delinquent.

"Our mail in recent weeks has been especially heavy," Fontez said, "and receipts for payments may be delayed about one week."

Elks Now Own Maple Lawn

Maple Lawn, the Louise Boyd estate on San Rafael's Mission Avenue, became the property of San Rafael Elks Lodge yesterday, reported Roy Farrington Jones, who handled negotiations for the lodge.

The landmark mansion is to become the Elks' new home. The former Elks Club at Fifth Avenue and B Street, still in use by the lodge, has been sold to Bank of Marin.

Memorial Mass Said For Mrs. Cassini

NEW YORK (UPI)—A memorial mass was said today for Mrs. Charlene Wrightsman Cassini, whose death from sleeping pills took from the social set of one of its richest and most beautiful young hostesses.

Mrs. Cassini, 38, died yesterday at Lenox Hill Hospital nine hours after she swallowed 30 barbiturate sleeping pills, apparently in a fit of depression.

State Sells Two Blocks Of Bonds

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California sold two 50-million-dollar blocks of state bonds today at respective interest rates of 2.93 and 2.95 per cent.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Ford Motors Names New President

DETROIT (UPI)—Arjay R. Miller, a member of the "whiz kid" management team once headed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, today was named president of Ford Motor Co.

He succeeds John Dykstra who is retiring.

Miller

Miller came to Ford in 1946 along with nine other young Air Force veterans. McNamara, the No. 1 figure in the group, was named Ford president in 1960 and served only one month before resigning to become secretary of defense.

Dykstra

Dykstra, who will be 65 April 16, will formally step down at the end of the month.

Henry Ford II, board chairman, announced that Charles H. Patterson has been elected to the re-established position of executive vice president. Patterson, who has been with Ford for 36 years, has served as vice president—basic manufacturing group since 1961.

Caracus Police Battle Reds

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI) — Police and troops battled communist gunmen for four hours last night. At least one soldier was killed and nearly 200 persons were arrested.

The crack of rifles and the chatter of machine guns resounded through the city's Red-infested Silencio District from about 8 p.m. until nearly midnight. Several persons were reported wounded.

The shooting started when police broke up a Communist meeting in a 10-story apartment building which proved to be an underground arsenal. Heavily-armed Reds fled to the roof and opened fire on police.

High Court To Decide On Barnett

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court has been asked to decide if Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi is entitled to trial by jury in the criminal contempt proceedings stemming from his efforts to block the enrollment of a Negro at the University of Mississippi.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals deadlocked 4-4 over the issue yesterday and asked the Supreme Court to decide if the 64-year-old governor could be tried by jury as he had asked.

Africa Bomb Charge

Concert Pianist Dies

LONDON (UPI)—Concert pianist Benno Moiseiwitsch, 73 who traced his musical tutelage directly back to Beethoven, died yesterday. He had suffered a stroke a month ago.

Moiseiwitsch studied under Theodor Lescheitzky, who in turn was tutored by Carl Czerny, Beethoven's principal pupil. He once said this fact "makes me a true grandpupil of Beethoven."

Fight In Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—Lebanon's parliament was suspended abruptly last night following a fist-fight and a dramatic incident when government deputy Naif Masri drew a revolver and threatened to shoot opposition deputy Shafik Murtada.

Steel Price Hikes

WHEELING, W.Va. (AP)—The Wheeling Steel Corp. has announced price increases for several of its products effective today—the first anniversary of the steel price hike that led to a clash between some top leaders of the industry and an angry President John F. Kennedy.

Wheeling Steel, the 11th largest steel producer in the nation, announced yesterday it was raising prices on steel plates and other items.

Refugees Vow Fight

MIAMI (UPI)—The Cuban (refugee) Revolutionary Council early today rejected the resignation of its president, Jose Miro Cardona, and vowed it will continue to fight Fidel Castro's regime whether the U.S. government likes it or not.

In a resolution adopted at the end of an all-night session, the council announced its whole-hearted support for Miro's criticism of U.S. Cuban policies which it said had created a "state of crisis."

Oakland Coliseum

OAKLAND (UPI)—The Alameda County Board of Supervisors yesterday approved the proposed 25-million-dollar Oakland coliseum, but with three reservations:

An independent appraisal must be made as to whether or not the tenancy value of the coliseum would be worth 1.5 million dollars annually to the city and county.

Alameda County Administrator Earl Stratham must recommend favorably on the financial feasibility of the project.

The private corporation's board of directors must include three elected officials from cities in the county other than Oakland.

Indian Prisoners

TOKYO (UPI)—Red China announced today that it will release 600 captured Indian prisoners of war "in the Tibet region" April 15 and 17.

Pope Appeals For Peace, Strong U.N.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII appealed today for an end to the arms race and for the United Nations to be given the structure and means to safeguard world peace.

In an encyclical titled "Pacem in Terris" (Peace on Earth), the pontiff called for reduction of arms stockpiles, a ban on nuclear weapons and a general agreement eventually on "progressive disarmament and an effective method of control."

The Pope warned that the "conflagration" of war "may be set off by some uncontrollable and unexpected chance."

He added:

"Even though the monstrous power of modern weapons acts as a deterrent, it is to be feared that the mere continuance of nuclear tests, undertaken with war in mind, will have fatal consequences for life on the earth."

The Pope called for the deterrent of arms equality to be replaced by universal acceptance of the fundamental principle "that the true and solid peace of nations consists not in equality of arms but in mutual trust alone."

Writing as the "vicar on earth of Jesus Christ" and as "interpreter of the very profound longing of the entire human family," the pontiff beseeched "especially those who have the responsibility of public affairs to spare no labor in order to insure that world events follow a reasonable and human course."

Pope John indicated he hoped the United Nations eventually might become a strong world authority. But he did not specifically mention what peace-keeping means it should have at its disposal, such as a police force.

He said:

"A public autority having worldwide power and endowed with the proper means for the efficacious pursuit of its objective, which is the universal common good in concrete form, must be set up by common accord and not imposed by force."

But the pontiff said nations were "right in not easily yielding in obedience to an authority imposed by force, or to an authority in whose creation they had no part, or to which they themselves did not decide to submit by conscious and free choice."

Pope John said a supra-national world authority must be considered because national leaders in the modern world are "on a footing of equality" and are "no longer capable of facing the task of finding an adequate solution to the problems.

"It is our earnest wish," the Pope continued, "that the United Nations—in its structure and in its means—may become ever more equal to the magnitude and nobility of its tasks, and that the day may come when every human being will find therein an effective safeguard for the rights which derive directly from his dignity as a person, and which are therefore universal, inviolable and inalienable rights.

"This is all the more to be hoped for since all human beings, that take an ever more active part in the public life of their own political communities, are showing an increasing interest in the affairs of all peoples, and are becoming more consciously aware that they are living members of a world community."

The 15,000-word encyclical, or papal circular letter, was the first of the 300 encyclicals issued since 1740 to be devoted exclusively to a systematic anaysis of peace in all its aspects — political, social, theoretical, theological and practical.

It also was the first papal encyclical specifically addressed to non-Catholics as well as Catholics.

Pope John touched on a broad range of current problems, appealing for religious peace, social peace, economic peace and political peace.

"Every human being has the right to honor God according to the dictates of an upright conscience and therefore the right to worship God privately and publicly," he wrote.

"Human beings have the natural right to free initiative in the economic field, and the right to work," he added. This right, he said, includes the right to proper working conditions and to private property.

Politically, he said, "human being have the right to give the societies of which they are members the form they consider most suitable for the aim they have in view."

He condemned colonialism and racism in these terms:

"Men all over the world have today — or will soon have—the rank of citizens in independent nations. No one wants to feel subject to political powers located outside his own country or ethnical group.

"Thus in very many human being the inferiority complex which endured for hundreds and thousands of years is disappearing while in others there is an attenuation and gradual fading of the corresponding superiority complex which had its roots in social-economic privileges, sex or political standing.

"On the contrary, the conviction that all men are equal by reason of their natural dignity has been generally accepted.

"Hence racial discrimination can no longer be justified, at least doctrinally or in theory.

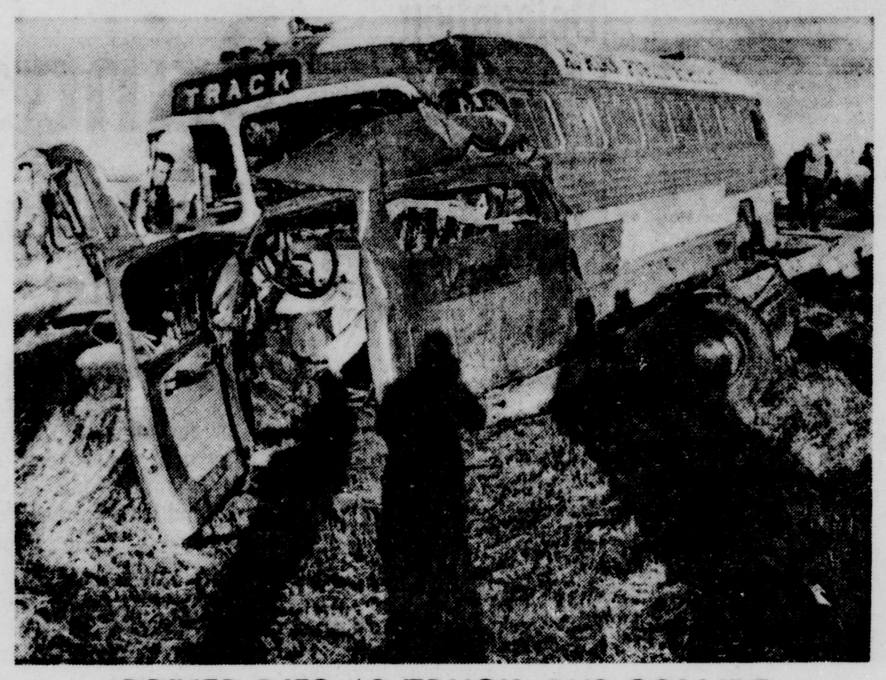
Touching on disarmament, the Pope said:

"It is with deep sorrow that we note the enormous stocks of armaments that have been and still are being made in more economically developed countries, with a vast outlay of intellectual and economic resources.

"And so it happens that, while the people of these countries are loaded with heavy burdens, other countries as a result are deprived of the collaboration they need in order to make economic and social progress.



DRIVER DIES AS TRUCK, BUS COLLIDE

One man was killed and 19 persons were injured when a mail truck collided with this school bus yesterday. The bus was carrying the Adrian, Mich., track team from Monroe, Mich., after completing a meet. The truck driver was killed. Russia Is Cool To 'Hot Line' Progress Report To Thant

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet Union today vetoed inclusion of the proposed "hot line" communications link in a disarmament conference spring progress report to United Nations Secretary General Thant.

Soviet negotiator Semyon K. Tsarapkin said the conference's report to Thant should avoid mention of a direct link between the two governments until the Soviet Union and the United States can agree on its operation.

This, he said, must be after secret bilateral negotiations proposed by the United States yesterday on implementation of the agreement.

The Soviets agreed in principle Friday to this U.S. proposal to reduce the risk of nuclear war by accident.

The Soviet acceptance of the U.S. proposal was the first positive result achieved here since the 17-nation disarmament conference opened March 14, 1962.

It came as a complete surprise to most delegates, following on weeks of Soviet stalling on the nuclear test ban treaty issue.

Some delegates were reported to have expressed fears that Tsarapkin's reluctance to include the agreement in the current report meant the Soviets may now intend to back down on it.

The U.S. delegation seemed unwilling to push the matter too far. U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle said the United States would not insist on the hot line's inclusion against the wishes of the Soviet delegation.

India raised the issue today when its ambassador, Arthur Lall, rose at the final plenary session to ask the conference to include the agreement in a report scheduled to be sent to the United Nations New York headquarters tonight.

Tsarapkin immediately squashed the suggestion. Stelle, presiding over the meeting, said he agreed the Soviets could have the last word on the agreement.

Earlier, informed sources said Britain has told the United States and Russia it reserves the right for a future hook-up to the "hot line" between Washington and Moscow should it come about.

San Rafael General Plan Meeting Tonight

A study meeting on the San Rafael General Plan will be held at 7:30 p.m. today in the planning department office in the basement of E Street School.

Present will be planning and recreation commissioners and planning consultants Daniel P. Coleman and William Spangle, who are drawing up the general plan, reported City Planner James R. Garrett.

SEATO ALLIES VOW PUSH AGAINST REDS

PARIS (UPI) — The United States and its South East Asia Treaty Organization allies pledged themselves today to continue fighting Communist subversion throughout the vitally strategic area.

In a communique winding up a three-day SEATO council session, they reiterated their support for a "neutral and independent Laos under a government of national union."

They noted that the government of embattled South Viet Nam has succeeded in checking the Communist Viet Cong rebellion.

They voiced the hope that Viet Nam will progress further towards "international stability and international security."

Named Pote Sarasin of Thailand to continue as SEATO secretary-general for another two years.

Named Manila as the site of the council session in 1964, the 10th anniversary of the signing of the SEATO pact in that city.

The council, the closing communique said, "reaffirm[ed] the main aim of the Manila Pact is to insure the peaceful development, economic stability and national independence of the countries within the area."

"The council expressed concern over the continuing and widening threats to the security of such countries, while reaffirming their determination to maintain vigilance," it said.

First San Rafael Cluster Development Approved

San Rafael's first cluster development was approved last night by the city planning commission for Racquet Club Estates, with the proviso that all 48 of the dwelling units shall be individual houses.

The commission also hedged its approval with a string of other conditions, designed to counter protests by numerous Sun Valley residents. At that, several of the throng who turned out for the commission's second hearing were still protesting, indicating they'll be further heard from when the city council holds its hearing on the planned community development.

The motion by Gene F. O'Connor to approve rezoning from a single family dwelling to planned community provided that:

(1) None of the homes have common walls which would make them actually duplexes (plans shown last night called for two such buildings); (2) complete plans must be presented for landscaping open areas, and bond posted to guarantee the landscaping; (3) access and drainage requirements be met; (4) open area use be guaranteed by deed restrictions; (5) all utilities to be underground.

Approval on this basis was unanimous.

Kaehler-Farrar Co., the developers, plan to finance and sell the 48 units as a condominium. The land remains as a single parcel.

A previous street plan was amended last night to provide for a single entrance from Fifth Avenue and one from Racquet Club Drive.

EASTER TIME IS NEAR

Children at the Westgate Elementary School of St. Petersburg, Fla., witnessed the birth of a baby chicken recently after 36 eggs that were given to the school by the National Science Foundation were placed in an incubator. If the parents agree, the children will be able to take the chicks home this week, just in time for Easter. (AP Wirephoto)

In Jail For Wife Beating

A family fight in a Novato trailer court last night put a San Rafael man in the Marin County Jail charged with felony wife beating.

Paul Albert Mattox, 53, of 1364 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, was jailed on $1,916.25 bail, charged with felony wife beating, two counts of assault, two counts of battery, disturbing the peace, and being a drunk in public.

The trouble started, said Novato police about 5 p.m. when Mattox went to the trailer of Johnnie O. Howe, 33, of 7060 Redwood Highway to see his sons, James Joseph, 2, and Rex Albert, 3. They were at the trailer with their mother, Rebecca Mattox, 20, who lives in another trailer on the same lot.

Refused permission to see his sons, Mattox entered the trailer and beat his wife about the face, police reported. She called for help. Mrs. Howe tried to stop the ruckus. She told police Mattox threw her out of the trailer.

Both women called for help.

Howe, who was in the bathroom, heard the calls, rushed out and threw Mattox out of the trailer. Both men struggled on the pavement, according to police. Howe finally pinned Mattox's arms.

Mrs. Mattox was bruised on both arms, got two black eyes and a bloody nose, according to police. Howe was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a broken right foot.

While police were looking for Mattox, he showed up at the Novato Police Station to enlist aid in seeing his sons. The officer arrested him there.

Mill Valley Man Hurt As Auto Flips Over

A Mill Valley man was injured when his small German car driven by his daughter flipped on a Tiburon boulevard curve last night, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Herold Doerschler, 41, of 36 Longfellow Road, was to see his own doctor after suffering leg bruises and chest pains when the car, driven by his daughter, Erica, 16, rolled over about 7:15 p.m. near Trestle Glen Drive, reported officer Frank Webb.

TODAY:

2:59 a.m., San Anselmo—Resuscitator call to home of John Porchot, 138 Trunstead Avenue, where son, Jon, 10, with chronic ailment was having trouble breathing; boy in satisfactory condition at Marin General Hospital today.

Bus Riders Protest Marin City Shut-Down

A petition bearing 1,000 signatures of Marin bus riders, incensed over abolition of the Greyhound station at Marin City, was submitted to county supervisors by Supervisor Peter Behr yesterday.

Behr said many of the signers were from Mill Valley and the Tiburon Peninsula.

The Marin County Housing Authority had given 10-days notice to Greyhound, Behr said, of termination of an agreement covering the station and the plan is to raze the building and substitute a small shelter close to Highway 101.

"That in my judgment will be completely inadequate," said Behr, "as Marin City is a major transfer point often involving a need for patrons to wait at night.

"I believe that the housing authority has a responsibility not only to the residents of Marin but perhaps to the county itself in this matter."

At Behr's urging, the board voted to ask "at least a week's leeway," and put the matter on next Tuesday's agenda, with a request that housing authority representatives appear then.

Bert Klahn, Marin County Redevelopment Agency executive director, said today the 10-day notice was given only after Greyhound announced it was closing down its ticket selling operation.

The agency discussed the matter April 1, and decided it could do nothing about it other than to provide a shelter for bus patrons on Donohue Avenue. Bus passengers now load on Donohue Avenue, Klahn said, which has been completely lighted by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

The ticket agency will be open through April 15, Mamie Rae Judson's depot cafe will remain open through April 30, and the building in which the two are housed is to be torn down beginning May 1. Thereafter, all bus tickets will be sold on the bus.

Klahn commented the shutdown has been public knowledge for one month and has been discussed at three public meetings of the redevlopment agency and housing authority.

Planners Say No Cover On Cascade Bridge

Mill Valley planning commissioners last night recommended to the city council that "if there is to be a bridge" on upper Cascade Drive, it have no cover and be subjected to esthetic requirements as suggested by the Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee.

The commission feels that the G. C. Kott bridge, now half-completed, should be as unobtrusive as possible and "the less construction the better," according to Jean McLean, planning aide.

The commission also said it could not pass on plan review for a Signal Oil Co. service station to be built on Miller Avenue near La Goma Avenue without first reviewing circulation plans relating to the entire Shapiro-Egger commercial development.

Girl To Keep Off Streets

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Mrs. Marion L. L. Short says she plans to teach her 13-year-old daughter, Julie, how to pilot a helicopter before she learns to drive a car.

"I want to keep her off the highways," explained Mrs. Short.

Tachometers Stolen From Two Autos

Tachometers were stolen from two cars in the same area last night, it was reported to San Rafael police.

The owners, Frank Gallardo of 10 Treanor Street and Joseph H. Bordessa of 110 Antonette Avenue, both said their parked cars were broken into and the tachometers snapped off the steering columns. The instruments were valued at about $35 each.

Contract Awarded For County Cars

Larry Brink Motors of Mill Valley was awarded a contract by county supervisors today to provide 10 compact sedans at an overall price of $16,215.80, including trade-ins and tax.

His offer on Rambler Americans worked out as lowest of six bidders both on complete cost and cost per vehicle, which he quoted at $1,777.

James L. Walker, also of Mill Valley, won a contract to provide four four-door sedans with police kits. His overall price of $5,145.85 was lowest of three bidders and his price for each Plymouth was $2,054.29. These cars are for the sheriff's office.

Meeting Postponed

STOCKS TODAY

Major steel producers were mostly small fractions higher after falling back from gains that ran generally to more than a point.

A New Man For Ward 12?

PORTERVILLE (AP) — On a routine test flight Harry R. Dellicker, 32, got lost in dense fog and landed miles away.

"Where am I?" he asked as he walked into a strange building.

"It gives you a funny feeling when someone walks in out of the fog and asks where he is," said Mrs. Loretta Grossman, psychiatric technician of Porterville State (mental) Hospital's Ward 12.

"It's even funnier when he tells you he has a plane outside."

will select the delegation," he said.

He said he'll be assisted by Senate Majority Leader Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno); Unruh; the party's state chairman, Eugene L. Wyman of Los Angeles, and the two national committee members.

The governor formed what he termed a representative delegation to the 1960 Democratic convention, nominally pledged to him. Although he came out for Kennedy, he was unable to swing the entire group with him.

Turning to state business, the governor had this to say:

Braceros—He favors a two-year extension of the bracero program and then ending the importation of Mexican farm workers. If it shuts down this year, he said, it will throw a lot of cannery workers out of jobs.

Savings—Brown said a sustained campaign to move mountains of unused files out of state offices has produced savings of $813,300. He said useless records have been destroyed and inactive files shifted from offices to warehouses.

Death Penalty—He expressed satisfaction that an Assembly committee approved his bill to declare a four-year moratorium on capital punishment. He said he's hopeful it will get through the Assembly but that it faces an uphill fight in the Senate.

Chile—The governor said California stands ready to follow up the work of a study team it recently sent to Chile and offer whatever help it can to assist that country. He said Kennedy was very interested in this program.

RABIES

be known by Friday afternoon.

If it had rabies, the health department will try at once to find the owner, Dr. Albrecht said. "We believe he was the only one who was with the dog after the incident with the fox," she said.

Novato policemen spotted the most recent in a series of rabid skunks in the Memorial Gardens Cemetery and called the humane society. Brain tissue tests showed it had rabies, Dr. Albrecht said.

Bat Is Getting Check For Rabies

Mrs. Lyle Cummings of 21 Bigelow Avenue, Mill Valley was told by police yesterday to pen up her cat until it was determined whether the bat the cat brought home yesterday was rabid.

Tests are being made on the bat by the Marin Counyt Health Department.

Novato Teen Girl Runs Away From Home

Sharon Downs, 15, of 1574 South Novato Boulevard, has run away from home, her stepfather, Robert Brisebois, reported today to Novato police.

When last seen about 5 p.m. yesterday, she was wearing black capri pants, white blouse and a gray sweater. She is described as five feet four inches tall, weighing 102 pounds, of slender build with red hair and blue eyes.

OBITUARIES

Joaquin Morales Dies At 64

Joaquin Morales, 64, a Tiburon resident for 15 years, died early today at his home at 1805 Mar West Street of undetermined causes.

He had been a helper for the store department of Northwestern Pacific Railroad in Tiburon 15 years. He was laid off work following the San Rafael tunnel fire July 20, 1961.

An autopsy was performed today, according to Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley, and research will be made by a pathologist and toxologist to determine cause of death.

Bradley reported Morales had not been feeling well for two or three days but did not want to go to a doctor. He went to a Tiburon bar last night and had a drink with a friend, Eugene Burke of 681 Hawthorne Drive, Tiburon. Burke drove Morales home. Morales collapsed on his knees and fell forward after he got out of the car in front of his home.

Dr. Donovan O. Cooke of Belvedere was called and pronounced Morales dead at 1:10 a.m.

Morales was born in Mexico. He was divorced and lived alone. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks.

Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Antonio Galvan and Mrs. Marian Morrow of San Francisco; two sons, George Morales of South San Francisco and Rudolph Morales, with the U.S. Air Force in the Azores.

PATRICK LINDLEY

He was born in Nebraska on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 1917, from which he received his name Patrick. His birthdays were always a day of big celebration at the bar where he worked. He was also a well known horseman.

He had worked at the Village Inn and for four years had owned his own bar in Novato.

He was a member of Bartenders and Culinary Workers Union Local 126; Ancient United Order of Druids, Novato Grove, and a charter member of the Novato Lodge of Loyal Order of Moose.

He is survived by his wife, June, at the family home in Petaluma; a son, George of San Francisco; a step-son, Michael Tauscher, and stepdaughter, Sherry Tauscher of Petaluma; two sisters, Mrs. Faye Parrmenter of San Francisco and Mrs. Opan Cook of Palo Alto; two brothers, Roy and Ben Lindley of Nebraska, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Burial will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

GUS STENZEL

Funeral services for Gus Stenzel, 76, ranch foreman and former trucker, will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Burial will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

Stenzel died Monday night of a heart attack suffered at his home at 45 Ignacio Lane. He was dead on arrival at Novato Hospital.

He was born in Germany on Oct. 10, 1886. He had lived in the United States for the past 30 years. He operated his own trucking firm until he retired 20 years ago. Since that time he has worked as a mechanic and ranch foreman for the Smith Brothers Ranch in Las Gallinas.

He is survived by a niece, Mrs. Frieda Wurche, with whom he made his home; a sister, Mrs. Pauline Gundke of Germany, and a brother, Karl Stenzel of Germany.

ALBERT MURPHY

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Albert Stanwood Murphy, millionaire executive of a large Northern California lumber empire, died in his home last night after a brief illness.

Murphy, 70, was chairman of the board of directors of the Pacific Lumber Co., with extensive mills in Humboldt County.

His family long had an interest in the company which today assets estimated at more than 40 million dollars, including mills and timber lands.

Murphy's family had been in logging since 1833. Murphy himself started with the company as a logger at the age of 18 and worked in every part of the lumber operation before moving up to an executive position.

Murphy was prominent in San Francisco society, he belonged to the Pacific Union Club, the Bohemian Club and the Burlingame Country Club.

In addition to a son and three grandchildren, he is survived by his wife.

BEULAH FISHER

A private memorial service for Beulah Fisher, 77, of 931 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, will be held at the San Rafael Methodist Church on Saturday.

Mrs. Fisher, a retired school teacher, had lived in San Anselmo the past year. She died last Wednesday in a local hospital after long illness.

She was born in Nebraska and spent most of her life in the Pacific Northwest. She began teaching in the Willamette Valley in Oregon and later taught at St. Helens High School, near Portland, and Oregon State College in Corvallis. She moved to San Francisco in 1956 and later to Marin.

CARL DUNSTER

Funeral services for Carl Bennet Dunster, 84, of Cotati, a former Marin resident, were held yesterday in Petaluma.

A retired mining engineer, Dunster had been an invalid for five years. He died Sunday in a Petaluma hospital.

Dunster was born and educated in Michigan, but spent many years in California.

Foreign Language Plan Approved

By LOREN MACARTHUR

A foreign language program that will be taught to every sixth, seventh and eighth grade student in the San Rafael schools beginning this fall was approved last night by the San Rafael Board of Education.

All students will hear and speak either French or Spanish 20 minutes daily, Dr. Mildred B. Barnard, assistant superintendent for elementary schools, told the board.

"They will learn to speak and understand the language. They will not learn to read and write it until later," she said.

"We have decided that time given to a sporadic study of a foreign language in the lower grades should be stopped," she said. Schools which cannot offer continuous language instruction through all the grades will stop their language program until more teachers are trained in foreign languages, she added.

Dr. Barnard said only two fulltime language teachers of junior high school level must be hired to begin the program in the fall.

"Forty teachers in the elementary district have taken a night language course offered by the district this semester and last," she said. "They all found it difficult in the beginning. Now they're ready to teach in the fall. A number of them want more advanced instruction."

Dr. Barnard said KQED's television language program would be used where necessary to supplement the program, but "our students are fast outgrowing the program."

Tracing the development of the foreign language program in the district, she noted it was begun in 1960, a year before the state legislature passed a law requiring that foreign language teaching begin in grades six, seven and eight by July 1, 1965.

By September, 1962, she said, foreign language was offered in some 33 classes in sixth grade and below and at both junior high schools.

Long-range plans, she said, include teaching foreign language to all fifth grade pupils beginning in September, 1964, to all fourth graders a year later, and to lower classes as soon as teachers are available.

"We have yet to find," she concluded, "a student who is unable to learn a foreign language."

Army Breaking Up Engineer Company

The Army is breaking up Marin's 561st Engineer Company at Fort Baker to make room for "new units of types considered more essential" in the concept of modern warfare, it was announced today.

Some 230 officers and men of the World War II-born port construction unit, many of whom live in Marin communities, will be reassigned at the Presidio of San Francisco and throughout the Army, wherever their skills can be used, Sixth Army headquarters said. The deactivation order was handed down from the Department of the Army.

The 561st, only unit of its kind in the West, has been at Fort Baker since March, 1955.

The unit would have been 21 years old on June 15. It was first activated on that date in 1942 at Camp Edwards, Mass. The port builders served in Scotland, Morocco and Italy; they were in the Omaha Beach landing at Normandy. They also served in southern France, Luzon and Alaska, and later the unit took part in the Korean conflict.

The 561st has been under command of Capt. Vinton C. Rathbun of 543 Wisteria Lane, Terra Linda.

Novato May Need 17 Schools

An ultimate need of 16 or 17 elementary schools in Novato Unified School District was forecast last night by Supt. James N. Bunker to the district board.

The district now has five elementary schools.

"The district will need at least two more elementary schools by September, 1964," Bunker said. He indicated these would probably be adjacent to the high school site and the Sanchez site on Sutro Avenue.

"If the Bahia Development goes ahead on schedule, we might need one school there also," he said.

Hill Junior High School will also need to be enlarged by the fall term in 1964, he told the board.

The board approved an application for $5,800 in National Defense Education Act fund for improvements of foreign language and science programs.

The district is working with the Parent-Teacher Assn. and the Novato Police Department in organizing school crossing patrols, Bunker told the board. The district hopes to get city council approval of having a police officer instruct the children for patrol duty, he said.

The Novato School District board also:

1. Heard from Bunker that all new salary schedules adopted elsewhere in California exceed Novato's. This might force salaries up in the Novato district, he said.

2. Hired Ora Sanovich as part-time bus driver at $2 an hour.

3. Accepted resignations from Patricia Di Grazia, on leave; Jeanne Giles, second grade teacher at Olive School; Lotus Grau, first grade teacher at Rancho School; Joseph Massucco, sixth grade teacher at West Novato; Marjorie Ross, social studies teacher at Hill School, and Jane Stuve, second grade teacher at Rancho.

38 In Marin Receive State Scholarships

Award of California state scholarships to 38 Marin students was announced today by the State Scholarship Commission in Sacramento.

The Marin winners are among 1,700 throughout California, selected from some 16,000 applicants. The state-financed scholarships pay up to $900 for tuition and fees at the college or university of the winner's choice. They are renewable annually if the students retain academic and financial eligibility.

Among the 38 Marin winners were two who elected under the commission's new "reserve scholarship" program to hold the scholarship awards in reserve until they complete junior college, then using them to help complete their education.

Ten of the Marin winners attend Marin Catholic High School. Nine attend Sir Francis Drake High; six, Redwood High; four, Terra Linda High; three, Novato High; two, San Rafael High, and one each, Tamalpais High, Dominican Upper School, University of San Francisco, and College of Marin.

The winners are:

Permit To Expand Nursing Home In Larkspur Denied By Planners

A use permit to expand a nursing home at 234 Hawthorne Avenue was denied William Slocum by the Larkspur Planning Commission at a crowded hearing in city hall last night on grounds that it "would change the character of the neighborhood."

The present structure houses 11 patients. The proposed expansion would accommodate 15 more. Residents protested the paving of Hawthorne is narrow and parking and traffic already constitute a hazard.

The Arkites Assn., representing Boardwalk 1 residents, was granted a variance for parking cars on land near their homes, whether on rented property or property of the city.

The variance was sought by residents to cooperate with the city to end parking of about 50 cars on Doherty Drive. Many residents attended the hearing.

At the association's request, City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper has been directed by the council to seek Larkspur School District board approval for a road and parking lot on the edge of Henry C. Hall School grounds.

George Bertram was granted architectural supervision for a warehouse of steel construction on land adjoining the Redwood Empire Lumber and Supply Co. east of Highway 101.

The commission set for 8 p.m. April 23 public hearing on its proposal to rezone a strip of land about 100 feet deep and 1,200 feet long on the east side of Magnolia Avenue from residential to commercial. The strip runs from Hillview Gardens to College Park Avenue. Numerous commercial establishments already have been built in the vicinity after granting of use permits.

Commissioners did not resume discussion of the proposed new subdivision ordinance because Commissioner Earl J. O'Grady was absent.

50 Milers Fail To Make Round Trip

None of 25 Neil Cummins School children who started a 50-mile hike at dawn yesterday got back to the school in Corte Madera to complete the trek.

But the mother of one of them believes her son walked at least 50 miles anyhow, in 17 hours.

Jim Johnson, 15, eighth grader of 17 El Camino Drive, apparently came closest of the 22 boys and three girls to do the 50-miler that became popular after being espoused by President John F. Kennedy. He made it to Point Reyes Station and back to Larkspur before he gave up and telephoned his mother at 10 p.m. to "come and get me."

But, said the mother, Mrs. Dorothy Lauchner, "Jim got confused on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard coming back and walked into Greenbrae, then doubled back to downtown Larkspur, so we figure he hiked about 52 miles."

Fellow pupil Paul Samuelsen, with young Johnson, tired out near the San Anselmo limits. Other parents picked up their hiking youngsters at various points along the route.

Seeks Clear-Cut Property Division

Diane Marie Conlin of 11 Garden Court, Novato, who filed for divorce against Deputy Sheriff Martin Joseph Conlin yesterday, seeks a clear-cut division of community property.

She says he can keep three sheets, six towels, two pillow cases, a 1961 convertible, and his life insurance policy.

She wants $5 per month alimony and suggests that he give up the rest of the community property including:

Blue chips and green stamps, large cutting board for kitchen use, large clothes basket, and a first aid book that was her separate property and is now in his custody.

Theft From Boat

The carburetor, distributor and flame arrester were stolen from his 25-foot inboard boat recently at the Marin boat house, 345 Francisco Boulevard, owner Charles A. Fillingame of 11 Briarwood Drive reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Cows Can Rest And Stay Clean

EUREKA (AP) — "Loafing barns" for cows?

The stalls, 45 inches by seven and one-half feet, are just large enough for a cow to lie down but not to turn around.

The brothers said the stalls keep the cows cleaner for milking.

Spare Tire Stolen

Robert A. Shearer of 32 Ross Street, San Rafael, reported to police yesterday that the spare tire was stolen from his parked car at his home.

Personality Of Slain Skier Is Probed By Investigators

RENO (AP) — Investigators probed further today the personality of Sonja McCaskie, 24, former Olympic skier, for a key to her mysterious decapitation and dismemberment.

Dist. Atty. Wililam J. Raggio said he planned to consult a psychiatrist about the possible meaning of diary entries and morbid free verse she had written.

Police said they still had no real suspect.

A pathology report, scheduled to be made late today, was expected to help pinpoint the cause of death and the time—now believed to have been between 10:30 p.m. Thursday and 7 a.m. Friday.

Sonja's mutilated body was discovered Friday night by an officer asked by Miss McCaskie's babysitter to check on the girl, who had failed to visit her 10-month-old son Kim.

Raggio denied he had said Miss McCaskie's diary indicated she had been intimate with scores of men. But unofficial reports persisted that she had close relations with a number of male friends, of some of whom she was not too proud.

Raggio and Police Chief Elmer A. Briscoe said the diary and verse, which dealt largely with death and love, indicated a complex personality.

But a close friend, Mrs. Beverly Erickstad of Reno, contended Miss McCaskie was a normal person with normal problems, although moody.

Miss McCaskie had brought a paternity suit against David C. Conrad, 24, University of Nevada graduate assistant in English. Conrad denied he was the father of Kim, born at Palo Alto June 11, 1962.

Court records indicated Conrad wrote to Miss McCaskie after he was married and after Kim was born.

Miss McCaskie has sought medical expenses and "reasonable" child support.

Conrad contended in one letter that Miss McCaskie was "consorting with another individual" at the time the child would have been conceived.

Conrad was questioned last weekend and volunteered for a lie detector test. Briscoe said he was cleared of any connection with the slaying.

Raggio said Miss McCaskie had a wide circle of friends and denied her apparently disturbed personality was necessarily abnormal sexually.

Youngsters Learn Use Of Weapons

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Another 25,000 California youngsters were taught the fundamentals of safe gun handling in 1962, the State Department of Fish and Game reported.

That brought the total trained to 254,149 youths since the program started in 1954.

All under 15 must take the course before they can apply for their first California hunting license.

Reed Teachers Elect

James Mumma, sixth grade teacher at Bel Aire School, has been elected president of the Reed District Teachers Assn. He succeeds Joan Hamren. Other officers will be Seymour Feldman, vice president; Elizabeth de Carli, treasurer, and Patricia Pierovich, secretary.

He's Bothered Out Of Jail Cell

PALMETTO, Fla. (AP)—A Palmetto jail prisoner decided freedom wasn't all it is cracked up to be.

Matthew L. Dunbar and two companions — all serving 100-day sentences on traffic charges—used a rock to laboriously chip away the mortar between concrete blocks in the wall of the jail. Finally, they were able to push out several of the blocks and flee through the hole.

Dunbar returned to jail the next night, however. He had insomnia, he said.

"I couldn't sleep knowing they were looking for me," said Dunbar.

Laundry Stolen

Someone picked up the laundry at the Lodge Apartments at 34 Grove Street, San Rafael, but it wasn't the laundry man, owner Ann Meta Frank reported to San Rafael police yesterday. She said two bags of laundry valued at $65 were taken off the back porch.

Burglar Gets $700 Haul From Tam Valley Home

A burglar crawled through a kitchen window and got away with a $700 haul from a Tamalpais Valley home last night, Sheriff's Deputy George Johnsen reported.

The victim is Klaus Baumann, a Greyhound bus driver who lives at 311 Robin Road. Baumann told Deputy Johnsen he left home about 7:45 last night to visit friends in San Francisco. When he returned about 10:30, his 16 millimeter movie camera worth $450 was gone. Also missing are a leather jacket worth $180 and a $64 camera lens.

Death Bill Showdown Is Likely

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Proponents ignored Senate warnings and said today they'll press for an early Assembly showdown on Gov. Edmund G. Brown's plea to suspend the death penalty in California for a four-year trial.

The moratorium bill sponsored by the governor came through its first test yesterday with the help of a vote by a former prosecutor. It was approved by the Assembly Committee on Crminal Procedure, 6-4.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan, (D-Los Angeles) author of the bill, announced he will take it up in the lower house "within a week."

"I don't want to predict the vote," he said, "but I think I can get it out. As for the Senate, I am not making any predictions but I have great hopes."

"I don't think anti-capital punishment measures have any chance in the Senate this year," Burns said.

Birth Control Plan Backing Is Urged

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Alvin C. Weingand (D-Santa Barbara) asked the legislature today to endorse a state-administered birth control program to remove the "cloud of fear" hovering over family planning agencies.

The Protestant lawmaker introduced a controversial resolution urging that the legislature support in principle his proposal to provide birth control services to poverty-stricken recipients.

The resolution asked that such services "should be readily available" and under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Public Health in co-operation with local health agencies.

Senate majority leader Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) gave the measure a 50-50 chance for passage because it's in the form of a resolution rather than a bill.

"This wouldn't require the state by statute to enter into this area. It's permissive legislation," Burns said.

Burns, however, reiterated his opposition to the idea as did other senators who spoke for the record nearly a month ago when Weingand first raised the touchy subject.

Weingand said he would welcome an interim study but only as a second step in the event the resolution fails to gain support.

The senator said in a statement that local public health programs now are giving out birth control information and issuing contraceptives.

McCarthy Hits Brown On Schools

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Sen. John McCarthy, (R-San Rafael) has branded statements made by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to a national school group as "a cover up of the governor's record in education and a distortion of his opponents' views."

McCarthy referred yesterday to statements made by Brown to the National Committee for Support of Public Schools in Washington, D. C. Brown accused Richard M. Nixon, his Republican opponent last November of wanting to limit academic freedom.

McCarthy, Republican caucus chairman, said his party "stood for a belief that the strength and vitality of our educational system lies in the autonomy of the local, diversified school system.

'Quake Proofing' High School To Be $225,000

"Earthquake proofing" the old buildings at San Rafael High School will cost $225,000, which the San Rafael High School District doesn't have, the San Rafael Board of Education learned last night.

Repairing the auditorium, which served as a gymnasium when built in the 1920s, will cost $170,000, San Rafael structural engineer Harold M. Engle told the board. Repairs for the classrooms, which will bring them to state standards, will be $55,000, he said.

Supt. Bert C. Corona told the board that school architects Gromme and Priestly are considering plans to entirely tear down the old classrooms behind the present library and use the space for the new library and 10 classroom addition they have been authorized to design. Funds of $330,000 from a past bond issue are available for the new library and classrooms.

"However," Corona said, "that will leave us eight classrooms short. We had counted on using the old classrooms too. We have no funds for the remodeling job."

Engle told the board the old buildings "have good bones but need new joints. The original poured concrete in the walls is still good," he said, "but the roofs have no bracing. In an earthquake the ceilings could just peel off. Repairing them is like putting the lid on the box."

Board members agreed that funds for the repairs might come from a future bond issue.

San Anselmo Now Has Legal Possession Of Greyhound Depot

San Anselmo now has legal possession of the Greyhound bus depot at the Hub, City Atty. John G. Buresh reported last night.

At the next meeting of the city council, Administrator Douglas J. Flautt said he hopes to have information on demolition of the bus depot building.

The city has deposited $82,500 with Marin Superior Court as security for the Greyhound property. Negotiations are going on for the price of property, and if this fails, the case will go to trial in June.

The San Anselmo City Council last night:

1. Presented certificates of appreciation to Thomas Pring and Geoffrey Fairfax, who resigned from the San Anselmo Planning Commission. Mayor John M. Reichmuch asked his colleagues to submit names of possible successors.

2. Proclaimed May 1 as Law Day U.S.A. in San Anselmo.

3. Postponed a decision on changing the name of Woodside Court to Woodland Terrace. City fathers had no objection, but postal officials pointed out that Woodland Avenue and Terrace Avenue already exist. A street named "Woodland Terrace" would create confusion, they said.

With Squadron

Donald R. Perez, Navy aviation machinist's mate airman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic J. Perez of 807 Hacienda Way, San Rafael, is serving with Attack Squadron 115, which returned last week fro ma seven-month assignment in the Far East aboard the attack aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The gas industry, whose Festival of Gas exhibit was the first to contract for space at the New York 1964-65 World's Fair, reports 80 per cent of all exhibit buildings at the exposition will be air-conditioned by gas.

Pay As You Go Solves Problem

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A suburban housewife, spending $150 a month on long distance telephone calls, broke herself of the habit by having a pay phone installed in her bedroom.

Southern Bell first objected to the idea but gave in when its workers figured out a way to screw the device onto an oak bench.

The customer has to guarantee a minimum "take" of $18 a month but she says that's no problem.

Each evening she makes three or four calls, and she continues to phone long distance. Now, however, she hangs up when the operator notifies her "your three minutes are up."

Coleman School Parents Request More Remedial Reading Teachers

Parents want more remedial reading teachers for Coleman School, the San Rafael Board of Education learned last night.

"Our P-TA would particularly encourage the board to support any item in the budget which would strengthen our reading program and provide as many remedial reading specialists as possible," she wrote the board of the Coleman School Parent-Teacher Assn.

"As you know," said the letter, "the primary purpose of the P-TA is the best possible education for our children. We hold the most vital learning is that of reading. . .

"We therefore urge your thoughtful consideration of programs that will lead to greater reading strength in our children. One facet of this is the remedial reading program."

The letter, signed by P-TA board president Mrs. H. Dieter Schugt, was accepted without comment by the board.

Outboard Motor Stolen From Boat

LANSDALE ZONING BACK TO PLANNERS

Proposed rezoning of the Lansdale commercial area, at Center Boulevard and San Anselmo Avenue, was referred back to the San Anselmo Planning Commission last night because city councilmen could not agree.

The planning commission recommended that most of the Lansdale area on San Anselmo Avenue between Center and Oak Knoll Avenue be rezoned for apartments and duplexes. Planning Commission Chairman Ronald Hill said the trend in the area is for multiple units. The proposal is to rezone everything to apartments and other residential, except for three pieces of property nearest Center Boulevard.

Hill said almost all property owners are in favor of the rezoning.

However, three property owners submitted a letter opposing apartment zoning. They are Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Tucker and Richard L. Savel, who own three small parcels at the corner of Florence and San Anselmo Avenues.

Mayor John M. Reichmuth and Councilman William Franchini voted to approve the planning commission proposal to rezone for apartments. However, the other three councilmen blocked the rezoning because they want the Tuckers and Savel to retain commercial zoning if they want.

Novato Zoning Plan Again Turned Down

For the second time, a request by Harry Lundblad for rezoning from limited agricultural to multiple dwelling of land across Marion Avenue from the Marion School was turned down by the Novato City Council last night. This time rejection was by two-to-one vote.

Mayor M. E. Silva cast the only vote favoring Lundblad. Councilmen Everett Pozzi and John Angeloni were absent.

"I've watched Novato grow from a small town," Silva said in defense of his vote. "It didn't grow by fighting everyone who wanted to build something. It is getting so that people cannot do anything with their own property any more. It doesn't belong to a person any longer."

Lundblad owns the corner of Seventh Street and Marion Avenue. The opposite side of Seventh Street is zoned multiple.

The first request was opposed by the Hidden Valley Home Owners Assn. It was denied by the planning commission and city council. In January, Lundblad asked for rezoning of another section of the land. This was also denied.

Jack Adams, representing the Hidden Valley Home Owners Assn., again opposed the rezoning on the basis that it would add traffic to Marion Avenue when children were going to school.

The council failed to complete zoning matters on its agenda and adjourned to 8 p.m. today to complete the agenda and hold an executive session on hiring and firing city personnel.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Approved rezoning the rear one-third of lots on the north side of Olive Avenue for single family homes.
2. Approved rezoning from duplex to multiple family, a lot at 1020 Third Street, requested by E. D. McGillicuddy, and one at 1041 Third Street, requested by Inge Bald.
3. Ordered an ordinance prepared that would change three sections of the Loma Verde master plan. The commercial zone near Birdie Drive would be split into single and multiple family zones and the multiple family zone near Highway 101 would be changed to professional and administrative zones.
4. Granted use permit for a plumbing shop at 857 Sweetzer Avenue to Harry W. Locke.
5. Accepted Sunny Acres unit 1, on Cherry Street, as completed.
6. Granted two exceptions to a tentative map of a six-lot Mountain View subdivision on Kendon Lane, to eliminate curbs, sidewalks and gutters and allow paving of only half the 26-foot street width.
7. Approved the final map of Rancho Village unit 7.
8. Approved an agreement with Emil and Lydia Yanke to install a street for a subdivision south of their convalescent home on Tamalpais Avenue. When the use permit for the convalescent home was granted, they were to provide access to Center Road in addition to Tamalpais Avenue. This will now be provided through the proposed subdivision.

Planning Contracts Approved In Novato

Final contracts for a $82,670 federally assisted planning grant were approved last night by the Novato City Council.

Original plans for the Novato-Federal government master plan were for $70,470. However, a large portion of this was for aerial mapping of the city. This was increased by $12,200, making a total of $47,100, to take in all of the North Marin watershed. North Marin Water District, Novato Sanitary District, and the County of Marin, are participating also in cost of the aerial mapping.

Schedule To Be Reworked At Del Mar

Because history and geography would be taught for one semester only in the Del Mar Intermediate School scheduled to open next fall, Reed Union School District trustees last night asked the administration to rework the proposed schedule.

The principal objection to such a plan, whereby the social studies would be taught one semester and science the other semester, came from Mrs. Marilyn C. Steinau, spectator. Mrs. Steinau felt social studies should be taught all year.

MODERN

No objection was voiced to other time allotments which include a full year each of English, mathematics and physical education; literature and Spanish on alternate days and 12 weeks of art, music and home economics for girls and industrial arts for boys.

Robert B. Gaw, Reed School principal, described the new school as "the most modern and complete facility of its kind in Marin County."

The board voted to submit an application to the State Department of Education for construction of the first seven rooms of the Marin Estates-Mariner Highlands Elementary School. The board also approved filing an application for state planning funds, not to exceed $16,500.

JOINS APSS

The trustees accepted an invitation to join the Associated Public Schools Systems at a cost of approximately $350. The APSS is a national educational research organization established by Columbia University to promote research exchange among 350 districts which have been invited to join since its founding in 1948. Supt. Edward C. Pino said the "community should feel honored to receive this invitation."

The following were appointed to a planning committee for the Marin Estates - Mariner Highlands Elementary School: Walter Nagel, chairman; Hugh Cox, Jean Eberle, Euguene Lordon, representing the community; Alyce Farkas, representing trustees; Marian Jones, James Mumma and Pauline Scott, representing the teaching staff; Pino, representing the administration, and J. Martin Rosse, architect. Mrs. Ray Williams will serve as an observer.

No decisions were made at an executive session on hiring which followed the meeting, Pino reported. Another executive session has been scheduled for April 16, at 8 p.m. at the district office, to discuss hiring.

Supervisors Decide To Search For New County Building Inspector

Recruitment for a new building inspector to replace resigned Otto H. Meyer will start at once, county supervisors decided yesterday on recommendation of public works director Donald R. Frost.

Frost reported he had conferred with representatives of the building industry, in accordance with promise at a recent stormy session featured by Meyer's resignation, and that minor revisions of the job description were agreed on.

Industry representatives had recommended a two-range boost from the level of Meyer's pay to obtain a man of the desired qualifications and Frost agreed. He later declared that had Meyer remained, the increase would have been recommended for him.

Frost said there had been discussion for additional inspectors, as well as the proper pay scale for inspectors, but it was agreed that overall recommendation would be deferred to budget time. He said it was indicated there is need for at least one more inspector.

E. Douglas Roberts of the Marin Builders Exchange rose from a group of half a dozen representatives of the construction industry to declare that "we have been pleased by the cooperation shown," whereupon Frost said he was similarly pleased by the industry's attitude.

The board backed his recommendations unanimously.

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Voted support of Senate Bill 41 to permit a 30-year rather than 20-year repayment period of state loans to small craft harbor projects.
2. Ordered county counsel to report next Tuesday on a request by Lloyd Kahn Jr. of Mill Valley that his San Francisco brokerage firm be allowed to bid on the Marin County insurance program.
3. Approved an "ambulance disaster program" presented by Jean Smith, assistance county civil defense director, with appreciation for help of an ambulance subcommittee headed by Thomas Larke Jr.
4. Approved, at request of County Librarian Virginia Keating, a resolution supporting Assembly Bill 590, which would increase state aid to library exchange systems.
5. Granted variance to Mary Rowley for construction of a 12-unit apartment at Shoreline Highway and Maple Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, subject to public works department approval of a closed conduit over Coyote Creek.
6. Adopted a resolution to aid the City of Fairfax in improvement of Bolinas Avenue under the urban thoroughfare agreement.
7. Granted Ross General Hospital a use permit for extension of its offices in front of the structure facing Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.
8. Named May 1 "Law Day" in accordance with request of the Marin County Bar Assn.
9. Approved a joint air-mapping agreement with the City of Novato, Novato Sanitary District, and North Marin County Water District, of which the county's share will be $6,400 already budgeted.
10. Approved name change asked by Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District with approval of the only three householders on Reed Court, to become Bay Vista Court.
11. Awarded a contract for culvert pipe arch to Consolidated Western Steel on its bid of $6,208.60, lowest of five; but rejected two bids on a half-ton walk-in type van for the library because of decision to revise specifications for one-ton.
12. Were advised by the Bay Area Water Pollution Control Board of default in Jan. 30 report due on San Rafael Meadows Sewer Maintenance District, under cease and desist order; asked the Public Works Department to file such report by April 18.

Fusselman Blocks Harold Stockstad Reappointment

Reappointment of Harold Stockstad, chairman of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs, to the Board of the County Redevelopment Authority was blocked by acting Chairman William D. Fusselman at a special supervisors session today.

Chairman Walter R. Castro and Supervisor William A. Gnoss were absent because of illness, so unanimous vote of members present was required for an appointment.

Supervisor Peter Behr casually nominated Stockstad to serve again but Fusselman said it wouldn't happen today.

"I wouldn't vote for that fellow for anything," Fusselman snorted. When Behr registered mild surprise, Fusselman amplified, "I've been watching him longer than you've been on this board."

There was no second and no vote was taken.

CLUB IS WORKING ON BROWN'S HALL

Architectural recommendations are being obtained and an insurance settlement is expected to be concluded this week in line with plans toward rebuilding of Brown's Hall in Mill Valley, Jo Schlesinger, building superintendent, reported at a meeting last night of the Homestead Valley Improvement Club.

The hall was badly damaged by fire March 14. Many contributions have been made toward a rebuilding fund, Mrs. Schelsinger said. Persons interested in contributing may do so through Brown's Hall Rebuilding Fund, P.O. Box 262, Mill Valley.

Last night's board meeting was at Mrs. Schlesinger's home but the meetings are planned to be held in the future at the Almonte Improvement Clubhouse at Almonte Boulevard and Wisteria Way. The latter club has volnnteered use of its clubhouse by Homestead at no charge.

Kentfield To Vote On Bond Issue

Voters in Kentfield Elementary School District will decide next Tuesday on whether to authorize issuance of $850,000 in bonds to finance nine classrooms, a library, storage facilities, and remodeling and site improvements at the district's three schools.

Kentfield voters have never turned down a finance measure presented by the school district.

The present 1,489 enrollment is expected to hit 1,818 in seven years, according to a house-by-house survey taken last spring by the Marin County Planning Commission and Parent-Teacher Associations of the three Kentfield schools.

Planned to be financed with proceeds of the bonds are a six-classroom wing combined with multi-use facilities at Wolfe Grade School, to be built by 1965, along with remodeling a classroom at Greenbrae School into a library and extending the Wolfe Grade parking lot.

Two classrooms and shower and locker facilities would be built in 1966-67 at Adaline E. Kent School.

New heating and lighting in the multi-use room and shop at Kent School would be installed in 1967-68. Also projected at Kent are a covered walk across Stadium Way to connect lower grade and seventh and eighth grade classrooms, an instructional materials room, site improvements, and acquisition of additional land.

A new kindergarten at Wolfe Grade, development of the new Kent land, and remodeling of a bus shed into storage facilities at Greenbrae are planned for 1968-69.

Supt. Howard Harmon says the bond issue will not increase the district's tax rate. The reason is that the district is already at its legal bonding limit. New bonds would be sold as assessed value increased, meanwhile older bonds being retired. A state aid formula will mean reduction in payments on state loans to balance any increase in bond interest, according to the superintendent.

Somebody Likes Rep. Udall Aide

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Somebody in Tucson likes Ted Heil.

Heil, secretary to Rep. Morris K. Udall (D-Ariz.) received one write-in vote on the general election ballot to the following offices:

Arizona Supreme Court; Pima County Superior Court, Divisions 1, 2, 4 and 5; U. S. senator; governor; state senator; secretary of state; state representative; county supervisor; county assessor and clerk of the superior court.

Fire Meet Postponed

Because one of its members will be absent, the Novato Fire District board has postponed its meeting from tonight until tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Fire Station 1, said Fire Chief George Cavallero.

Non-com Graduates

Army Sp/4 Thomas E. Wilkin, whose wife, Glenda, lives in Point Reyes Station, was recently graduated from the Seventh Army Non-Commissioned Officer Academy at Bad Tolz, Germany.

Dixie Unit To Review Civil Defense Policies

The Dixie School District board will review civil defense policies at its meeting 8 p.m. today in the district's office.

Also on the agenda is the recommendation of Supt. Dennie B. Willis to apply for $11,500 for a science project and $8,500 for a language project under the National Defense Education Act.

Triple Punch Aids Children With Cancer

An antibiotic, surgery and radiation are destroying all visible signs of this cancer, known as Wilm's tumor of the kidney, in 81 per cent of child victims, said Dr. Sidney Farber of children's hospital, Boston. One boy is alive and well six years later, other children seemingly well for two to five years thus far.

Recounting progress to an American Cancer Society seminar for science writers, Dr. Farber also announced initial success in preserving and using an element in human blood —platelets—to combat hemorrhages which are the main cause of death in children with acute leukemia or blood cancer.

He said banks of platelets may become generally available to help treat acute leukemia and acute anemia, and radiation sickness from X-ray treatment of cancer or exposure to nuclear weapons.

The apparent cure rate of the kidney cancer had recently risen to 40 per cent through surgery and radiation, Dr. Farber said. But 60 per cent of children still died, mainly because the cancer had spread to their lungs.

Now the antibiotic, Actinomycin D, has joined the battle. For the first time, all signs of a solid tumor in children are being eliminated fairly regularly.

Eighty-one per cent of youngsters receiving the combined treatment between 1957 and 1960 are alive and well.

More than 100 attempts have been made by Congress to alter or abolish the Electoral College.

Proposal For Rest Home Is Approved

Remodeling of an old two-story home at 116 Clark Street for use as a rest home was approved last night by the San Rafael Planning Commission, but with a warning that parking provisions must be increased.

The commission, after considerable discussion, granted by 3-to-2 vote a use permit for a five-year period for ambulatory patients only. But commissioners made plain that the fourparking spaces were insufficient, and more would be demanded before architectural approval.

The home is to be operated by Anna Demetroff of Fairfax, who now operates a nursing home in San Francisco. She said she would move her San Francisco patients to the San Rafael home.

Just before hearing the use permit application, the commission to split into two lots the large lot at Clark Street and Bayview Avenue on which the house stands. Chairman Pat Hetherton was somewhat annoyed to find the following application called for only four parking spaces on the resulting corner lot.

"What are you doing with the vacant lot we just created?" he demanded.

Cole Jackman, San Anselmo realty broker who appeared with Mrs. Demetroff, said there are no plans for that lot at present.

"There's enough land there and enough profit in the business you propose to operate," declared Commissioner Gene F. O'Connor. "I think you're asking the planning commission to subsidize your operation."

Planning technician David DuBiel said the building department reported cost of bringing the old house up to standard for rest home use, including one-hour fire-resident walls, would be nearly as much as putting up a new building. O'Connor and Commissioner Orlando Conti voted against the use permit.

There are 15 rooms in the home. Mrs. Demetroff plans for 10 patients.

The San Rafael Planning Commission Also:

1. Put off for two weeks decision on a request by S. Dewey to split a lot on Tamal Vista Drive. The second lot does not front on a street, but Dewey was given the delay to try to arrange to purchase enough property from adjoining Racquet Club Estates for a street extension.

2. Granted James Thornton a six-month extension of a use permit for a construction yard at 14 Woodland Avenue which has no water, and instructed City Planner James R. Garrett to have the city attorney serve demand on the subdividers to complete the water line.

3. Put over indefinitely consideration of the Loch Lomond Master Plan, to allow its revision.

4. Delayed for two weeks architectural review of proposed addition of a third unit to a duplex on Paloma Avenue near Lincoln Avenue to give owner Romeo Biasotti opportunity to work out plans for sufficient parking.

5. Similarly held up architectural review of a proposed four-unit apartment at 423 First Street so E. Rosevear, owner, can add another parking space.

6. Granted architectural approval for a three-unit apartment addition to a residence at 401 Mission Avenue, requested by C. Mueller.

7. Held over for two weeks, at request of applicant Gerald Stone, architectural review of remodeling for office use of a residence at 1353 Lincoln Avenue.

8. Granted Peacock Lagoon Construction Co. use permit and architectural approval for 31 condominium apartment units in seven buildings on Biscayne Drive at Riviera Drive.

9. Granted San Rafael Medical Group a use permit and architectural approval for four additional physicians' offices at 1540 Fifth Avenue.

10. Granted Joseph DiGiorgio permission to split a lot on St. Joseph Court off Convent Court, and O. S. Almlie permission for a 12-lot subdivision in Graceland Park Unit 2, off Coleman Drive.

11. Granted Byron Leydecker permission for a three-lot subdivision between Chula Vista and Fairhills drives, provided he installs a city street to serve all three lots and places utilities underground.

12. Gave Robert McCarthy permission to keep a house trailer for a watchman at Loch Lomond Marina for another six months, despite planning technician DuBiel's warning it is contrary to city ordinance.

13. Renewed a permit for D. H. Hudelson to have six floating boat berths at 19 Third Street.

14. Granted D. M. Christensen six-month extension of an earth removal permit at Professional Center Parkway and Channing Way.

15. Granted Hansell Associates permission to operate a "career service" school in the 1000 Fifth Avenue Building.

16. Set for April 23 and May 14 hearings on D. W. Barnard's request for rezoning of Toyon Estates at the end of Clark Street from single family to duplex residential; and on Kay Jue's request for rezoning of property between Belvedere and Larkspur streets from planned commercial-light industrial to special multiple residential.

17. Set for May 14 and 28 hearings on Dr. Robert Oslar's request for rezoning from single family to duplex residential at 219 Ross Street; on a proposal initiated by the commission to extend such zoning to the entire block on Reservoir Road above Ross Street, and on a petition initiated by the city to rezone the E Street School property from unclassified to general commercial with parking requirements.

18. Granted Bank of Marin a one-year use permit for an 18-car parking lot at Fourth and Cijos streets, on property on which the bank had planned to build until it bought the Elks Club parcel at Fifth Avenue and B Street.

Cause Of Infant's Death Revealed

A meningococcal infection, similar to meningitis, caused the death of a San Rafael infant April 1, according to the county health department's report on communicable diseases released today.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, said there was no danger of the spread of the disease because of available antibiotics.

Other diseases reported in the county last week were 34 cases of strep infection, 13 of mumps, eight of gonorrhea, two of infectious hepatitis, two of measles and one of tuberculosis.

Assistants Named At Churches

Appointments of assistant pastors at Catholic churches in Kentfield, San Anselmo and Santa Venetia were announced yesterday by Most Rev. Joseph T. McGucken, archbishop of the San Francisco Catholic Archdiocese.

Rev. Raymond G. Kenny will be assistant pastor of St. Sebastian's Church in Kentfield; Rev. William R. Burns, of St. Anselm's Church in San Anselmo, and Rev. Charles R. Simpson, of Blessed Sacrament Church in Santa Venetia.

Archbishop McGucken announced Rev. Dominic W. Sarubbi had been assigned in residence at St. Sylvester's Church in San Rafael as a member of the faculty of Marin Catholic High School.

T-Men Take Still From His Office

The T-Men took the still, a relic which served as a conversation piece, to the federal building basement. The still went to make room for filing cabinets.

Agents recalled that years ago it was learned moonshine was an excellent item for cleaning ink from the fingers after fingerprinting.

Bernard (Big Six) Henderson, a veteran revenue agent, said it used to be the final insult to make a moonshiner wash his hands with moonshine.

Series Of Cracks Reported In Pool

There is not one but a series of cracks along the 180-foot bottom of the Strawberry Swim Club pool, High M. O'Neill, Oakland structural engineer, told Strawberry Recreation District directors last night.

O'Neill recommended the cracks be chipped out completely to a width of two inches and be refilled with epoxy, a binder, then plastered to the original finish.

The report was accepted by the board as a basis for proceeding with repairs. It contained no cost estimate.

Charles F. Bauman, with Bermuda Mar-Vel Pool Service, San Rafael pool contractors, told directors his responsibility is to make any repairs warranted but he did not apporve of specific repairs itemized by O'Neill. He said it is not known when the cracks occurred and he will consult his insurance company to see what repairs could be made and report back by April 17.

The board recessed, according to secretary Patricia M. Gowen, until the 17th or until a call comes from chairman C. G. Bush in case Bauman reports earlier. In the meantime, the pool, which was scheduled to open April 1, remains closed.

Fishing Pole Rationing Plan

MIAMI (AP)—The Dade County Commission thinks there are too many two-pole and three-pole men around, and it's cluttering up the bridges.

The commission is studying an ordinance providing a person on a fishing catwalk would be limited to one fishing pole.

At Navy School

Board To Study Jury's Report

Acting Chairman William D. Fusselman suggested, and received concurrence of the two others present, that each board member do some home work on the 1962 jury report during the next few days, making notes of what might be said in the comment required of the supervisors soon by law.

It was decided to pool these suggestions at next Tuesday's meeting and appoint one member to draw up a composite comment.

Negro Named Deputy

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sacramento County has named its first Negro deputy district attorney. He is Lloyd H. Riley, former county law librarian.

Three Vying For Two Seats On Tam High School Board

Two incumbent physicians and a Larkspur sales engineer are seeking to fill two vacancies on the Tamalpais Union High School District board in next Tuesday's election.

The incumbents are Dr. James M. Stubblebine of Mill Valley and Dr. John C. Siemens of Kentfield. Stubblebine was named to the board in October, 1961, to replace Howard I. McGill. Siemens was elected to the board two years ago, but drew a short term.

JOHN C. SIEMENS

JAMES M. STUBBLEBINE

W. G. WOODWARD

SIEMENS, 50 who lives with his wife and three children at 10 Turnagain Road, Kentfield, is a specialist in internal medicine at Ross Valley Medical Clinic, chairman of the clinic, and administrator of both Ross and Novato hospitals.

A graduate of the University of California Medical School, Siemens is a member of the Unitarian Church of Marin, Lions Club, Kentfield Civic League, and has served as chairman of the board of the Young Men's Christian Assn. He served as a doctor in the Navy during World War II.

"We should provide our students with the best possible opportunities for a good high school education, both for those going on to college and for those whose high school education prepares them for work in our community," said Siemens.

"I would like to see . . . the highest possible standards in our instruction program . . . economy in all operations . . . (and) an ongoing program of public relations."

STUBBLEBINE, 42, lives with his wife and four children at 53 South Knoll Road, Mill Valley. A native of Minneapolis, Minn., Stubblebine graduated from the University of Oregon Medical School in 1951.

He is staff psychiatrist for Langley Porter Institute in San Francisco, assistant clinical professor of psychiatry at the University of California Medical Center, psychiatric consultant to the Marin County Juvenile Hall, and a member of the county, state and national medical societies and the American Psychiatric Institute.

Stubblebine has served as president of the board, chairman of the pulpit committee and chairman of the student activities committee of the Denominational School for the Ministry and is one the clinical faculty of another seminary.

He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal as a naval aviator during World War II.

He did not respond to a request by the Independent-Journal for a statement, but his public utterances have agreed in general with those of Dr. Siemens.

WOODWARD, 36, has been a Marin County resident for six years. He and his wife and son live at 15 Holly Avenue, Larkspur. He has worked for General Electric Co. for 15 years and is atomic power equipment sales engineer for Northern California.

Woodward holds a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Illinois Institute of Technology and a master's degree from California Institute of Technology.

He served in the Navy during World War II and again in 1955 and 1956 when he was design officer during construction of atomic submarines in Groton, Conn.

He is a member of the San Francisco Electrical and Engineers clubs and the Commonwealth Club.

"My technical knowledge and scientific background will give the board a better balance and broader view," declared Woodward.

His program includes: "Emphasize academic achievement, particularly in the sciences; insist on fiscal responsibility while providing the best possible educational program; demand maintenance of discipline conducive to the learning process; propose more open discussions of school district business at board meetings; strive for some result from all of the unification studies before the state deadline; recognition and reward for excellence in teaching."

Youth Held To Answer In Ax Case

Claude Burdett Burton, 18, of Marin City, accused of clubbing a Daly City laborer with an ax at Juanita's Galley last month, was bound over to superior court yesterday for trial.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court held Burton to answer in the higher court on a charge of felony assault, after a prediminary hearing.

The victim, Peter R. Page, 26, who is a member of the San Francisco motorcycle club the Presidents, testified he was struck from behind and did not see the assailant. Page was hospitalized for 12 days for brain surgery. He appeared on the stand yesterday with his head still swathed in bandages.

Deputy Sheriff George Johnson testified that he took the ax away from Burton during the March 16 brawl. A San Francisco girl, Linda Oakley, 18, who was near the victim when he fell unconscious to the floor, said she did not actually see the blow. She did, however, see a Negro youth holding the ax, but said she cannot identify the youth.

Burton is scheduled to appear in superior court on April 22.

Completes Training

Michael C. Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Parsons of 536 Belle Avenue, San Rafael, last week completed nine weeks of basic training at San Diego Naval Training Center.

San Rafael Driver Training Increased

Twice as many students will be able to take driving training at San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools next year.

The San Rafael Board of Education last night agreed to hire four instead of the present two driver training instructors. Supt. Bert C. Corona estimated 417 students will take the training program this year. He said 900 students will be eligible for training next year.

Cost of the program will go from $3,506 to $4,512.

The board meeting was attended by two "lame ducks," outgoing board members Roderick P. Martinelli, president, and Rex T. Silvernale, who did not run for re-election in Monday's election. Also present were C. Paul Bettini, who was re-elected, and, in the audience, newly elected members Carl J. Brown and Walter J. Doll.

Avoiding policy decisions until the new board is sworn into office at 8 p.m. Monday in the San Rafael City Hall, the board put aside a policy for senior graduation parties proposed by Corona. It would put responsibility for the parties on each school's administrators.

The board also:

1. Approved a salary schedule for classified employees dropipng the number of steps in the schedule.

2. Approved purchase of three "tally dial accumulator boards" for Terra Linda High School, to be used in scheduling classes there.

3. Granted sabbatical leave for Martin Parlan, mathematics teacher at Davidson Junior High School, to study at the University of Notre Dame, and maternity leave to Reiko Y. Hamai, West End School teacher, and to Joyce Hodge and Judy Shillinger, teachers at San Rafael High School. Marilyn Cerwin, teaching in Europe, was granted a third year of leave.

4. Accepted resignations of Larry Dubbs, arts and crafts teacher at Terra Linda High School, for reasons of health, of Judith A. Nielsen, teacher at Laurel Dell School, to move to Idaho, and of Beulah V. Thigpen, teacher at Gallinas School, to do graduate work.

5. Appointed five new teachers: William Monti, physical education, who formerly played football at San Rafael High School; Judith A. Buell, physical education; Mrs. Virginia L. Cochran, business education, and Edith Lew and David Scovill, arts and crafts, all for the high school district.

6. Discussed the acquisition of an elementary school site at Marin Bay and agreed a satisfactory site has not yet been found.

Bomb Is Traced To Army Captain

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A bomb that exploded in a San Francisco postoffice March 18 injuring a clerk, has been traced to a U.S. Army captain in South Viet Nam.

The captain, stationed in Saigon, had packaged an explosive device and sent it to his wife through the Army Post Office system.

The officer is scheduled to be taken back to the United States tomorrow to be placed in a mental institution.

The captain was traced by P.S. postal agents and military agents to a quartemaster detachment in Saigon.

Identification of the officer was not announced immediately.

To Keesler AFB

Airman Basic Robin W. Lampson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Lampson of 221 Brookside Drive, San Anselmo, has been reassigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., for technical training as a maintenance specialist after completing basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Zelinsky Makes Plea To Start On Safeway

Fred G. Zelinsky made a fervent plea before county supervisors yesterday for a use permit allowing work to start immediately on a new Safeway store on Tiburon Boulevard in Tiburon, but reluctantly consented finally to one-week continuance while drainage problems were further investigated.

The Tiburon landowner vainly sought some formula under which he would bind himself to an outside limit of $25,000 outlay whether plans for a proposed assessment district go through or not, but Public Works Director Donald R. Frost insisted there are too many complexities to allow immediate solution. He said it was hoped the store could open by Thanksgiving.

"I'm willing to do my share up to $25,000 but I don't want to bind myself to any open-end contract," fumed Zelinsky, adding: "I'm about ready to close things up and go to Europe. It's not worth all the bother! Building in this area would improve drainage, not detract from it."

But Frost contended fill required before building would accentuate the problem. He said 650 feet of pipe must be laid from Tiburon Boulevard to a drainage outlet in Belvedere Cove, and that the cost would be over $100,000.

The board granted modification of earlier provisions for access to the property.

Father, Son Jail Reunion

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)— At 1 a.m., a 61-year-old man was booked at city jail on a drunk charge. At 3 a.m., a 32-year-old sailor on leave was booked on a drunk driving charge.

As jailers put the younger man in a cell, he spotted the older man and called out. The oldster squinted myopically, put on his glasses, and shouted: That's my boy."

Jailers obligingly put father and son in the same cell. The father told Sgt. Gordon H. Hill that he hadn't seen his son for 16 years and "didn't even know he was in Florida."

Giants Send Marichal Against The Colts Tonight

HOUSTON (AP) — Bob Bruce, the young Houston Colt who nearly cost San Francisco the 1962 pennant, faces Juan Marichal tonight as the Giants try to stay unbeaten after yesterday's 9-2 opening day triumph.

Bruce went all the way to beat the Giants 4-2 in the next-to-last game of the 1962 National League regular season, apparently killing San Francisco's pennant hopes. But Los Angeles lost also and so Bruce escaped the Giants' hall of infamy.

He'll bring a 10-9 record for last year against Marichal's 18-11 mark—a record the Giants figure will improve to 20 wins this year if Marichal can stay healthy.

A familiar formula with one new ingredient produced yesterday's victory—the fifth in six opening day games since the Giants moved West.

He relieved starter Jack Sanford during a sixth inning Houston uprising and faced 12 batters, retiring every one. He had one strikeout.

"I'll tell you this," said Manager Alvin Dark after Fisher's debut, "I'll pitch him as much as I can, because that's the way he likes it."

"That's what I came here to do, pitch a lot," chimed in Fisher.

Continued Dark: "He came in as a middle reliever yesterday, but we'll use him every kind of way there is to use him."

An old nemisis helped knock Sanford out — the extra-base hit. His own.

Jack had to let out a triple amidst a four-run second-inning rally and it cost him plenty of energy. Last year virtually every time Sanford had to run the bases hard, he soon tired on the mound.

He held Houston to five singles in his five-plus innings—just enough time to get credit for the victory.

The offensive phase of the victory formula was four home runs swatted by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Felipe Alou and Willie McCovey, the four Giants who topped the team in round-trippers last season.

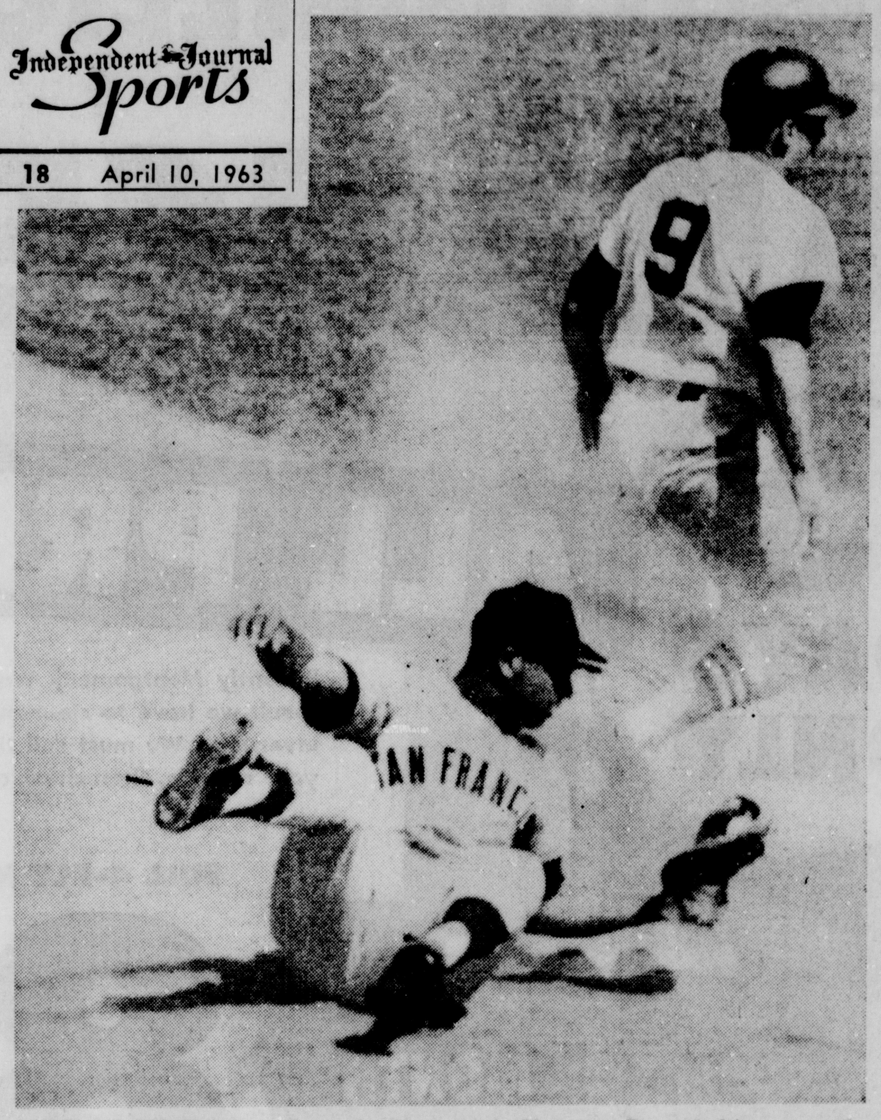
Mays led off the third with his homer, like Cepeda's into the left field seats. Sanford picked up his third run-batted-in with a single off Russ Kemmerer, mound successor to loser Dick Farrell. The hit scored Alou, who had doubled.

Three singles to open the sixth chased Sanford and, with a sacrifice fly, produced Houston's two runs. McCovey's and Alou's homers came in the eighth and the Giants added a final run on singles by Mays, McCovey and Cepeda.



SAFE AT FIRST—Pete Runnels (9) of the Houston Colts is safe at first base yesterday in the sixth inning of the Giant-Colt National League opener in Houston. Runnels hit a grounder to deep short and Jose Pagan's throw to Orlando Cepeda was high, allowing Runnels to evade Cepeda's tag. (AP Wirephoto)

NAT'L LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Cincy Cooled Off By Phils' Mahaffey

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

All Art Mahaffey's got is a blazing fastball and a nickel curve, according to baseball know-it-alls, but that big hummer was good enough to get the Philadelphia Phillies off winging in the National League pennant race.

"Just let him throw that fastball," says Phillie Manager Gene Mauch. "He doesn't need those other pitches."

The Cincinnati Reds found that out for the second straight opening day when the big righthander pitched a four-hitter and struck out 10 in a 2-1 victory last night.

"It was just fast balls," Mahaffey said after the game. "I threw only five breaking pitches all night."

LONG-TIME DOORMAT

The Phils, long-time doormat of the senior circuit but the best team in the league for the second half of last season, defeated 21-game winner Joey Jay for the second straight year on opening day. Don Demeter's single drove in the first Phillie run in the fourth inning and the clincher came in when Gordy Coleman muffed a double play ball in the sixth.

The Reds rallied in the ninth off Mahaffey when Frank Robinson singled and John Edwards doubled him home with one out. Mahaffey then settled down, striking out Gene Freese and Tommy Harper.

The National League champion San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers, rated along with Cincinnati as the top contenders for the N.L. flag, won their opening day contests.

Four home runs—by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Willie McCovey and Felipe Alou — powered the Giants to a 9-2 victory over the Houston Colts and 25-game winner Don Drysdale of the Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-1.

TWO-HITTER

In other games, Ernie Broglio pitched a two-hit, 7-0 victory for the St. Louis Cardinals over the New York Mets, and Ted Savage's two-out, pinch-single paced the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 3-2 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves.

Maury Wills of the Dodgers, the N.L.'s most valuable player in 1962, suffered an injured ankle while trying to score in the third and had to be replaced. Drysdale spaced 11 hits and was helped by three double plays. Rookie Ken McMullen drove home two runs for the Dodgers as Larry Jackson took the loss for Chicago.

Larry Burright of the Mets got the only hits off Broglio—in the first and ninth innings. In between, the Card righthander set down 20 straight Mets. Bill White's homer and George Altman's four hits led the Cards' 14-hit attack—12 of them coming off Roger Craig.

Bonus baby Bob Bailey and veteran Smoky Burgess homered for the Pirates, who beat lefthander Bob Hendley. Relief ace ElRoy Face picked up the victory.

Sunny Jim Retires From Racing Scene

NEW YORK (AP)—The doctor looked at the skinny exercise boy and told him: "Young man, you'd better give up racing. Stay away from that excitement or you won't last with that heart." That was in 1887. Grover Cleveland was President. Now, 13 presidents and 76 years later, Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons is going to take the doctor's advice. He is getting away from racing.

The famed, 88-year-old trainer will retire in June, ending a 78-year association with the thoroughbred racing. He was the leading money winning trainer five times, saddled more than 2,000 winners—including two Triple Crown winners—and at one time or another his horses won almost every major race in America.

The announcement of his retirement was made yesterday by Ogden Phipps, one of three generations of the Phipps family for whom Sunny Jim trains. He also handles the horses of Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps' Wheatley Stable and those of her grandson, Ogden Mills Phipps.

He will be succeeded by Bill Winfrey, for many years the trainer for Alfred G. Vanderbilt and now with the California Breeders Assn.

HEART AILMENT

He first became associated with racing as a hot walker, stableboy and exercise boy in 1884. Three years later he contracted malaria at Long Branch, N.J., suffering from palpitations of the heart, he visited a doctor and came away with the basis for one of his favorite stories.

He started as a jockey Aug. 17, 1889 and rode his first winner Crispin, at the Glucester track Sept. 30, 1890. He rode until 1891, and in his later years as a jockey doubled as a trainer.

He saddled his first winner, Agnes D, at Brighton Beach Aug. 7, 1900. Since then have come such notable runners as Nashua, Bold Ruler, Misty Morn, High Voltage, Johnstown, Granville, Isolater, Fenelon, Busanda, Vagrancy, Diavolo, Fighting Fox, Omaha and Gallant Fox.

He won the Triple Crown—the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and the Belmont Stakes—with Gallant Fox in 1930 and Omaha in 1935.

Marin Games Called Due To Wet Grounds

Yesterday's scheduled double-header between College of Marin and Yuba College was postponed because of wet grounds at the San Rafael High School field.

Next scheduled action for the Tars will be tomorrow, a doubleheader against Shasta College at noon on the San Rafael High field. Yesterday's games will probably be made up next Tuesday.

Cubs' New System

CHICAGO (AP)—Opening day was rather trying for the Chicago Cubs' Col. Bob Whitlow, a huge, affable man who has made a niche in baseball lore as the game's only athletic director.

The Cubs — the center of innovations such as a managerless system and now Whitlow—lost their start yesterday in the National League season, 5-1, to the Los Angeles Dodgers, considered a pennant contender.

What was the day like for Whitlow, the former Air Force Academy athletic director hired by Cub President P. K. Wrigley for something?

Whitlow pulled on a winter overcoat to fight the near-freezing temperature and went to a box behind home plate with Bob Buhl. Buhl is to be today's pitcher for the Cubs.

Whitlow charts all games from this vantage point and Buhl was on hand to give him some pointers.

"As far as it is feasible I plan to have the next day's pitcher with me behind home plate to go over the charts together," said Col. Bob, who had some difficulty getting his seats because he had no ticket and the ushers didn't know him.

Finally, room was made and Whitlow and Buhl sat there charting in the biting cold among a group of whooping boosters.

When Cub pitcher Larry Jackson looked shaky, a heckler yelled: "Is that the best pitcher they've got!"

So it went. In one ear of the colonel and out the other.

After the game, Whitlow spent 1½ hours talking to Cub coaches and players.

"The sense of what I said was that the team played a good game and if we maintain the level of play we showed today, we will win our share. I was pleased with our performance.

"As for charting the games, the Cubs have been doing that a long time but not in the detail I think necessary. We will use the charts through an electronic device that whips out tape and relates unlimited combinations that should help provide answers to any siutation—batting, pitching, fielding, etc.

"By these charts, we hope to find significance through repitition of some things to give samples that will make a pattern. At least, they should provide more thought-provoking ideas."

Then Col. Whitlow hit on what he probably thinks is the nub of electronic baseball.

He said: "We do not care to base our findings on recollection or cliches collected by old timers over the years, but rather on actual data required."

Mrs. Johnson Wins In Las Gallinas Golf

Sutherland Stars In Stanford '9' Victory

STANFORD (UPI) — Basketball-baseball star Darrell Sutherland fanned 11 men in seven innings yesterday to lead Stanford past Humboldt State 12-5 in a non-league baseball game.

If Cepeda Hits .350 This Season What Pay Will He Ask For In '64?

CONNOLLY

Alvin Dark, S.F. Giant manager, declared in a press huddle that anytime Orlando Cepeda failed to hit. 350 for a season, he would consider it an ordinary season, or words to that effect.

Chub Feeney, vice president of the club, gleefully hopped on Alvin's remarks to justify the salary "cut" he intended for Cepeda that didn't jell. So that brings us up to the gossip now making the rounds and which could mushroom as the season grows.

"Suppose Cepeda hits .350, drives in 125 runs, hits 45 home runs and behaves even better than expected by manager Dark," asks a friend. "What do you suppose he would ask for a 1964 salary?"

AT THE TIME Feeney released the story on Cepeda's signing, I asked him that very question. In his dashing Ivy League manner, the vice prexy, grinning and fidgety, was quick to remark: "Let's wait and see what happens."

That is good thinking. But the gossipers who fondly support the Giants and who have a warm spot in their hearts for Cepeda are already talking.

One veteran of the baseball wars, who in his deyday matches Cepeda's cantankerous moods, explains it this way:

"CEPEDA never has to worry about salary with the Giants," sez this Giant rooter. "All he has to do is keep hitting and being colorful and being controversial. His 'draw' at the gate will pretty nearly establish his paycheck."

Cepeda, if he hits up to snuff, will make Bo Belinsky of the Angels a second rater as an attraction.

Belinsky is a modern day Walter Mails but he has yet to prove he is as good a southpaw as was the Great One.

With Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Tom Haller, Jose Pagan, Jimmy Davenport, Felipe Alou not to mention the pitchers, the 1963 Giants easily could become baseball's greatest globe trotters of the game.

MEANWHILE Feeney and Dark may decide to institute another system of plus and minuses so that Orlando might get a little higher up in the standings.

While Dark insists the plus and minus system is as old as the hills, this is the first time of record that it has been publicly used to drive players to accept salary cuts.

I think Dark inadvertently dropped his plus and minus on Cepeda, never thinking that it would be used as a wedge to support a bit out of his paycheck. Alvin at least made his peace with Cepeda on the plus and minus story and already he is trying to show the "Cheerful Chub" Feeney that he had better get down on his knees and pray he doesn't hit .350. Because if the Baby Bull does hit .350—whoopie!—what a dandy time is in store next winter.

WHILE ON the subject of player improvement it is nice to remember Willie McCovey, who once was considered a fugitive from a fly ball. As an infielder Lovey Dovey had a terror of pop flies, some of which seemed certain to hit him on the head.

But now that he understands how the untamed fly ball roams the prairie outfield, McCovey faces a career that might very well be money in the bank for him. He's happy, contented and confident.

"Ah no longer afreed to tackle the high and mighty fly balls," sez Willie. "Ah just at home there, like I used to be at first base."

So speaking of salary worries, let Cepeda have a great year along with Mays and McCovey and—oh well, Stoneham will do all right.

Redwood Is Shaded By Hogan Club

The Redwood High School baseball team's winning streak was halted at six straight when the Giants fell to Hogan High School 5-4 yesterday in an extra-inning contest at Vallejo.

Redwood used three pitchers with freshman Jim Garrot starting. He was followed on the mound by Scott Murphy and Scott Davi. It was Davi who was on the hill in the bottom of the ninth inning when Hogan scored the winning run to break a 4-4 tie. He suffered the loss.

Terry Jarcik, Steve White and Steve Minutoli each collected doubles for Redwood.

McLeod Great As Seals Win; Playoff Series Knotted Up

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The San Francisco Seals and Portland's Buckeroos will be dead even when they resume their quest for the Western Hockey League's Southern Division crown in San Francisco tomorrow night.

The Seals beat Portland 5-2 last night to tie their best-of-seven series at a game each.

San Francisco took an early lead when Ray Cyr scored and Danny Belisle made it 2-0 with just 34 seconds gone in the second period.

Then the Portland attack began to jell. The Buckeroos fired 11 times at goalie Jimmy McLeod. Only Tommy McVie's shot eluded the rookie net minder.

Al Nicholson scored what proved to be the winning goal shortly before the middle mark of the final period. Again the aroused Bucks, defending champions of the Southern loop, bore down and again McLeod came through magnificently. Gerry Goyer scored with four minutes to play, but that was all for Portland.

McLeod blocked 13 attempts in the third period and wound up with 31 saves for the night.

Only three penalties were called in the game which was watched by 8,741 fans.

Dick Lotz Leads Junior College Golf By 1 Stroke

FRESNO (UPI) — San Mateo Colleges Dick Lotz took a one-stroke lead into today's second round of action in the Junior College Far West golf championships.

Lotz toured the Belmont Country Club in par 72 yesterday to edge Barry Cunningham of Chabot J.C. in Oakland. Cam Pickett Jr. of Monterey Peninsula College came in with a 74, while teammate Bob Miller carded a 75.

Apostoli Speaks Up For Boxing; Here's Another Vote For Giants

Ban boxing?

"It's pure panic," offers Fearless Freddie Apostoli, the former world middleweight king. Five deaths in the ring this year have created a controversy over the sport, so Apostoli comes forth with a defense of the game at which he was so great.

The ban boxing move, says Fairfax Freddie, is being used as a political football. Further, "When people go into any professional sport," he goes on, "they know there's a chance of getting injured or even killed. You can't call them any braver than the ordinary citizen who risks his life every day of the year in the most dangerous and greatest killer known to mankind—the automobile. And who's ever come forward and asked to have the automobile banned?"

FRED APOSTOLI

The trim Apostoli looks as if he is still able to go 15 rounds and probably could. A recent physical checkup found him as fit or even better than the average 25-year-old athlete, and Apostoli has seen 50 summers.

He attributes his fine condition to boxing, explaining, "The basic fundamentals and exercises you use while training for boxing are the best all-around exercises in the world. No other sport offers exercises that strengthen and keep every muscle in your body loose and ready for action."

Also, "Boxing has given self confidence and self respect, plus a strong and healthy body, to many young fellows who otherwise very likely would not have had one or any of these three assets."

So, don't knock boxing, bub, or you'll have to answer to Fearless Fred.

OKAY, OKAY, I know you've been dying to read my fearless forecast of the pennant races, so here goes:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

1. San Francisco. 2. Los Angeles. 3. Cincinnati. 4. St. Louis. 5. Milwaukee. 6. Philadelphia. 7. Pittsburgh. 8. Houston. 9. Chicago. 10. New York.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

1. New York. 2. Detroit. 3. Baltimore. 4. Los Angeles. 5. Minnesota. 6. Cleveland. 7. Chicago. 8. Boston. 9. Kansas City. 10. Washington.

WHAT OUR athletes are doing today, dept.: Roger Siemens, former Redwood High flash, is a sophomore at Amherst College, Mass., a star skier (second in recent college championships) and varsity football hopeful (quarterback). He's a pre-med student.

Dr. Harry Hensler pens a note informing us Frank Smart, ex-member of the San Rafael High golf team, has won a position on the University of Arizona golf squad. He's the son of Dr. and Mrs. William Smart of San Rafael.

PARADE SCHEDULED TO FETE GIANTS

San Francisco will welcome home its National League champion Giants from the season opening road trip with a parade April 15.

The parade will wind through the financial district, along market Street and then to city hall.

Poor A.L.: Yankees Still Look Mighty

Champs Cop Opener As Terry Stars

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The New York Yankees wasted no time letting American League rivals know that Ralph Terry is as good as he looked in the World Series and Joe Pepitone may be better than Joe DeMaggio predicted.

Put the two factors together and they spell calamity for long-suffering American Leaguers who are hoping their majesties will lose the pennant this year. The A.L.'s "shirtless ones" had hoped (1) Yankee pitching might be vulnerable and (2) the Yanks had outsmarted themselves by trading first-baseman Bill Skowron to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But Terry and Pepitone threw plenty of cold water on those hopes yesterday when the Yankees opened their season with an 8-2 victory over the Athletics in Kansas City. Even the fact that the Athletics were all dolled up in their new gold and green uniforms wasn't enough to make the 30,976 hometown fans confuse them with royalty.

Terry, who added two World Series victories to his 23-12 record in 1962, pitched a six-hitter and walked only one batter while Pepitone, making his varsity debut, led the Yankees' 13-hit attack with two homers and a double.

Pepitone is the 22-year-old free-swinging first-baseman who had a sensational homer-streak early last season but who cooled off to .239 and was farmed to Richmond. His biggest booster is DiMaggio, who has assured Yankee brass that Pepitone will make the big time this year.

Pepitone hit the first pitch offered him for a homer yesterday and also homered in the eighth inning. Elston Howard weighed in with a homer and Bobby Richardson had a triple in the New York attack. Terry, meanwhile, breezed seven shutout innings before yielding solo homers in the eighth and ninth innings to Bill Bryan and Chuck Essegian.

The Chicago White Sox got an early dividend from their key winter trade in toppling the Detroit Tigers, 7-5, the Los Angeles Angels beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-1, and the Cleveland Indians shaded the Minnesota Twins, 5-4, in the other American League games.

Rookie Pete Ward and veteran relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm, obtained in a winter deal with the Orioles, were the stars of the White Sox victory. Ward clouted a three-run homer in the White Sox's game-winning four-run seventh-inning rally and Wilhelm protected the lead with three innings of one-hit shutout relief ball. Joe Cunningham homered for the White Sox and Gus Triandos homered and Rocky Colavito had three hits for Detroit.

Ken McBride pitched a four-hitter and struck out six for the Angels, who clobbered Bill Monbouquette for all their runs in the fifth inning.

WILLS IN ACTION—Maury Wills, Dodger shortstop, leaps agilely over Cubs' Dick Bertell on forceout at second in third inning of yesterday's opener in Chicago. Wills later hurt his ankle, but insisted he would play today. (AP Wirephoto)

Wills Jams Ankle, But He Will Play

CHICAGO (AP)—Maury Wills, who sought the help of a hypnotist to cure himself of some imaginary ills, now has some real ones to worry about.

The Los Angeles Dodger shortstop, the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1962, jammed his ankle in a daring base-running play yesterday, but insisted he'd play today regardless of the injury and without the benefit of hypnotism.

Wills, who stole a record 104 bases last season, told Melvin Durslag of the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner that he visited a hypnotist during the winter when he was suffering from aching legs.

"My legs hemorrhaged toward the end of last season," Wills said. "Ever since, they ached me. Or at least I got it into my head that they ached me. I began to worry."

He said he visited hypnotist Arthur Ellen in Las Vegas, Nev.

Ellen said he hypnotised Wills, then asked him to do some leg exercises. He said he told Maury his legs would hurt if there was something wrong with them.

"It was amazing," Wills said. "I felt no pain in my legs. And I don't to this day. Of course, some people will say that the pain in the first place was all in my head, which is true."

RAIDERS MOVE TRAINING SITE TO SANTA ROSA

OAKLAND (AP) — Further developments in the reorganizational program for the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League came today when general manager and head coach Al Davis announced a change in pre-season training quarters.

The new site will be in Santa Rosa some 50 miles north of Oakland, at the El Rancho Santa Rosa Hotel. The facilities will include two fields, a field house, and squad meeting rooms. Davis said the training establishment is being built expressly for the Raiders.

Davis will announce the date for the opening of camp in May. Last year's camp started July 13.

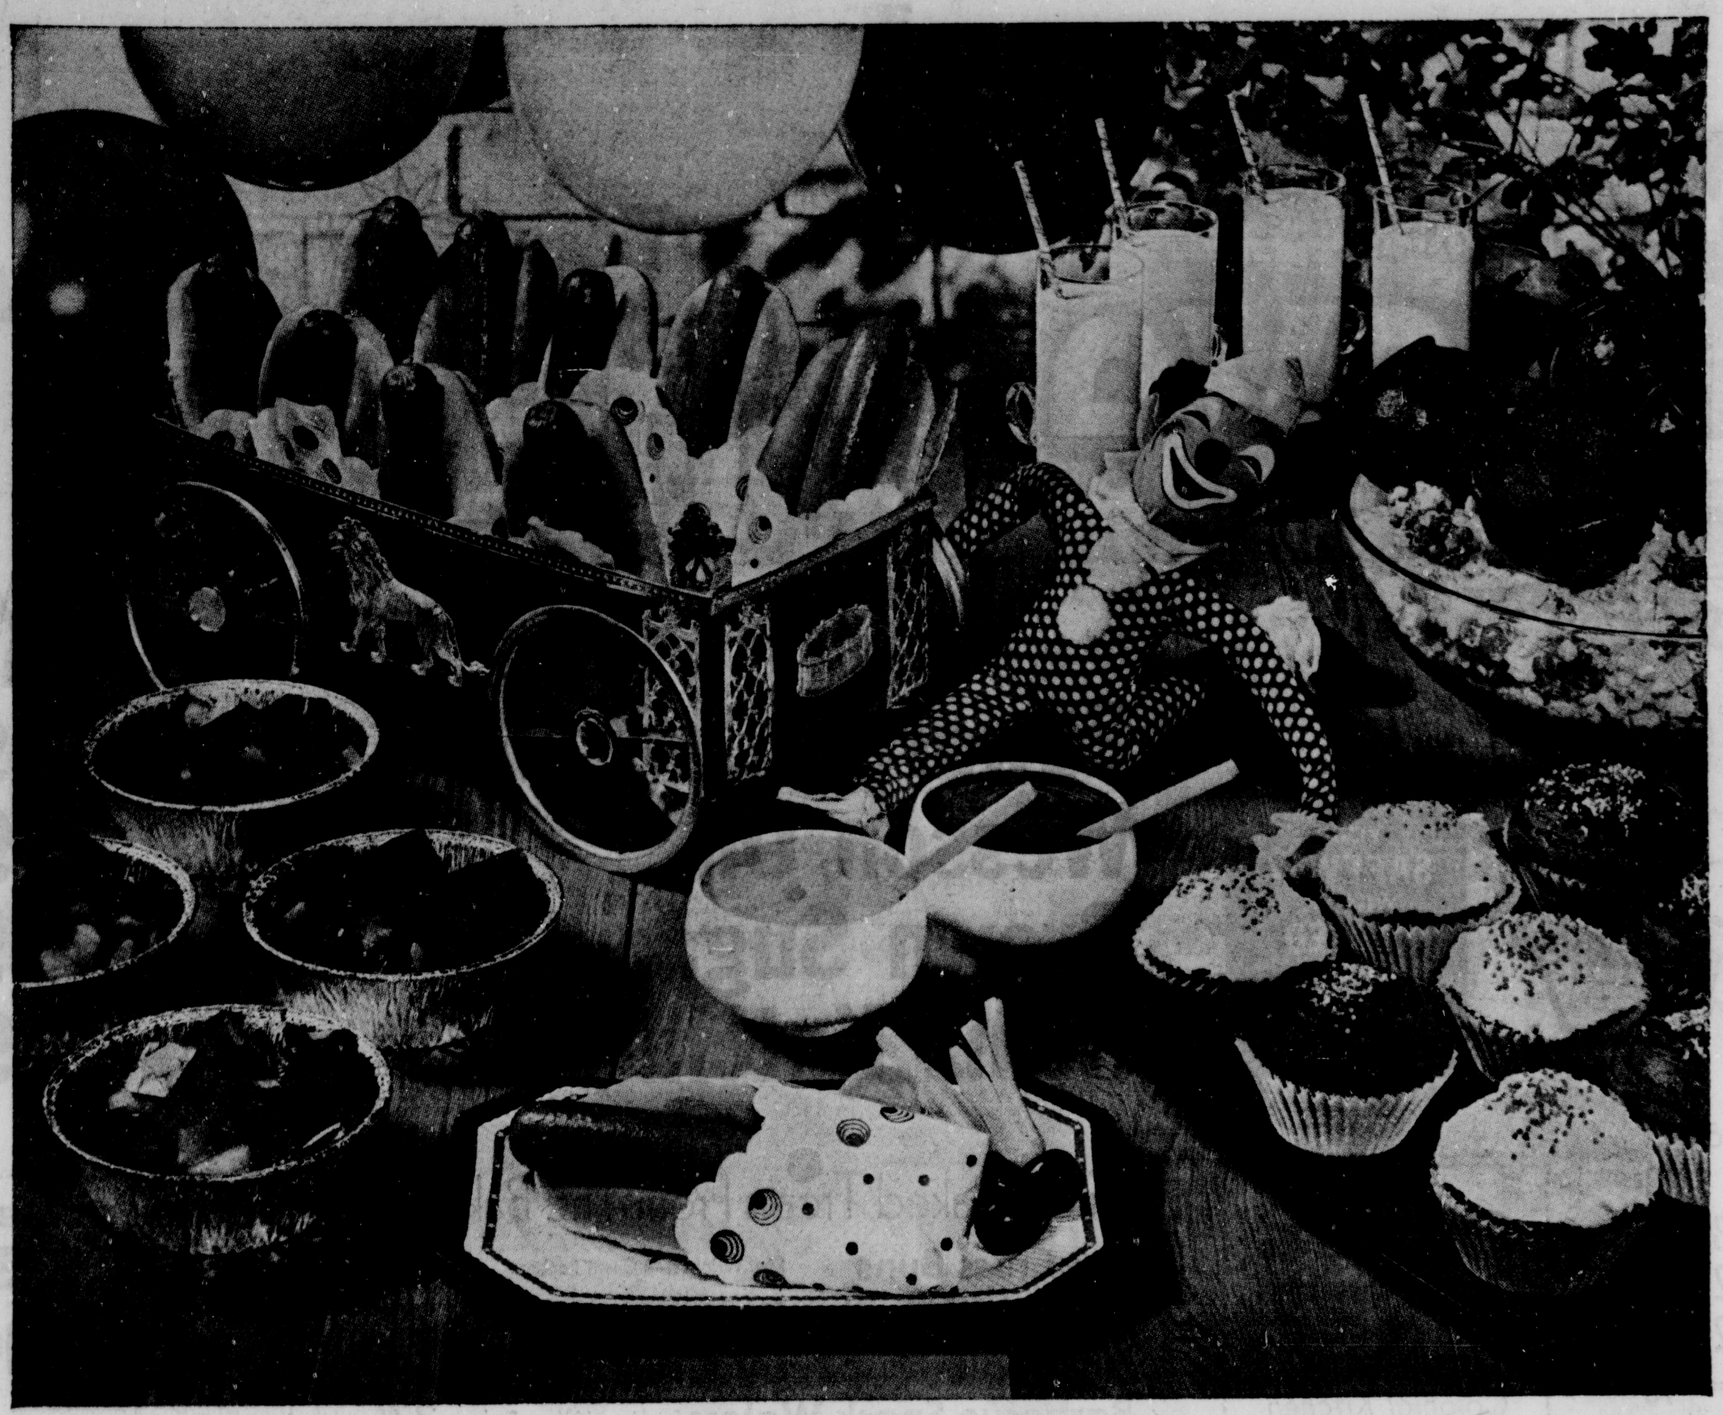
Marmalade: Use ½ cup orange, peach or apricot marmalade.

Mustard Molasses: Mix ½ cup sugar, ⅓ cup molasses, and ½ tsp dry mustard.

Jelly: Mash 1 cup cranberry or currant jelly.

Tropical: Mix ½ cup undrained crushed pineapple, 3/4 cup light-brown sugar, 2 tsps dry mustard.



EVERYTHING AT A "Circus Wagon Party" will be a hit with the kids. Wieners are served in frank-fitter rolls and canned fruit cocktail in red gelatin attractive in shiny aluminum foil pans. Dessert is a three-ring attraction with "Confetti Cupcakes," glistening "Candied Applies" and a big bowl of pink candy popcorn.

A Circus Wagon Party For Kids

It'll be a culinary circus for the kids when you throw a "Circus Wagon Party" in the backyard. Exciting as it will be for the youngsters, it'll be little work for you—either in preparation or clean up.

EVERYTHING on the menu is a top favorite with children. Wieners are served in frank-fitter rolls. With a groove down the middle, these buns are "tailor made" to hold franks. Canned fruit cocktail in red gelatin is served in shiny little aluminum foil pans. Dessert is a three-ring attraction with "Confetti Cupcakes," glistening "Candied Applies" and a big bowl of popcorn mixed with packaged pink candy popcorn.

For the gay circus wagon, cover a shoe box with colored foil and decorate it with foil or paper cut-outs. Not-too-young children can make it by themselves or with very little help.

CONFETTI CUPCAKES

1 cup fresh California dates
1 package (1 lb. 3 oz.) chocolate fudge cake mix
1 package (6¾ oz.) creamy vanilla frosting mix
1 package (9 oz.) creamy fudge frosting mix
Cake decors

Chop dates. Prepare cake mix as package directs; stir in dates. Bake according to package directions for cupcakes. Remove to rack to cool. Meanwhile, prepare frosting mixes as packages direct. Spread half of cupcakes with vanilla frosting and remaining with chocolate frosting. Sprinkle with decors.
Makes 24 cupcakes.

CANDIED APPLES

12 red eating apples
2 cups sugar
1 cup water
⅔ cup light corn syrup
Few drops red food coloring

Wash and thoroughly dry apples. Insert skewers or strong round wooden sticks into stem ends or if stems are on apples, tie with 6-inch length of string. In a tall narrow pan, such as top of double boiler, combine sugar, water, syrup and red food coloring. Heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved. Cover and boil to 290 degrees or hard-crack stage. Remove from heat and quickly dip apples into sugar mixture, coating all sides. Place on aluminum foil or greased cooky sheet to cool.
Makes coating for 12 apples.

Salad Topped In Pineapple Ring

Big beautiful slices of canned pineapple decorated with toasted coconut are the main attraction in this refreshing ham salad bowl. Stuff them with ginger accented cream cheese then pile atop the ham and vegetable salad.

The salad itself is an excellent way to use up leftover Easter ham. Cut it in cubes to mix with crunchy chunks of cucumber and celery and crisp greens. A lively pineapple cream dressing provides the final touch for this salad. It has just the right amount of heartiness to be an entree.

PINEAPPLE RING SALAD BOWL

1 (1-pound, 14-ounce) can pineapple slices
Pineapple cream dressing
1 (3-ounce) package cream cheese
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon finely chopped preserved ginger
2 tablespoons finely chopped walnuts
Packaged toasted coconut
Cucumber ham salad

Drain pineapple slices. Save ¼ cup syrup for Pineapple Cream Dressing. Soften cream cheese. Beat smooth with 1 tablespoon syrup from pineapple and lemon juice. Add ginger and walnuts. Stuff into center of pineapple slices. Roll edges of each slice in toasted coconut. Lay slices on flat tray or platter. Chill. When ready to serve, place Cucumber Ham Salad in large bowl. Top with stuffed pineapple slices. Serve with additional Pineapple Cream Dressing, if desired. Makes 8 servings.

CUCUMBER HAM SALAD: Have all ingredients well chilled. Peel and dice 1 large cucumber. Combine with 1½ cups thinly sliced celery, 2½ cups cubed or slivered cooked ham and 1 quart torn crisp salad greens. Toss lightly with enough Pineapple Cream Dressing to combine ingredients.

Pineapple Cream Dressing

1 egg
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon flour
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup syrup from pineapple chunks
⅓ cup cider vinegar
⅔ cup evaporated milk

Beat egg. Blend in mustard, salt, flour, sugar, pineapple syrup and vinegar. Cook over boiling water until slightly thickened, 5 to 10 minutes. Stir now and then to keep smooth. Beat in undiluted evaporated milk. Continue cooking until thickened and smooth, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and cool. Store in covered jar in refrigerator. Makes 1½ cups.

Open At Bottom

Open a can of asparagus at the bottom to prevent damaging the tips when the spears are removed from the can.

Removes Onion Odor

Protein Rich Wheat Germ Contributes To Quick Bread

Although we are aware that wheat germ is a rich source of protein and chock full of B vitamins and minerals — and even the idea of all those nutrients is like a quick dose of energy—still the reason we have wheat germ around in our kitchen is because we like it.

And we recommend it to you. Use it in the following recipe for a quick bread. See if you don't agree with us that it makes a worthwhile contribution to flavor and texture.

We sliced half this loaf as soon as it came from the oven so it would be enjoyed fragrant and warm. The rest of the loaf was cooled, wrapped tightly, and refrigerated. Such cold storage helps to keep baking powder breads from drying and makes them easy to slice. We like this loaf, after overnight storage, toasted and slathered with butter.

RAISIN NUT WHEAT LOAF

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup sugar
¾ cup wheat germ
½ cup raisins
½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans
2 eggs
1 cup milk
⅓ cup butter or margarine (melted)

Onto a piece of waxed paper, sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and sugar; stir in the wheat germ, raisins and nuts. In a medium mixing bowl, beat eggs slightly; add milk and beat to combine; add the melted butter and the flour mixture; stir only until dry ingredients are moistened. Turn into a greased loaf pan (9 by 5 by 3 inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 55 minutes. Loosen loaf from sides of pan; turn out on wire rack; turn right side up. Cool. Store in tightly covered container. Loaf may be sliced shortly after baking but for thin slices, leave overnight.

Add Salt Carefully

Friends Will Enjoy Cheese Pastry Sticks

Cheese Pastry Snacks
Fresh Fruit Bowl
Raisins and Nuts Beverage

CHEESE PASTRY STICKS

2¼ cups Homemade Pastry Mix
1 cup (¼ pound) medium-grated cheddar cheese
1 teaspoon caraway seed

With a fork, stir the grated cheese and caraway seed into the Pastry Mix. Sprinkle with 4 to 6 tablespoons ice-cold water — try to use a minimum amount — and mix lightly until dough begins to stick together. Turn out on a prepared pastry cloth and press dough together. Roll dough ⅛-inch thick into a square (12 by 12 inches). With a pastry wheel cut the square into 18 strips (each 2 by 4 inches); roll up each strip jelly roll fashion (the long way). Use tag ends of dough to make 4 more rolls. Bake on an ungreased cookie sheet in a hot (425 degrees) oven until lightly browned — 15 to 20 minutes. Note: Instead of Homemade Pastry Mix, you may use rich dough for a 2-crust 8 or 9-inch pie and follow directions above.

Marin To Have An Auto Show -But Along Different Lines

Marin County will have an auto show this year—but it will be along different lines from the usual run of such events.

Instead of dealers displaying at a central location, they'll all put their best models forward in their own showrooms, giving rise to the name "Showroom Auto Show." This will be tied in with the I-J's automobile edition on April 20. The show will run for a week.

It's a time when mid-season models are "hot" on the market, and you'll be able to see many more varieties than could be shown at any one spot in Marin. Special showroom events are expected to be featured by individual dealers.

DIRECTORS of Crocker-Anglo National Bank and Citizens Bank have approved a definite merger agreement, and shareholders of each will meet in June to vote on it.

Proposed is an exchange of stock with each outstanding share of Crocker-Anglo constituting one share of the merged institution. Citizens National shareholders would receive 1.9 shares for each share they now hold. The banks would be combined as Crocker-Citizens National Bank under Crocker-Anglo's charter, with northern division headquarters in San Francisco and the southern division headquartered in Los Angeles. If approved, the new bank will be the fourth largest in California and one of the 12 largest in the U. S.

Woolston

WILLIAM C. WOOLSTON, salesman for McGraw-Hill magazines and a resident of Kent Woodlands, has been appointed regional vice president of the publishing firm's north Pacific district, with headquarters in San Francisco. His appointment is effective upon the retirement of John W. Otterson. John W. Patten, currently division manager, will become regional manager of the Rocky Mountains district.

TAFT TRAVEL of San Rafael, agent for the Holland-America Line, announces a "floating university" aboard the motorship Seven Seas for 750 students in two semesters commencing Oct. 22. First trip will last 110 days, sailing eastward from New York and landing in San Diego in Feb., 1964. Second semester ensues almost immediately thereafter and ends in June, 1964. During this time, calls will be made at 22 ports.

The university afloat will have about 40 professors and instructors; offer courses in architecture, creative writing, music, painting, theater, business administration, economics, education, political science, astronomy, geography, geology, oceanography, public health, languages, history, anthropology, philosophy, religion, sociology and speech.

MRS. EVELYN PIERROZ of Belveron Gardens, secretary with Wells Fargo Bank in Mill Valley for nine years, will be associated with the new Tiburon National Bank now being organized.

Easter Egg Hunt Set In Novato

The Easter egg hunt for children not over eight years old, sponsored by the Novato Volunteer Firemen, will be held at noon Saturday at the Patterson Ranch at Grant Avenue and Seventh Street.

The firemen will spend all day Friday boiling and coloring 2,160 eggs. On Saturday morning, they will hide them in the field, where the grass has just been cut.

There will be three age groups again this year: from one to four years, five and six years, and seven and eight years. Parents again will be barred from the hunting areas.

A prize egg wil be marked and hidden in each age group area. Finder of this egg will be entitled to a big filled Easter basket.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Better Ask Extension Of Time If It's Impossible To File

If for some reason beyond your control it is impossible for you to file your Federal and California income tax returns by midnight Monday, April 15, 1963, then you should request an extension of time. Extensions are usually granted, for good reason, for a 60-day period.

P. J. Wikel

Requests for extensions of time should be in triplicate and signed by you or your agent.

Forms are available at your local office of the International Revnue Service and Franchise Tax Board. All requests for extensions should be on these forms and three copies are necessary. However, if you are unable to secure the forms, a letter in triplicate will do.

Your application should clearly set forth the full cause of the delay and the probable time that you will be able to complete your return.

It should give your full name and address as it will appear on your tax return when you do file.

Extensions are usually granted for a good reason such as illness, accidents, etc. Extensions are never granted because you are unable to pay the tax or because you neglected to keep your records in order. If you cannot pay the tax due, file your return anyway.

You will get a bill and you will have to pay it sooner or later. You will be charged interest, but there will be no penalty.

If you do not file your return on time, you will be subjected to penalties. So, either file the return or apply for an extension.

Mount Tam Property Bargaining

Marin County supervisors yesterday authorized County Counsel E. Warren McGuire to "continue bargaining" for possible county purchase of 15 acres on Mount Tamalpais to prevent its subdivision.

McGuire told the board he has received no answer yet from the State Division of Beaches and Parks as to possibility of state purchase of the land for an addition to Mount Tamalpais State Park.

Conservation groups have urged the county to act pending state purchase and obtain an option on the land. Owner Roy M. Scott of San Francisco informed McGuire he would consider a six-month option for $10,000.

Scott says the land is worth at least $82,000, but the state has made a tentative appraisal of only about half that amount, or $42,000.

Supervisor Peter Behr said the county should "know what the state is going to do before we amake any commitments. We can't walk into this blind."

Disabled Teen-agers May Apply For Jobs

Disabled Marin County teenagers may apply for summer jobs in the San Francisco plant of Goodwill Industries, according to William A. Marcus of Mill Valley, president of Goodwill.

Application for the jobs should be made through Rose Resnick at the California League for the Handicapped offices in the St. Francis Hospital, San Francisco.

Private Subscription Plan Best For Charity Financing

A preview of the number of charity-welfare fund appeals, now in the drawing board stage, for Marin this year, has given an unfortunate bit of ammunition to those who would have such functions financed by tax money, and operated by bureaucrats.

For the most part, this is based on mis-information, which puts the whole picture of the typically American appeal of a private welfare group for contributions from the public, completely out of perspective.

True, the continuing appeal of many agencies in Marin County and each of its 10 communities, can, at times, be a bit vexing.

But, in the interest of getting the largest amount of money to the agency with the greatest need and in the shortest time possible, it is much better that way.

In the same vein, many short-sighted groups are vexed at the funds being raised for research into such problems as cancer, and are raising the hue and cry of "let the government do the job."

Again, it is our opinion that these matters can be handled much better, and in the long run, more efficiently if left in private hands.

True, there are many drives, the United Crusade, the various health and welfare agencies, and many others. But, there is a need for each type of organization. Each renders a specific service to their respective community.

Frequently, we hear loud protests about the seemingly high percentage of public subscriptions in these campaigns that go for salaries and overhead. It may sometimes seem high.

But, if these agencies were financed by taxes, and operated by bureaucrats, the costs would rise many, many fold.

And, if we are to keep the whole matter in perspective, one must remember that the total function of a number of these agencies, which come under such criticism, is almost entirely a problem of administration.

Many agencies, too often, are confused with outright charity organizations, which disburse funds and supplies to needy persons. Actually, there are many agencies of the other type. Take the Boy Scouts, for example.

The entire function of the Boy Scouts of America, through their local units, is one of administration, management and motivation of a program for guidance of youth. They do not give a dime directly to any boy. In fact, their particular program would be completely sidetracked, if they gave a boy one dime. There are many such organizations in a similar situation.

Even Joys Of Spring Pose Problem

But gentle Spring has some problem children.

The gophers we struggled with all last summer have produced several lawn-humping, bulb-consuming offsprings.

Baby snails are ready to take over the garden. Except for a free hand with the snail bait they would doubtless do so.

With Spring comes a tawdry horde of insects and fungus diseases to plague and perplex the gardener. The flood of insecticides and fungicides grows and so does the outcry against them.

Youth Vs. Middle Age—Want To Be A Youngster Ever Again?

NEW YORK (AP)—Who, being middle-aged, would ever want to be young again?

When you're young you wait impatiently at life's second table to be served. When you're middle-aged you point pontifically at the roast beef as it comes hot from the oven and say, "I'll have a slice there."

That's the big advantage of being middle-aged. You know better how to pick and choose among life's various possibilities. You learn to prefer durable contentments to present dismays.

It is the dream of youth to gallop toward every goal. It is a satisfaction of middle age to appreciate any distance you no longer have to march.

Youth eagerly tries to lift itself up by its bootstraps. Middle age would rather take its shoes off and rest on the sofa.

Youth believes you can mail away a box top with a quarter and you'll get something back that will make life greater, happier or better. Middle age prefers to hold on to the quarter.

When the sap flows freely in the ambitious sapling, it tries desperately to climb the sun. When the sap flows slower, the older tree is glad enough to be able to hold up its arms and take the climate as it comes.

The young dog winces and cries in the throes of puppy love. His elder watches the pretty ones go by, sighs reminiscently, and is grateful that a gay old dog can't be taught new tricks.

In youth one chases the horizon from dawn to dusk. In middle age one goes to bed before midnight comfortably sure that by morning the horizon will still be safely there to admire, no more perilously near than before.

When young, one feels the urge to write long and passionate love letters. As age takes its toll, one takes a nostalgic delight in reading someone else's foolish letters in the tabloids while munching a sandwich.

Youth doubts; age knows.

There is no place that youth feels it can't get to. There is no place that middle age would rather be than here.

Youth argues with the wife; age just turns off the hearing aid and sits back and listens.

THE YOUNG MAN wonders if he can ever pile up enough money. The older man feels pretty sure he can't.

Youth can't wait to be hurt; age recoils from pain by remembering days of gladness.

TO THE YOUNG the day is swift and the years seem long. To those older, each day is a forever but the years fleet by on invisible wings—so that afterward he never is quite sure where they flew.

Who, being middle-aged, would ever want to be young again?

TROUBLES FOR De GAULLE

Creeping Inflation Causing French Price-Wage Pinch

By PHIL NEWSOM
(UPI) Foreign News Analyst

A LARGE PORTION of President De Gaulle's continuing popularity among the French people is his undisputed claim that they never had it so good.

French incmes are going up. Economically, the country is developing faster than Germany and more than twice as fast as either the United Sates or Britain. There is a healthy surplus of exports over imports.

But there also is a problem which could drastically alter the picture.

The problem is creeping inflation, which has seen the cost of living jump 5.3 per cent in the last year and 17 per cent since De Gaulle devalued the French franc in 1959.

The result is that individual incomes barely have kept pace with increasing prices and in some cases have fallen considerably below them.

SO LONG AS he had the Algerian war to worry about, De Gaulle was able to remain fairly aloof from the problem and leave it in the hands of his experts.

The French government is the nation's largest single employer and it is the unions in state-owned industries who now are making their bid.

In the state-run coal mines, some 230,000 workers have struck. It is possible they will be joined by nearly 500,000 others on the state-run railroads and in the sate-run gas and electricity industries.

The De Gaulle government has appealed to private employers to limit wage increases to no more than 4 per cent per year. But France has a labor shortage and the pressure of demand has in some cases forced wages up to more than twice the government ceiling.

This is the prosperity in which the government workers now demand they be allowed to participate.

They are supported by the Communists, who demand that savings resulting from the end of the Algerian war be pumped into wages instead of new armament.

In the summer of 1961, when the potato price collapsed, French farmers blocked roads with their tractors and forced the government to double its costs for price supports.

De Gaulle's determination to protect French agriculture was a prominent factor in his veto of British membership in the European common market.

Agriculture remains the largest industry in France, but it operates at an efficiency below that of its neighbors. The government is pushing a program of modernization and is attempting to siphon off a sizable portion of farm workers into industry.

Solutions to the problems of labor and agriculture are necessary if the wage-price spiral is not finally to wipe out the economic miracle of France.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Vast Weapons Cost Questioned

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Our nation now has 3,400 nuclear weapon delivery vehicles. These missiles and bombers can deliver nuclear explosives equal to 22 billion tons of TNT. These facts were read into the Congressional Record by Senator Wayne Morse.

Columbia professor Seymour Melman has determined that if we lost 50 per cent of these vehicles we still could destroy every Russian city of 100,000 population and over 1,250 times. Every city of 100,000 and over in the world could be destroyed 125 times by our present nuclear force, even allowing for a 30 per cent loss.

In this situation . . . the military budget has become self-defeating . . . helping to keep the world poor. Totalitarianism thrives on poverty.

We need to develop economic and political strategy just as we developed military strategy. But we cannot do this when two-thirds to three-quarters of our scientists and engineers are concentrated on military development. We cannot do this when the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency has a $10 million budget limit established by law and the Defense budget is $56 billion.

The question of the Defense budget is now before the Senate Armed Services Committee . . . Citizens can speak out on this matter . . .

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

After the worst sandstorm in those parts in a generation, a rancher stumbled over a hat, and found it was on the head of an unfortunate buried in the sand. After the poor fellow was almost dug out he implored, "Dig a little deeper, Brother: I'm on horseback."

One of Abraham Lincoln's favorite anecdotes: "I passed by a field where a farmer was trying to plow with a very decrepit and emaciated horse. I noticed on the flank of the animal a big horse-fly, and was about to brush it off when the farmer stopped me with, 'Don't you bother that fly, Abe. If it wasn't for that fly, this danged old hoss wouldn't move an inch!"

OVERHEARD:

At a cocktail party: "He makes people happy wherever he goes—er, I mean, WHENEVER!"

From a disgruntled husband: "Intuition is what enables my wife to contradict me before I open my mouth."

After a testimonial banquet: "I looked at my watch at midnight—and it was only eight forty-five!"

Big Risk In Asking State To Meddle In Home Affairs

WOULD THAT I could take the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce by the hand and toddle through some of my personal, but international history of watching what can happen if business asks government to solve its problems.

Business always has problems, everywhere.

Things like trying to shut down your Sunday competitors because you don't want to work Sunday are among the simplest.

Governments don't always wait for mandates-to-meddle. But, they often think it pretty nice when businessmen actually holler "Help!"—as in Senate Bill 845 for compulsory Sunday closing.

Mighty often, I've noticed, the sequence goes like this. What you ask for today is forced down your throat tomorrow.

TODAY YOU'RE BOSS. Tomorrow you wonder. Next day there's no doubt, you AREN'T boss. I saw this happen three times and three times was out in my own case.

All these lessons happened in a far-off land. Quit reading right here if you're like a lot of American businessmen who are forever saying "Yes, but it can't happen here." My observation is that things are the same all over.

First sequence was when the Japanese closed in on Shanghai during the late 1930s. They could see competition was very wasteful, especially between Japanese businessmen and foreign businessmen. So they put the squeeze on the latter. This job was finished after Pearl Harbor and then the government began to suck Japanese business into it all the way.

PEACE PUT the checkerboard back something the way it was before and then we saw Chiang Kai-shek's government do the same thing. Since the war ended extra-territoriality, this time it was Chiang putting the foreigner out of business, while he got the Chinese businessmen all tangled up in totalitarianism.

WHEN THE Communists chased Chiang off to Formosa they didn't quite know what else to do in the cities for a while, being boys from the hinterland.

But after they'd trifled around a while, letting labor think it was getting a grip on business, they moved in on labor and capital both with results usual under a Communist crew.

So I came home to enjoy association with free enterprise. I think it was the so-called "fair trade" laws that jolted me first.

A COUNTRY founded on competition and built up by individualism seemed to be dedicating itself to government control to prohibit competition. Any merchant who wanted to hustle a little faster and cut his prices a few cents was being told the government didn't allow such things and he might land in the pokey any minute now.

Nobody was being asked whether he wanted to be a tax collector for Uncle Sam, either. Every merchant was in just about anywhere you looked. And, I was surprised to find that the federal and state government both had a sort of non-risk partnership with the gasoline companies—every time I filled my gas tank it was a nice profit for them and no work.

Well, it has me pretty dizzy but I can see reasons for part of it such as the heavy taxes. If Washington didn't have a lot of money to give to such foreign countries as I used to live in, they probably couldn't get up enough strength to throw the Americans out.

And the more complicated our country gets the more need there must be for somebody to tell the businessman how to run his business.

Just the same, I don't see why the businessman should like it or ask for it.

Before asking for any more compulsions than the government is bound to saddle on us, I think the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce ought to buy a telescope and have a look at how all this has worked out elsewhere.

The tendency for officialdom to try to run private business is always with us. And in my view it should always be resisted, not encouraged.

Conflict In JFK Cuba Policy On Raids, Troop Removal Argued

WASHINGTON—The more the Administration explains its command to the anti-Castro Cubans to stop their attacks on Castro-Soviet forces, the more it seems to be a hasty response which had not been thought through.

President Kennedy is as eager as others to see a free Cuba and to get Soviet troops out of the hemisphere. Obviously he very earnestly believes—or at least instinctively feels—that intervening to prevent the anti-Castro, anti-Soviet Cuban raids is the best way to do both.

But is it? At the very least we ought to take a good questioning look at the arguments the Administration advances to justify its policy and to weigh the case on the other side.

There are three main contentions the President and others make for trying to erect a wall between the attackers and the Soviet ships and troops.

ARGUMENT ONE — That the anti-Castro Cuban attacks on Soviet-manned installations will make it harder for us to persuade Khrushchev to withdraw the Soviet troops.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — Asserted but unproved. If we insure the Soviets against any hazards for their troops in Cuba, there is absolutely no incentive for Khrushchev to withdraw them. Mr. Kennedy has announced that 4,000 Soviet troops were removed in March, the first withdrawals since last November. The raids were in March. Where is there any basis for the argument that the raids prevent the withdrawals?

ARGUMENT TWO — That the anti-Castro raids should be stopped because they involve risks for the U.S.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — True, there are risks. Castro might go beserk and attack the U.S. instead of the anti-Castro Cubans. Soviet forces might get involved. But we aren't going to help insure the freedom of nations and peoples who want their freedom without some risks. We are taking greater risks in Vietnam today where the stakes are less than in Cuba.

ARGUMENT THREE—That we must not let the "reckless" Cuban refugees dictate U.S. foreign policy.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — Right. But isn't there a corollary? If we are going to leave the overthrow of Castro to the Cubans, how can we assert the right to tell them how not to do it?

ARGUMENT FOUR — That the hit-and-run raid's don't weaken Castro, might help him.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — The anti-Castro Cubans are not. just attacking Castro They are attacking a foreign power—Russia, which has put its troops into Cuba to fasten the Communist tyranny on the Cubans. Why should we protect the Soviet troops from the consequences of their presence in Cuba.

How do we know these raids have no future? Castro started by doing less.

No Center Use For Civic Affairs Unit

Otherwise, the supervisors postponed until next Tuesday decision on what to do about charging rent for meeting rooms—a plan that brought outcery from that same Marin Council for Civic Affairs.

Harold Stockstad, the council's chairman, showed up later to apologize for a phrase in a letter to the board last month which Supervisor Peter Behr had challenged as reflecting on supervisors' integrity. But Stockstad stuck to his contention that the Civic Center belongs to the public and should be made available for public meetings without cost.

No charge has been imposed for such use of the county courthouse. Administrator Alan Bruce suggested the board should make a uniform policy and "charge for both or neither."

Supervisor George Ludy said Sonoma County does not permit use of its administration building for any use save that of governmental agencies, while its charge for use of a memorial building is much higher than has been contemplated by Marin for its Civic Center. The same is true of memorial buildings in all other counties, said Ludy.

Behr attacked cost calculations of the administrator, saying that necessity to take down the partition between supervisors and planning areas is exceptional and that groups might do their own tidying-up. As to taxpayers as a whole paying the costs of meetings by organizations, he said "Marin is very group-conscious" with almost everybody belonging to at least one organization.

Supervisor William D. Fuselman taunted Behr with having previously favored screening between organizations which should pay and those which shouldn't, to which Behr retorted that "consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds."

REA VISITOR-Information Center To Open In San Francisco In May

A visitors-information center designed to send thousands of new travelers into the Redwood Empire will open in downtown San Francisco in the middle of May. This was announced today by Jack Craemer, president, Redwood Empire Assn., to the nine-county organization's quarterly meeting in Napa.

Craemer explained the association will operate the center in conjunction with the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau in a ground floor location at 476 Post Street.

He predicted it will be the "most productive single project REA has ever undertaken," and said he expects it will result in many one and two-day visits from San Francisco to Marin, Sonoma, Napa and Lake counties as well as long-trips up Highway 101.

Director Dwight O'Dell of Fortuna asked the Redwood Empire Assn. board to "demand a re-examination of State Beaches and Parks policy" citing the fact that a beautiful grove of redwoods has been logged off beside Highway 101 in northern Mendocino County.

Craemer referred the issue to the counties which are involved, suggesting they take action under an REA proposal to set up Parks and Recreation priorities for recommendations to the state.

The next executive board meeting will be held at Crescent City, July 19, the day before the dedication of the seven-million-dollar Collier tunnel nearby on Highway 199.

Many Boilers Called Defective In State

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Maintenance experts said yesterday boilers in many California buildings are defective, that inspection regulations for low pressure boilers are inadequate and luck alone is keeping more of them from exploding.

This criticism from the International Union of Operating Engineers came after several recent boiler blasts. One at San Jose last month killed five persons and injured 69. San Jose and San Francisco each had less serious explosions last week.

The maintenance union called for drastic action to avoid such accidents.

The State Industrial Welfare Division, which has charge of safety regulation for boilers, declined comment on the union charges.

For years the state has tightly regulated so-called high pressure boilers, those developing 15 pounds or more pressure to the square inch. They are inspected periodically and must be attended constantly by men who have passed state tests.

In recent years many of the high pressure oilers have been replaced by low pressure equipment, supposedly self-regulating and under existing law requiring less frequent inspection.

Gallinas Zone Proposal Is Due Planners

A proposal to rezone eight acres in Gallinas Village to allow construction of duplexes will be considered Monday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The area is bounded by North San Pedro Road, La Brea Way, Adrian Way and Vendola Drive and is now zoned single-family residential. The zoning change is requested by International Investment Co. of San Francisco, which plans 36 duplexes on 7,500-square-foot lots.

Principal Planneer David Van Pelt said there would be no area in the proposed subdivision for public use other than streets and sidewalks. The lot sizes for duplexes would be the same as for single-family homes.

A strip of property along La Brea Way is already zoned for apartments, although most of the surrounding area is single-family residential.

The commission will meet at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center. The proposed subdivision and zoning will be heard as agenda items 6 and 7.

Hollis Will Talk On Election Of Superintendents

Virgil S. Hollis, Marin County superintendent of schools, will speak in favor of election of county and state school superintendents tomorrow at 9 p.m. on television station KQED.

The discussion, on "Bay Area Profile," will also feature Adm. C. Julian Wheeler in favor of election of school superintendents and James R. Tormey, San Mateo County schools superintendent, in favor of appointment. The program will be rebroadcast Monday at 10:15 p.m.

Hollis will again discuss election versus appointment of superintendents Saturday at the San Mateo County Hall of Justice. State Supt. of Public Instruction Maxwell Rafferty will also speak on the proposed county-wide school tax and unification.

Donkey Basketball Game Wednesday For Field Service

Laughter and spills will be the order of the day next Wednesday when the Community Ambassadors sponsor two performances of donkey basketball in Novato High School gymnasium.

Proceeds from the shows will go to the Ambassadors, the Novato Chapter of the American Field Service, to help sponsor foreign exchange students. The week of April 14 to 20 has been proclaimed American Field Service Week in Novato.

High school boys will play a girls team at 3:30 p.m. At 8 p.m., faculty members will play students.

Advance tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Richard G. Prasil of 1406 Buchanan Street or Mrs. Philip Rosenberg of 775 Sun Lane.

AUXILIARY LEADER HONORED

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Reedlands Couple Host To Scientist

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

From England Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bartholomew of the Reedlands have an interesting houseguest visiting them, Dr. Mary Glynne, who has retired after 45 years as a scientist at Rothampstead Experimental Station in Hartfordshire.

Dr. Glynne, who was decorated by the Queen with the Order of the British Empire for outstanding service, is on her way around the world via Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong, Australia and India.

This week she will read a paper at the University of California on plant pathology dealing with viruses and bacteria in plants, particularly wheat.

Dr. Glynne is godmother of her host, whom she previously visited in 1959. The Bartholomews plan to take her to Yosemite before she leaves for Honolulu.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID W. NURSE (Betty Lutgens) of Ridgewood, N.J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith Anne, to Lt. Alan C. Scheaffer, who is stationed at March Field in Riverside, Calif.

Judy, who will graduate in June from Mills College in Oakland, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutgens of San Rafael (he is the former owner and publisher of the I-J), and Col. and Mrs. H. B. Nurse of San Francisco. Colonel Nurse was in charge of construction of Hamilton Air Force Base. Judy's brother, Howard, is a sophomore at Stanford University. Judy is the niece of Kenneth Nurse of Honolulu and Mrs. Thomas M. Gannon Jr. of San Rafael.

Alan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gibson Scheaffer of Wilmette, Ill. He is a graduate of Dennison University and attended law school at Ohio State. He became a second lieutenant in the Air Force in February. His sister is Mrs. Ralph Smith of Columbus, Ohio.

The couple will be married in First Presbyterian Church in Ridgewood on Sept. 7 and a reception will follow at the Ridgewood Country Club. The newlyweds will make their home in Riverside.

MR. AND MRS. FRED REDDEN of San Rafael are en route to Texas, where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Roberts (Elaine Redden), of Kingsville and family and see their youngest grandson. En route the Reddens stopped in Palo Alto to breakfast with their other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray, and their young son, and in Taft they visited Mrs. Redden's brother, W. A. Brooks, and his wife. From Kingsville the Reddens will go to see friends in Port Neches, Texas, and in Oklahoma City. They'll return home about the first of May.

FRIELIND WAGNER, granddaughter of Richard Wagner and great-granddaughter of Franz Liszt, will be the speaker at an unique Junior League preview, Monday at Hotel Mark Hopkins. The league has many members in Marin who will attend the preview and hear the descendant of the famous composers. Miss Wagner and her brothers, Wolfgang and Wieland, are directors of the Bayreuth Festival in Germany. The sister and her brothers who are known for staging operas on completely bare stages, are perpetuating their grandfather's dream of having music 365 days a year in his home town.

After the preview, Miss Wagner will lunch with Mrs. Robert Watt Miller and Mrs. Stanley Powell, prominent music patrons, and league president, Mrs. William Luttgens.

FAIR LADY GOVERNESS

Larkspur Club Will Celebrate 51st Anniversary On April 17

The Larkspur Women's Club will celebrate its 51st anniversary luncheon at Tiburon Tommie's restaurant on April 17 at noon. Mrs. Jeretta Russell and Mrs. Donald Denton are co-chairmen of the affair.

Decorations will carry out a Hawaiian theme with leis and corsages for the honored guests.

Mrs. Harold Myers, president of the Larkspur Women's Club, will preside at the luncheon and will introduce her new staff of officers which includes Mesdames George Marchant, first vice president, Olive Lidel, second vice president; H. C. Boyer, recording secretary; Carlotta Thomas, corresponding secretary; Kay Gale, treasurer; Albert Heston, parliamentarian and Jeretta Russell, auditor. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. W. H. Calhoun are in charge of reservations.

EASTER CUSTOM

Pointers On Type Of Corsage To Be Worn With Ensembles

As old as yesterday . . . and as new as tomorrow, that's the custom of wearing flowers on Easter. Whether you choose rose buds or chaste, velvety white gardenias makes no matter. The charm of fresh flowers remains ever the same.

The Society of American Florists has some pointers on the type of corsage that should be worn with various outfits.

For a tailored suit, try a tight bunch of varicolored carnations. If the stems are cut short and the flowers placed close together, the effect will be of one extremely large carnation. Add a few slender leaves for accent, but no ribbons here, says the Society.

TO PIN on a muff or to tuck into the belt at a slender waist, there is nothing lovelier than a quaint, old-fashioned nosegay edged with a frill of snowy white paper lace. The Society suggests baby rose buds, carnations, and stephanotis. The color of the flowers, of course, depends on the color of the outfit with which they are to be worn. Yellow flowers are lovely with a tan suit . . . or with one of a soft muted blue. Pink roses area flattering accent to dove greys and pale pale lavendars.

St. Stephen's Guild To See Japanese Ceremonial Dolls

Ceremonial dolls of Japan more than 150 years old will be displayed by Mrs. Herbert H. Scheier of Belvedere and she will discuss the famous doll festival at a meeting of St. Stephens Guild on Apr. 17 at 1:30 p.m.

This will be the first time these dolls have been shown outside of the Scheier home. They will be displayed on a platform constructed for the event by Mr Scheier.

The Scheiers lived in Japan for 10 years where he served as an attorney on the United States Army staff. Japanese friends often invited them to their homes for the doll festival. Mrs. Scheier was so enchanted with the beautiful little dolls and the charming ceremony she hoped to obtain a set to bring to the United States. Just a week before departure an antique dealer informed her he had obtained a set in perfect condition. This is the set which will be shown. The unusual collection is still clothed in the original antique hand-woven brocade. Traditionally they are exhibited only once a year during the Girls' Festival (Hina Matsuri) which honors the daughters of a Japanese household.

In keeping with the occasion, tea chairman Mrs. John D. Malling, will serve Japanese tea. According to guild president Mrs. Walter Simi, all who are interested are invited to attend.

Nature Study Course Open For Parents

To help families enjoy walks together and to coordinate teacher and parent guidance in this field, a nature study course for parents of young children will be held Tuesdays, Apr. 16 and 30 from 8 to 9:30 p.m. at Whitaker Hall in Belvedere. The course is under the auspices of the Belvedere and Tiburon Peninsula Nursery Schools.

The lectures will be given by Mrs. Janet Nickelsburg, teacher, writer and consultant for natural science programs, who recently conducted a four weeks course for the nursery school teachers and who is currently instructing a course in San Rafael for elementary school teachers through Sonoma State College extension service. Resource materials will be displayed.

Enrollment is open to the public. Registration will start at 7:30 p.m.

Tennis Club Lecture Set

Mill Valley tennis clubwomen will have an opportunity to bring their contract bridge up to date following their regular monthly meeting Tuesday. Contract bridge expert Mrs. Lina Crossley of Greenbrae will be the speaker.

Sherry will be served at 12 p.m. before the 12:30 p.m. luncheon, which is under the direction of Mrs. N. C. Ortman Jr. She will be assisted by Mesdames Jack Creighton, Lowell F. Jett, Paul Clark, A. R. Whittlesey and Palle Skjoldborg.

REMEMBERING WHEN . . . .

Rainbow Reception Honors Sue Olson

Twenty-one members of San Rafael Assembly, 195, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, Mrs. R. B. Willits, Mrs. Gwen Vincilione and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Roberts, left by car this week to attend the 1963 Grand Assembly in Sacramento.

Representatives from all California will number 5,000 girls. Each Assembly may be identified by like dresses. San Rafael girls chose flowered cotton.

Prior to the departure on Sunday, members honored Sue Olson, past grand representative to New Hampshire, at a reception in San Rafael's Masonic Hall. Her theme was "A Dream Come True", carried out with hearts and hats in pastel colors of spring. Kathy Scott, worthy advisor, presided. Skits were given with each presentation of a gift by the Assembly, members of her term, worthy advisors, grand officers, other assemblies, advisory board and Mothers Club. Ushers were Marin Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Marin Women

Daniel Rein Pilgrimage Area Winner

The 17-year-old Tamalpais High School junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rein of Tamalpais Valley, will now go on the tour starting around June 10 to New York to observe the United Nations in action.

Mrs. Russo is Mill Valley's Blythedale Rebekah Lodge chairman for the project under which Daniel, who was the delegate sponsored by the lodge, won the area contest on March 31 in Willits.

Women Voters Name Delegates To Convention

Five members of the League of Women Voters of Southern Marin will attend the 40th state convention of the league in Sacramento April 16 to 18.

Delegates are Mrs. Donald Robinson, president, and Mesdames Alan F. Kappelman, Homer Hixon and Jerome F. Downs. Mrs. John R. Barnes will go as an observer.

STATE PRESIDENT Mrs. Lauffer T. Hayes of Oakland will preside at the convention expected to draw about 300 delegates from 68 local leagues. They will bring together the thinking of 12,000 members in arriving at conclusions and planning future action on the "State's Role in Local Government" and regional planning problems.

They will adopt a new subject for study and action for the next two years. Debate will center around topics in which local leagues have expressed the greatest interest. These include factors affecting legislators, responsiveness and responsibility, financing higher education, how educational policy is determined, political parties and legislative redistricting and apportionment.

Modern Dance Group On Easter Vacation

Dance for Everyday Co-operative, modern dance group for adults, will resume its spring term after Easter vacations. A two-hour class is being offered on Tuesday nights at Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley.

El Marinero Women To Hear "Pennies For Pines" Speech

El Marinero Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its regular monthly meeting at 1 p.m., April 15 in the home of Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, 18 Edgewood Avenue, Mill Valley.

Miss Lelia G. Crouch will speak on "Pennies for Pines." Miss Crouch, a native Californian, has been with the U.S. Forest Service, California region, for the past 18 years.

The chapter regent, Mrs. Bruno L. Ercolini of Fairfax, will give a short talk on Father Junipero Serra to commemorate the 250th anniversary of his birth.

Luncheon hostesses will be Mesdames Henri M. Boussy, Thomas Harris, A. A. Laurence and Arthur L. Piver, all of Mill Valley.

Hay Balers Dance

The Hay Balers Easter Square Dance will be held on April 13 at the IDESI Hall in Novato. Jim Hilton will be caller for the 8:30 to midnight event.

Water Ski Sport May Smooth Out Sags And Bulges

NEW YORK (UPI)—Water skiing, enjoyed by the First Lady, has become the last word for streamlining the figure.

Al Tyll, a champion water skier from Litchfield, Conn., said the sport is one of the best in the world for shaping up.

"In my lectures to parents, I tell them that if they want their daughters to have beautiful figures, start them water skiing. Skiing uses the whole body, even if you just ski a straight line."

Mrs. John F. Kennedy often has been photographed water skiing, sometimes with her daughter, Caroline, with her. Tyll, a bachelor of 30, is a specialist in trick skiing, one of three types in competition, he said. The other two are jumping and slalom.

Tyll said the American Water Ski Assn. rates between 50 and 60 tricks in competition. These include skiing backwards, doing a complete circle and something called the toehold side slide with one foot hitched into a loop at the end of the tow rope, the other on a ski traveling sideways.

"The last is like being on a million ball bearings," said Tyll.

He holds a conventional job from 9 to 5, as court reporter for the Court of Common Pleas, Litchfield.

He serves as water ski consultant for Johnson Motors, appearing at boat shows and making educational films; is a consultant to Cypress Gardens in Florida; and currently is editing the forthcoming "ABCs of Trick Skiing."

The Water Ski Assn. estimated that eight million persons will water ski one time or many times in 1963 and that of this total, 300,000 will be beginners.

Students With Broad Horizons Don't Make Good Fraternity Men

MR. H. P.—He'll be better off if he joins mine.

DONALD P.—It's my dad's fondest hope that I join the Greek-letter fraternity at college to which he belonged, even though it was another chapter and another era. They're a nice enough bunch, but I don't need that sort of a crutch.

It's like saying hello to yourself every day and I'd rather say hello to a wider circle. There's something sacred and snobbish about fraternities. I don't need or want that sort of protection. I can make friends on my own.

MR. H. P.—Each generation of my family has had at least one man in Kappa Alpha, the oldest of them all. There's nothing like it to help a young fellow grow socially. My two closest friends, to this day, are men I met first as fraternity brothers. But Don knows I have other friends too. It's just that at 19 he's foolish to turn down a ready-made circle of buddies. They constitute a core of wonderful contacts for the rest of his life.

THE COUNCIL: According to a University of Michigan survey, there's the "fraternity type" and the non-fraternity fellow. The former is described as an extrovert, athlete, politician, and undistinguished scholar.

Non-members, on the average, get higher grades, are more creative, original, nonconformist. The consensus is that fraternities, while a good thing, will get less and less important on campuses.

Everything must come to an end, Mr. P., and if Don chooses to have the old tie end with him, please, no moaning at the bar. Blame it on his mother's side of the family, but he prefers to furrow out his own circles of associates rather than inherit them. In addition to growing socially, he's out to grow intellectually and emotionally.

"You don't make fraternity men out of people with broad horizons," declared a Williams College professor recently. Well, there are exceptions to that view, but Don isn't aiming to be one. We think he'll make the right "contacts," Mr. P., on his own and as your son rather than your "brother."

ANACIN® contains the pain reliever doctors recommend most for headaches. In minutes—pain goes, so does its tension, mental fatigue and depression.

New York, N.Y. Medical reports confirm that tense, nervous headaches are by far the most common kind. They are caused by tension that presses on the nerves. But fortunately, one can get remarkable relief in minutes with this special tablet—Anacin.

Anacin not only relieves the pain, but also relaxes its tension and releases painful pressure on nerves—bringing you fast 'all-over' relief.

Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, a combination of ingredients. The reason Anacin Tablets are so effective is because they contain the pain reliever doctors recommend the most plus an extra ingredient not found in leading aspirins or buffered aspirins. And Anacin has such a gentle action. Doesn't leave you depressed or 'let down.'

This big difference in Anacin makes the big difference in the way you feel. Buy Anacin today.

June Nuptials Set For Susan C. Young

Mr. and Mrs. Graham W. Young of San Anselmo announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Camille Young, to Allen John Maxey of Mill Valley.

The bride-elect is the sister of Elizabeth Ann Young and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Fletcher of Washington, Kan., Mrs. Clara W. Young of Norman, Okla., and Mr. Bob H. Young of Wichita, Kan. She was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is presently a sophomore at College of Marin in Kentfield.

The future benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Maxey of Mill Valley and the brother of Herbert F. Maxey. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Maxey of Lake County.

He was graduated from Tamalpais High School, attended the College of Marin, and is presently stationed at Travis Air Force Base in Fairfield.

The wedding will take place June 22 at the Community Church, Mill Valley.

A JUNE 22 wedding in Mill Valley is planned for Susan Camille Young and Allen John Maxey, both of Mill Valley, whose engagement has recently been announced.

Mrs. Virginia Porter, Marin Home Advisor, will act as advisor to the group.

Already Two Pairs

If you're an average American woman, you wear a size 7-B shoe, have purchased two pairs already this year, and will purchase two more pair before the year ends. And because you're more concerned about fashion than the exact fit you need for comfort, you're likely to have rough, reddened calluses just above the backs of your heels where the inside of the shoe presses against the heel tendon and rubs when you walk.

Tips On Proper Care For Easter Corsage, Plants

If properly cared for, flowers in a corsage worn on Easter Sunday, or any other special occasion, may be reused for wearing, used in a basic arrangement of foliage, or floated in a shallow bowl of water, says the Society of American Florists.

REMOVE ALL ribbons and submerge the flowers in very cold water for about 20 minutes. (However, do not submerge orchids, because they will spot.) Then shake off the water gently, wrap the flowers in foil or wax paper, seal the edges and place the flowers in refrigerator. Do not place them in the freezing compartment, however.

PROPER CARE of spring potted plants will extend their blooming period and increase your enjoyment of them.

Hydrangeas are thirsty plants which may need watering every day, and twice a day in a dry atmosphere. Water Easter lily plants every other day and, as new buds unfold, remove the yellow anthers carefully.

KEEP HYACINTHS, tulips and other potted plants in a cool, light location and water them when the soil starts to dry out. For best results, keep the soil of azaleas uniformly moist. If the soil becomes dry, submerge the pot in water until the topsoil is wet again.

Curve spring flowers—such as snapdragons, iris, delphiniums and even pussy willows—to achieve a wider range of design in arranging flowers.

Sausalito Easter Party Set Sunday

An Easter party for children will be given by the Sausalito Cruising Club from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the clubhouse.

It will consist of an Easter egg hunt followed by games with prizes offered.

In charge of coloring eggs and preparing refreshments is auxiliary president Mrs. John Erkelens and her committee composed of Mesdames Alfred Lawson, Harry Kramer, Lewis Deppman and Allen Kennett. Assisting Mrs. E. J. Moody on the entertainment are Mesdames Roy Schwartz and Newton B. McCarthy.

Commodore Ron Dover is reservations chairman.

Hot Spring Items

Quality of Fats Is Satiety Value

CHICAGO (UPI) — An important quality of fats is their satiety value, says Dr. William C. Sherman of the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

From a nutritional standpoint, satiety means the ability of certain foods to delay the onset of hunger. Dietary fats remain in the stomach longer than carbohydrates or protein and also have the ability of holding other foods in the stomach for a longer time, said Sherman.

He said the physical presence of food in the stomach and intestines delays the onset of hunger.

"It is for this reason that substantial amounts of fat in reducing diets are highly important," he said.

Vienna Coup Loses Its Terror As Viewed In Modern Times

One hundred years ago the greatest player of the age spent three days trying to work out a play that became known as the Vienna Coup.

Just a few weeks ago a hand of this kind was solved right at the bridge table by many contestants in the annual Intercollegiate Bridge Championships.

East wins the first trick with the ace of hearts and returns the five of clubs. South has eleven tricks in top cards and needs one other trick for the slam.

RAN SPADES

Some of the college students ran the spades and then tried the diamond finesse. Down one.

Some of them led out the ace of diamonds first, hoping to drop a singleton queen, but then went after the spades and a diamond finesse. Same sad fate.

This sort of play couldn't be a Vienna Coup. After all, the greatest player of the 19th century wouldn't have spent three days on an ordinary finesse.

INDIAN GIFT

The Vienna Coup is a sort of Indian gift. First you set up a trick for an opponent and then you squeeze him out of it.

South wins the second trick with the king of clubs and cashes the high hearts. West discards a club on the last high heart. South also cashes the ace of diamonds.

South next cashes the ace of clubs—the key play. This is the unblocking play that brings home the wampum topped with whipped cream. East discards a heart.

DUMMY SPADES

Declarer then runs dummy's spades, noticing that West can follow suit only once. West is known to have started with one spade and two hearts. Since East could play only one club, West started with the remaining seven. This accounts for 10 cards, so that West's other three cards originally must have been diamonds.

Declarer runs the rest of dummy's spades, watching West's discards. When the last spade is led, dummy has only the ten of diamonds and the jack of clubs. South has two diamonds, and West can likewise save only two cards.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

New Step In Cancer Research —Tumors Induced In Animals

VAN DELLEN

It is possible to produce tumors in laboratory animals that correspond to human cancers. Research was hampered in the past because most of the skin cancers induced in animals experimentally were not seen too often in man. The newcomers include carcinoma of the lung, stomach, pharynx, mouth cavity, tongue, kidneys, and bladder.

We need tumors like these to test the hundreds of drugs that might be useful in the treatment of cancer. Even more important is the ability to detect carcinogenic agents that are responsible. This is vital because prevention is one of the best weapons against this disease. Eliminate the causes and the problem will be solved.

BUT IT TAKES time to produce many of these malignancies in laboratory animals. The continuous inhalation of beryllium sulfate produces lung cancer in rats but the rodents must be exposed to the chemical for 30 days. Another 10 to 11 months pass before the tumor appears.

Dr. Arthur J. Vorwald of Detroit injected beryllium oxide into the wall of the windpipe of a monkey six and one-half years ago. The incident was almost forgotten until the monkey developed a lung cancer that was identical to those of humans. But this is too long a time to wait if the method is to be used to screen out thousands of carcinogenic agents.

THERE ARE MANY theories on the cause of cancer. A chemical is blamed for the malignancies mentioned above. But authorities may argue the point by saying that the chemical provokes or triggers a virus to form the tumor. We know this is possible because viruses are capable of transforming or altering the genetic code in a cell. They say to the cell, "From now on you must grow like a cancer cell and all your progeny will follow suit." This is the way an innocent cell is changed into a malignant cell.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE that we associate viruses with infections; this makes many persons assume that cancer is contagious. This concept must be changed. It is only the nucleic acid in the virus that enters the cell and is the link with cancer. The part of the virus that initiates cancer disappears from the scene. It cannot be isolated in the tumor in the same way as viruses are isolated from the secretions in viral infections.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

J. H. writes: Could hypothyroidism cause a stillbirth?

REPLY

It may, but a lazy thyroid must be a remote possibility considering the number of women with a normal thyroid who have had stillbirths. More common causes are toxemia, Rh incompatibility, kidney disease, diabetes, difficult labor, infections, and malnutrition.

NEEDS HALF INCH

V. F. writes: Are there any exercises that could stretch my son an extra half inch? He's only five feet seven and one-half inches tall and would like to be a policeman and needs another half inch.

REPLY

Not to my knowledge. He may be able to pick up the one-half inch by standing tall.

ALLERGY FROM EMOTIONS

Mrs. Q. writes: How does allergy from emotional upsets affect a person?

REPLY

REACTIONS TO CONSTIPATION

J. M. writes: Can constipation disturb sleep, affect the nerves, and sap your pep?

REPLY

Corte Madera Hill Residents Unit Discuss Incorporation

Residents of the Corte Madera hill area bordering Larkspur will discuss articles of incorporation at the next meeting of "Christmas Tree Hill Dwellers" at 8 p.m. May 7 in the library of Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

The residents decided on the name of their association Monday night at a meeting which heard a review of the town's master plan as it applies to a 65-acre tract on the hill.

The master plan will be given two public hearings by the town planning commission April 19 and 29 and a hearing by the town council later.

The plan was reviewed by Architect Jerry Rubin of 171 Summit Drive, who said town consultants Livingston and Blaynet favor cluster type development for the greenbelt area bordering Corte Madera Avenue on the south flank of the hill.

Rubin said a plan defeated two years ago had proposed two-story apartment structures.

The residents decided to meet the first Tuesday of each month and invite membership by those paying rent as well as owning their homes. The The group invited membership by all living west of Corte Madera Avenue on the hill. This would include about 10 families in Larkspur.

The organization resulted from a dispute over a patio and fence blocking Ridgeway, a path between Morningside Drive and Crescent Road. The fence was removed last weekend.

Huey Long Killed 28 Years Ago; Heirs Powerful, Bitterly Split

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Twenty-eight years ago, a bullet killed Huey Long, but his family remains a political power in the state.

Louisiana, where politics is even stronger than the coffee, is waiting to see which faction, if any, still has that old magic.

The No. 1 faction, based on elective eminence, has Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) throwing his weight behind a cousin, Rep. Gillis Long (D-La.).

The widow of former Gov. Earl Long and two sisters of Huey are backing John McKeithen of Columbia, a public service commissioner.

Still another Long, State Sen. Speedy Long of Jena, was the first to issue a formal announcement as candidate for governor.

This campaign gumbo, coming rapidly to a steaming simmer, may be a major test for Senator Long, 44, the nervous image of his father, Huey.

Both Russell and Gillis know a governor is the real political chief in the state, no matter whom the voters send to Washington.

The senator's endorsement, coming before Gillis even formally announced as a candidate, was viewed as an effort to unite the clan.

Gillis, a nimble-witted freshman congressman from the Eighth District, tickled some of the Long lieutenants with a campaign voice that rosped in the file-tongued style of the late Earl, one of the most colorful speakers to ever grace a stump.

But Gillis faces the dilemma of a three-way split plus the threat of numerous and experienced foes moving carefully around the outside looking in.

McKeithen, 44, also a pleasing orator, was House floor whip for the gallus-snapping, tempestuous Earl.

"I think he has an excellent chance of winning," said Mrs. Earl Long.

If McKeithen and Speedy don't withdraw, and they show no sign of it, Gillis could have his problems.

There were unconfirmed reports that Gov. Jimmie H. Davis and some of his backers seem to be leaning toward Gillis—but in politics anything can happen.

The field would jam up with high-stepping candidates if it looked as though the governorship might be up for grabs.

Any candidate would have to make a good showing in New Orleans, which has a fourth of the state's votes. Thus far, city politicos have remained mum.

Others making their plans include former Gov. Robert Kennon, the Eisenhower Democrat; deLesseps Morrison, the ambassador to the Organization of American States and four times mayor of New Orleans; Shelby M. Jackson, state education superintendent; Cap Barham, former lieutenant governor, and Claude Kirkpatrick, state public works director.

The first primary is Dec. 7. The campaign won't really get started until July. Politically, it's going to be a hot summer.

Public Schools Week Coming

Lewis G. McCall of San Rafael, president of the California School Employees Assn., today urged the association's 22,000 members in 350 chapters, as well as the public, to observe Public Schools Week, April 22-26.

Theme of the week this year is "Our Public Schools—Symbols of Freedom," McCall said.

McCall, who is maintenance director of San Rafael Schools, said there are more than 220,000 men and women—school board members, administrators, teachers and non-teaching employees — involved in running California schools. He urged citizens to visit their schools and take an interest in their operation.

Garbage Worker Charged In Theft

A Sausalito garage worker was to appear in Marin Municipal Court today on a charge of receiving property stolen from cars parked along Rose and Monte Vista avenues in Mill Valley.

He is Dennis Lock, 24, of Gate 3, Sausalito, who was arrested by Mill Valley police last Friday.

Stock Market Traders See Improving Profits

By SAM DAWSON

Rising sales have cheered many companies that earlier feared stagnation. A sizeable number have been at least partially successful in combatting the rising production costs that were squeezing earnings. Modernization and automation of plants and traditional cost-cutting campaigns have helped. And steady, if slow, growth of the general economy has pushed sales and profits up along with everything else.

Net income after taxes for the nation's corporations set a record in 1962 at better than 51 billion dollars. Early reports on results in the first quarter of 1963 show the trend is continuing, with ing nice gains over the first many top companies report-three months of 1962.

The steel industry, most publicized casualty of the 1962 production slowdown and profit margin squeeze, should do better this year. Production is rising, new orders pouring in. The leaders complain that profit margins are too low, but the total figures should be higher.

The auto makers are boasting of record or near-record sales in the opening months of 1963. And their 1962 profit gains were impressive.

Already reporting profit increases for the first three months of their fiscal year are such leaders in their industries as American Telephone and Telegraph, Firestone and General Tire, International Harvester, Chesapeake and Ohio and Illinois Central railroads, Korvette, Corning Glass, Avco, Carrier, Fedders, Dresser Industries, Kroger.

For many corporations the big spurt in profits started in the final months of last year. Manufacturing firms averaged 25 per cent increases in the fourth quarter over their profits in the preseding three months. The October - November - December results were about 8 per cent better than in the final months of 1961.

Government figures show manufacturing after-tax profits for all of 1962 care to 17.7 billion dollars, up 16 per cent over the previous year, and topping the previous record of 16.3 billion dollars set in 1959.

The profits were made on record sales of 389.4 billion dollars, a 9 per cent gain over the previous high set the year before.

But the stock market is more interested in the profit prospects than in the past it already knows. So it is scanning closely the first-quarter reports just beginning to flow in volume. And it is paying heed to predictions made at the annual meetings, already under way and reaching a peak by the end of the month.

The early reports show far more profit advances than retreats. And the predictions—even with allowance for the compulsion of corporate heads to comfort the shareowners—are much rosier than this time a year ago.

The word "boom" isn't mentioned. But "more and better" are.

Expert Asks Why Speedup In Learning

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Pretty soon someone will come up with a device for teaching reading at age 2—perhaps even prenatally," a Stanford researcher said today, tongue in cheek.

Then Joseph Katz added seriously:

"But what's the hurry about reading, particularly if we consider what sort of things people actually read?"

The research coordinator of Stanford's Institute for the Study of Human Problems was making this point:

The technology age is so bent on speeding up the educational processes that some of life's deeper values are being bypassed.

"Where I live, a kindergarten advertises that by entering it a child can shorten the time it takes to get a Ph. D. by one year," he told a national meeting of the Philosophy of Education Society.

"We need to study students as attentively as doctors study patients or as physicists study electrons," Katz contended.

"We will never reach students unless we know them."

Another point:

"In our society, parents either work apart from their children or are too impatient with them to be appropriate educators. Schools, then, are good places to get the young out of the way.

"Paradoxically, some educators want to leave the job of personality development to the very parents who have abdicated it to the schools in the first place."

What to do?

"We need to ask ourselves what will make the college years more effective and meaningful for different individuals. Once we raise this question this way, we will soon cut across our departmental approach to subject matter and, instead, define our objectives more along task lines.

"Thus intellectual tasks would include the ability to make generalizations, grasp of methods that lead to results, independence of thinking, communicating one's knowledge to others, and the capacity to listen and read to understand what another person or an author has in mind."

Another thought which summed up Katz' thinking:

"We are well washed and clean, but some of the character and sweetness of life has been rubbed out with it."

Mill Valley To Meet On Streets, Library

The Mill Valley City Council will hold an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. today to discuss the neighborhood streets report and financing of a new library.

First on the agenda will be the streets report made by a committee of Councilmen Michael Wornum and William E. Secor and City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants. Two hours is to be allotted to this discussion. The library, estimated to cost $375,000, will then be discussed.

Ross Is Meeting On Retirements

The Ross Town Council will consider an ordinance tomorrow night approving a contract with the State Employees Retirement System to provide benefits for town employees.

The council, which will meet in the town hall at 8 p.m., also will discuss flood control, parking on Ross Common, an ordinance on septic tanks, services and charges of Marin Sanitary Service, and a series of planning and zoning matters.

RESOLUTION NO. 3875 N.S. RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MILL VALLEY GIVING NOTICE OF PROPOSED "DOUD-OEHLER ANNEXATION"

Whereas, the City of Mill Valley desires to annex the territory more particularly described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, and

Whereas, said proposed annexation has been submitted to and approved by the Boundary Commission of the County of Marin, State of California,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby resolved, ordered, and declared:

1. The City Council of the City of Mill Valley does hereby give notice of the proposed annexation to said City of that certain territory more particularly described in Exhibit "A," attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. Annexation proceedings will be conducted pursuant to the Annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939.

EXHIBIT "A"

BEGINNING at a point on the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley which lies 500 feet due west of the center of Section 20, Township 1 North, Range 6 West, Mount Diablo Base and Meridian, which point is also the point of junction with the exisiting corporate limit of the City of Larkspur, thence along the said corporate limit of the City of Larkspur, North, 2,166 feet; thence leaving said corporate limit, due West 1,700 feet more or less, to the intersection with the easterly line of the 75 foot wide right of way of the abandoned Mill Valley & Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway, as said right of way is described in the Quitclaim Deed, dated November 28, 1930, by Mount Tamalpais & Muir Woods Railway, a corporation, to the Marin Municipal Water District, a public corporation; thence following the easterly line of said right of way which lies 37.5 feet east of and parallel with a center line described as follows:

Curving to the left on the arc of a circle whose radius is 100 feet a distance of 102.5 feet; thence North 58° 05' West 80.3 feet; thence curving to the right on the arc of a circle whose radius is 100 feet a distance of 91.8 feet; thence North 5° 19' West 214.1 feet; thence curving to the left on the arc of a circle whose radius is 478.3 feet a distance of 30.0 feet; thence North 8° 54' West 18.4 feet; thence curving to the right on the arc of a circle whose radius is 359.3 feet a distance of 50 feet; thence curving to the right on the arc of a circle whose radius is 150 feet a distance of 50 feet; thence North 18° 14' East 33 feet; thence curving to the left on the arc of a circle whose radius is 70 feet a distance of 155 feet to the center of the Arroyo Corte Madera del Presidio.

Thence radially 12.5 feet from the northerly line of the said 75 foot wide right of way to the most northerly and westerly right of way line of the 100 foot wide right of way of the abandoned Mill Valley and Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway, as described in the above referenced Quitclaim Deed: thence following the northerly and westerly line of said right of way on a curve to the left whose radius is 120 feet until the point of intersection with the line of Rancho Saucelito, said Rancho line bearing South 6° East from survey station P.Q. 104 of the Rancho Punta de Quentin:

Thence from said point of intersection and following the said line of Rancho Saucelito, South 6° East, 230 feet, more or less, to the point of intersection with the easterly line of the said 100 foot wide right of way of the said abandoned Mill Valley and Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway;

Thence from said last point of intersection following the easterly line of said right of way which lies 50 feet east of and parallel with a center line described as follows:

Beginning at the point where the center line of the said railroad intersects the middle line of the Arroyo del Corte Madera del Presidio and thence ascending and curving to the left 95 feet with a radius of 70 feet; then South 7° 26' East 16.6 feet; thence curving to the right 71 feet with a radius of 193.1 feet; thence South 13° 53' West 34 feet; thence curving to the left 42.9 feet with a radius of 222.3 feet; thence South 2° 43' West 149.8 feet; thence curving to the right 58.4 feet with a radius of 302.9 feet; thence South 13° 49' West 41.3 feet; thence curving to the right 53.2 feet with a radius of 100 feet; thence South 44° 24' West 19.5 feet; thence curving to the left 161.1 feet with a radius of 80 feet; thence South 71° 36' East 46.5 feet; thence curving to the right 42.9 feet with a radius of 100 feet; thence curving to the right 96.6 feet with a radius of 116.7 feet; thence South 0° 36' West 25.6 feet; thence curving to the left 30.1 feet with a radius of 287.9 feet; thence South 5° 28' East 114.3 feet; thence curving to the right 93.3 feet with a radius of 100 feet; thence South 48° 10' West 39.6 feet; thence curving to the left 141 feet with a radius of 90 feet; thence South 41° 53' East 64 feet; thence curving to the right 81.1 feet with a radius of 150 feet; thence South 10° 55' East 76.7 feet, more or less, to the point where the easterly line of the right of way intersects the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley; thence along the said corporate limit the following courses: North 71° 31' East, 273 feet, more or less; South 18° 00' East 90 feet; South 64° 16' East 63 feet; South 3° 10' West, 41 feet; South 53° 55' East, 60 feet; South 70° 30' East 88 feet; North 87° 00' East 72 feet; South 10° 00' East 147 feet; South 25° 00' East 78 feet; South 56° 05' East, 65 feet; South 11° 15' West, 46 feet; South 2° 41' West, 81.91 feet; South 63° 06' East, 70 feet; South 50° 07' East, 125.91 feet; South 5° 02' East 256.13 feet; South 27° 25' East, 184.29 feet; South 76° 49' East 147.9 feet; South 36° 34' East 83.29 feet; South 15° 22' East, 137.61 feet; South 35° 21' East, 173.81 feet; thence due East, 740 feet, more or less to the point of beginning.

Containing 65.57 acres, more or less.

2. The proceedings for the annexation of said territory have been initiated by the City Council of the City of Mill Valley on its own motion and the reasons why it desires such annexation are as follows:

a) Said territory, because of its location, topography and other features, should be subjected to the same planning and zoning regulations which are applied by the City of Mill Valley to adjacent incorporated territory.

b) Said territory is so situated that it should receive the protective services of the police and fire departments of the City of Mill Valley.

3. Said annexation shall be designated as the "Doud-Oehler Annexation".

4. Notice is hereby given that on the 1st day of May, 1963, at 8 o'clock P.M., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the council chambers, City Hall, Mill Valley, California, the City Council of the City of Mill Valley will meet to hear written protests against the annexation made by any person owning real property within said territory proposed for annexation.

5. That the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to cause a copy of this Resolution to be published in the manner prescribed by Section 35311 of the Government Code of the State of California, and said Clerk is further directed to cause such other notices of the proposed annexation to be given as may be required by said Section.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Mill Valley on the 3rd day of April, 1963, by the following vote:

BEGINNING at a lead plug with brass seal marked "L.S. 2535" set in the North face of a concrete wall, which plug marks the point at which the agreed Westerly line of the lands of Frances Quelle Harris described in the Decree Establishing Fact of Death of Joint Tenant recorded in the Office of the County Recorder for the County of Marin in Book 1508 of Official Records at page 387 and the agreed Easterly line of the lands of Stephen M. Ramsey and Billie B. Ramsey, as guardians of the Estates of Frederic M. Ramsey, Patricia B. Ramsey, and Susan L. Ramsey, minors, meets the Southerly line of Excelsior Lane, and running thence along said agreed line South 27° 00' East 161.12 feet to a point distant 40 feet, Northwesterly, measured at right angles from the Northwesterly line of Lots 4 and 5 in Block 3 of the Official Map of the Sausalito Land and Ferry Co. as the same is filed in the office of the County Recorder for the County of Marin on April 26, 1869, running thence parallel with said line of Lots 4 and 5, South 63° 58' 10" West 1.32 feet, thence at right angles, Southeasterly 3 feet, thence parallel with the aforesaid Northwesterly line of Lots 4 and 5 and distant therefrom 37 feet Northwesterly measured at right angles, South 63° 58' 10" West (called South 63° West in various deeds) 118.64 feet to the Easterly line of Harrison Avenue, thence Northwesterly along said Easterly line 168 feet more or less to the corner common to Lots 9 and 10, Block 3 of the map above mentioned, thence along the line common to Lots 9 and 10, which common line is the Southerly line of Excelsior Lane, aforesaid, North 63° 09' 40" East, 91 feet more or less to the point of beginning.

Commonly known as 100 Harrison Avenue, Sausalito, California, and containing 18,420 square feet, more or less.

Sale will be subject to current taxes, covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, rights, rights-of-way, easements of record.

Bids or offers are invited for the property and must be in writing and may be delivered to the office of the guardians' attorney, Paul Micou, of Severson, Zang, Werson, Berke & Larson, Suite 800, 433 California Street, San Francisco 4, California, or may be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Superior Court at any time after the first publication of this notice and before the making of the sale.

Terms and conditions of sale: Cash in lawful money of the United States of America; ten per cent (10%) of the amount bid must accompany the offer and the balance must be paid upon confirmation of sale by the Superior Court. Taxes, operating and maintenance expenses, and premiums on insurance acceptable to the purchaser shall be prorated as of the date of confirmation of sale. The examination of title, recording of conveyance, and any title insurance policy shall be at the expense of the purchaser.

All bids must be on forms available from the guardians' attorney. Bids must be sealed and will be opened at the office of Severson, Zang, Werson, Berke & Larson, 433 California Street, San Francisco, California, at the hour of 2:00 p.m. of the above date. Any deposit must be by cashier's or certified check, payable to "Stephen M. Ramsey and Billie B. Ramsey, guardians of the estates of Frederic M. Ramsey, Patricia R. Ramsey and Susan L. Ramsey." The undersigned reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated: April 4, 1963.

Start Your Own Business With a Magic Fingers Franchise

MAGIC FINGERS is a massaging device that converts any bed into a massaging bed. The MAGIC FINGERS program originated in the Motel-Hotel field. Later MAGIC FINGERS expanded into "No-Man's Land", the beauty salon, by converting the hair dryer chairs into relaxing massaging chairs. As more and more people became exposed to the MAGIC FINGERS massage in Motels-Hotels and Beauty Salons across the country, they clamored for the wonders of the MAGIC FINGERS' exhilarating massage in their own homes. Thus was created the Home Sales Program. To further assist you, we have a National Dealer & consumer Finance Plan designed to eliminate sales resistance and increase your earning capacity over and beyond your expectations. The initial investment is small, only $2,500 to $5,000, the training is thorough and the advertising constant. This is not idle chatter. Accept our invitation and we will prove that a MAGIC FINGERS franchise is the nearest thing to Instant Success. You will hear the story first-hand from the modern day Horatio Alger in the person of our president, Mr. John J. Houghtaling. We will be delighted to talk to you in person in San Francisco at the Hotel Sir Francis Drake Wednesday, April 17th at 10 a.m. and Thursday, April 18th at 10 a.m. Ask for Mr. T. Philip Andrews. See you there.

Mental Health Panel On KTIM

Members of the new Marin Mental Health Foundation will comprise the KTIM "Sounding Board" panel tomorrow at 9 a.m.

They are Dr. Aaron Ungersma, president: Dr. J. M. Stubblebine, psychiatrist; and directors Florence Scott, executive director of the Marin Council of Community Services, and attorney Leland H. Jordan.

Listeners may send in questions for the panel, which will be moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer. The program will be repeated from tape at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Clausen Vote Urged

Roger Kent, chairman of the Northern California Democratic State Central Committee, disclosed today that he has sent a telegram to Rep. Donald H. Clausen urging him to vote for the public works bill, which Kent said includes 15 "important projects in the First District totalling over three million dollars."

Government Forum At Center April 27

Twelve panelists involved in various types of local government will participate April 27 at Marin County Civic Center in a forum designed to acquaint the public with the functions of cities, counties and special districts.

The forum, which is free except for the price of lunch, is sponsored by the Marin County Development Assn. and 15 other civic groups. It will go on from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the supervisor's chambers.

The objective of the forum is to stimulate greater and better-informed activity by citizens in their government.

William R. Zion, governmental consultant from Lafayette, will lead a panel on city government, composed of Roger F. Morse, former Corte Madera councilman and mayor as moderator, Dan E. Anderson, San Rafael city manager, and Arthur H. Brandow, Corte Madera city manager.

A session on special districts will be introduced by Jerome F. Downs, Mill Valley attorney, with moderator Mrs. Paul Holmer of Kentfield, Jerome B. Gilbert, manager of North Marin Water District and Jack Brandon, a director of the Terra Linda Recreation District.

An afternoon session on county government will be moderated by Mrs. Joel Nemschoff of Kentfield with panelists Alan Bruce, Marin county administrator; Mrs. Alfred Azevedo, former member of the County Planning Commission, and Leland H. Jordan, former county counsel and city attorney of Sausalito and Mill Valley.

Dutchman From Borneo Is New Citizen

Abraham Christiaan Vonk is a Dutchman from The Hague who came to be an American citizen after a nine-year stopover in Borneo.

He now lives in Mill Valley at 320 Ross Drive with his wife and three sons, John 30 months and twins, Peter and Don, 18 months.

Vonk went to Indonesia with the Army in 1947 when he was 20. For many years he worked for the Borneo and Sumatra Trading Co. in Borneo as a trader. His business: supplying Chinese grocerymen with goods from soap to food to shirting material.

Coming to the United States in 1957, Vonk became an accountant with the import-export firm of California Commodities, San Francisco. His business: spices and coffee.

Vonk explained that "in 1956 I was out of a job. There was no future for Dutch people" with the changeover from Dutch to Indonesian rule. "Lots of people wanted to come to the U.S." Also Vonk's brother lives in Palo Alto.

Vonk was delighted that he was among new citizens representing 27 nationalities who took the oath last week in U.S. District Court in San Francisco. One of them was Enrique Jorda, San Francisco Symphony conductor.

Highway Death Toll On Rise

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Highway Patrol reports the statewide death toll on the highways skyrocketed by 61 over last year to 309 in the month of February alone.

Four persons were killed in each of three accidents during the month.

Meanwhile, in an attempt to stem the carnage, the CHP arrested 84,928 violators, up more than 14,000 from the previous year. This brought the total arrested in the first two months of 1963 to 183,678.

Six-Story Commercial Building To Rise In San Anselmo

San Anselmo city councilmen looked approvingly at the plans last night and gave the project a unanimous green light, on condition that the developers deposit money with the city in lieu of offstreet parking.

This is the first major commercial structure approved by the city under a new parking proposal advanced by Councilman Cedric Clute. The city will waive the offstreet parking requirements if the builder will deposit money instead at the rate of $1,500 per parking stall.

City fathers referred the project to the planning commission, asking the planners to grant a parking variance for the building on condition that the developer agree to the parking deposit.

Owner of the property is Mrs. Hildred H. Huyssoon of 83 Cielo Drive, Greenbrae. Her development coordinator is Walter N. Allen of Greenbrae, branch manager for Robert G. Cruishank Realty.

The building will be called the Hub Center Building. It will be higher than any building in downtown San Rafael.

Construction will be of functional steel, glass and prestressed concrete. The first three floors will include retail shops at ground level, and administrative and professional offices in the second and third floors.

The first three floors should be completed in about six months, Allen estimated.

The second stage construction will provide 12 apartment studios on the fourth, fifth and sixth floors. The building will be air conditioned, and an elevator will be located in the center.

Mrs. Huyssoon said she has dealt in real estate before, but this is her first venture in commercial buildings.

Under the city's new zoning law, the building would require about 50 parking spaces, which means the developer must deposit $90,000 in lieu of offstreet parking.

The building will face San Anselmo Avenue. However, its back will be "dressed up," Allen said, if it will have access to the Greyhound bus depot area, which the city has just taken over for parking and street widening.

WEATHER FORECAST

NEW LOOK FOR HUB—This is artist's conception by K. G. Jarvis of how six-story, 70-foot-high Hub center Building will look when completed on San Anselmo Avenue. Approval for the building was given last night by the San Anselmo City Council. It will have stores on first floor, offices on next two floors, and studio apartments on top three floors.

Brown Says He'll Pick Delegation

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today he's going to select California delegates to the 1964 Democratic national convention.

He didn't say so directly but his news conference statement implied strongly that he has President John F. Kennedy's backing to form a Kennedy-Johnson slate.

Brown said it will be "a very representative delegation" and united behind Kennedy's renomination.

There have been published reports that Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) regarded as a political favorite of the Kennedys, would be the key man in picking next year's delegation.

Brown said he didn't discuss the matter with the president on a trip to Washington earlier this week but that he had discussed it on previous visits.

Slamming Storm Brings Downpour

Lightning, Thunder In Marin

A bright, almost blinding light struck some areas of Marin County today. Old timers said it was sunshine.

There was some hope that the sun may appear again, but the Weather Bureau said not tomorrow. The forecast is for general rain.

Last night the bright lights were flashes of lightning. A slam-bang storm with rolling thunder, sudden lightning and heavy downpours—including sleet—woke many Marinites.

Fairfax had the heavies downpour with a total of 1.3 inches, most of it between 11 p.m. and 1 a.m. There was no damage reported there.

FUSES OUT

Separate lightning bolts at 4:10 a.m. knocked out fuses in transformers in the Bret Harte and Glenwood areas of San Rafael. A few homes in both areas were without power for half an hour, a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. spokesman said. There was no other damage reported.

Marinwood reported .35 of an inch of rain between 7:30 a.m. and noon today, for a total of 1.20 inches since yesterday morning. But in most areas, the rain slacked off soon after 8 a.m.

The Weather Bureau said there would be showers tonight, general rain in the north half of California tomorrow, and snow in the Sierra.

Chains were required on Highways 40 and 50 today.

STORM TOTALS

The 8 a.m. totals for the storm that began Monday night included Phoenix Lake, .87; Lagunitas Lake, .83; Kent Lake, .78; San Rafael, .66; Woodacre, and San Anselmo, .65; Nicasio Lake, .60; Alpine Lake, .55; Forest knolls, .54; Chevy Chase area in Larkspur, .49; Novato, .48, and Point Reyes Station, .44.

The San Rafael total gave 42.58 for the season. Last year at this time the total was 36.91. Average total for the entire 12 months—July 1 to June 30—is 36.39.

The State Department of Water Resources reported today that water storage in Northern California reservoirs is normal or above normal, but Southern California faces serious shortages.

San Diego, the report said, is having its driest year in 113 years.

DOG UNDERGOING TEST FOR RABIES

A mongrel dog that was with a sick fox in West Marin three weeks ago, was put to sleep in order to test its brain for rabies today as county officials continued to worry about spread of the disease.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, said the dog's owner, a ranch worker, has left the county. The dog was taken into custody on Monday by the Marin County Humane Society on orders of Dr. Albrecht.

The action came on the heels of a report of a rabid skunk shot in Novato March 21. It was the fourth rabid skunk report since last summer.

The dog had never been vaccinated against rabies, and the fox, found in the basement of the ranch home, was frothing at the mouth and acting strangely.

The ranch worker shot the fox, destroying its brain so that it could not be tested. Dr. Albrecht said results of tests on the dog's brain tissue should

Hub Will Annex 38 Acres Of Land

San Anselmo City Council last night passed a resolution of intent to annex 38 acres of land adjacent to The Alameda and set a public hearing for 8 p.m. May 14.

Delmay Investments Inc. of San Rafael wants to put in residences on about 50 acres of land lying between The Alameda and Durham Road.

A delegation of nearby residents, armed with a petition signed by 129 persons, appeared at the council meeting last night to get more information on roads, drainage, and typeof homes planned for the area.

Thomas Stoddard of The Alameda, spokesman for the group, said the homeowners group in the area is not necessarily opposed to the annexation as such. "We just want to find out more about the developers—who they are, what type of work they've done."

The petition presented by Stoddard asks that the homes be limited to one-family residential. It also requests the city to join the county and San Rafael in working out a master plan for the entire 425 acres of the Short Ranch, which includes the 38 acres to be annexed to San Anselmo.

Mayor John M. Reichmuth explained that annexation of land is the only question before the council at this time, and that matters of zoning, roads, drainage, etc. will be taken up later. He said the residents will have a chance to air their protests and argue the pros and cons at the May 14 hearing.

Boy Is Treated After Bike Collides With Car

Michael Wylie, 13, of 127 Reservoir Road, San Rafael, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday for bruises and abrasions suffered when he and his bicycle collided with a car on Miramar Avenue near his home.

The driver of the car, Mrs. Betty Louise Keen, 29, of 16 Miraflores Avenue, San Rafael, was not cited. The boy was sent home after treatment.

Northgate Ceremonies Set Tuesday

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Emporium department store in San Rafael's Northgate Regional Shopping Center will be held next Tuesday, it was announced today.

Officials of the Emporium Capwell Co. headed by the company's president, Frederic S. Hirschler, will gather at the building site at 10 a.m. along with Jerome C. Draper Jr., president of the Draper Companies, developers of the shopping center, city and county officials and civic leaders. The 200,000-square foot store is expected to take 14 months to complete.

The Emporium will be the initial major department store in the Northgate development south of Manuel Freitas Parkway, and is planned for opening in mid 1964. Six million dollars are to be spent in construction and equipping and stocking the store.

Welfare Staff May Grow By 31 Persons

The Marin County Welfare Department will have to add 31 persons to its staff during the next year to handle the work imposed by new state and federal laws, but this will cost the county only $1,045.

Greatly relieved, the three supervisors present voted unanimously on three commitments necessary to get the program going, including hiring a dozen people July 1.

Miss Presley warned, however, that county costs may increase sharply in future years.

The 12 added employees will get the program under way, she said, but by June 30 of next year, the number of additions will mount to 31.

Base of the problem, Miss Presley reported, is federal public law 87-543, passed last year. It seeks to make welfare programs strengthen family life, encourage rehabilitation and bring about maximum self-care. Its rules increase costs all down the line, Miss Presley said, but most of the costs will be 75 per cent reimbursed to counties as compared with the previous level of 50 per cent.

Miss Presley cited that Marin County is expected to have three-quarters of its old age security caseload in the "service" category as compared with a statewide estimate of 30 to 40 per cent. She attributed the difference to the fact that most Marin County applicants are in their 70s "and apply because financial need arises out of increasing expenses of medical and personal care in advancing years."

In agricultural counties "people apply as soon as they are old enough (65) because they just need the money," she said.

Preliminary budget without consideration for the new requirements would have totaled $512,341 for welfare in the next fiscal year, with county share $280,754. With increases under new laws the items total $579,453, but the county share will be only $1,045 higher.

Auditor - Controller Michael Mitchell said his latest calculations of county budget prospects show that department requests definitely run over the 17 million dollar mark, while recommended outlays will be just under 17 million. This year's budget totaled just over 14.2 million.

Time Is Running Out On Property Taxes

If you own property in Marin, you haven't much time to pay your tax bills for 1962-63 before they will become delinquent.

County Tax Collector Stanley J. Fontez said his office in the civic center will remain open until 8:30 p.m. today to collect payments, but any payment postmarked before midnight will be considered paid before the deadline.

Bills not paid today will be subject to a 6 per cent penalty, and if they are not paid before May 15 the property will be listed on delinquent tax rolls. Failure to pay before June 30 will cause the property to be listed with the state, subject to sale at public auction in five years.

As of this morning, Fontez said about two million dollars, or nearly 10 per cent of a total $25,836,000 due to the county, was still to be collected.

He said about 3 per cent of the total charge usually becomes delinquent.

"Our mail in recent weeks has been especially heavy," Fontez said, "and receipts for payments may be delayed about one week."

Elks Now Own Maple Lawn

Maple Lawn, the Louise Boyd estate on San Rafael's Mission Avenue, became the property of San Rafael Elks Lodge yesterday, reported Roy Farrington Jones, who handled negotiations for the lodge.

The landmark mansion is to become the Elks' new home. The former Elks Club at Fifth Avenue and B Street, still in use by the lodge, has been sold to Bank of Marin.

Memorial Mass Said For Mrs. Cassini

NEW YORK (UPI)—A memorial mass was said today for Mrs. Charlene Wrightsman Cassini, whose death from sleeping pills took from the social set of one of its richest and most beautiful young hostesses.

Mrs. Cassini, 38, died yesterday at Lenox Hill Hospital nine hours after she swallowed 30 barbiturate sleeping pills, apparently in a fit of depression.

State Sells Two Blocks Of Bonds

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California sold two 50-million-dollar blocks of state bonds today at respective interest rates of 2.93 and 2.95 per cent.

Ford Motors Names New President

DETROIT (UPI)—Arjay R. Miller, a member of the "whiz kid" management team once headed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, today was named president of Ford Motor Co.

He succeeds John Dykstra who is retiring.

Miller

Miller came to Ford in 1946 along with nine other young Air Force veterans. McNamara, the No. 1 figure in the group, was named Ford president in 1960 and served only one month before resigning to become secretary of defense.

Dykstra

Dykstra, who will be 65 April 16, will formally step down at the end of the month.

Henry Ford II, board chairman, announced that Charles H. Patterson has been elected to the re-established position of executive vice president. Patterson, who has been with Ford for 36 years, has served as vice president—basic manufacturing group since 1961.

Caracus Police Battle Reds

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI) — Police and troops battled communist gunmen for four hours last night. At least one soldier was killed and nearly 200 persons were arrested.

The crack of rifles and the chatter of machine guns resounded through the city's Red-infested Silencio District from about 8 p.m. until nearly midnight. Several persons were reported wounded.

The shooting started when police broke up a Communist meeting in a 10-story apartment building which proved to be an underground arsenal. Heavily-armed Reds fled to the roof and opened fire on police.

High Court To Decide On Barnett

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court has been asked to decide if Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi is entitled to trial by jury in the criminal contempt proceedings stemming from his efforts to block the enrollment of a Negro at the University of Mississippi.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals deadlocked 4-4 over the issue yesterday and asked the Supreme Court to decide if the 64-year-old governor could be tried by jury as he had asked.

Africa Bomb Charge

Concert Pianist Dies

LONDON (UPI)—Concert pianist Benno Moiseiwitsch, 73 who traced his musical tutelage directly back to Beethoven, died yesterday. He had suffered a stroke a month ago.

Moiseiwitsch studied under Theodor Lescheitzky, who in turn was tutored by Carl Czerny, Beethoven's principal pupil. He once said this fact "makes me a true grandpupil of Beethoven."

Fight In Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—Lebanon's parliament was suspended abruptly last night following a fist-fight and a dramatic incident when government deputy Naif Masri drew a revolver and threatened to shoot opposition deputy Shafik Murtada.

Steel Price Hikes

WHEELING, W.Va. (AP)—The Wheeling Steel Corp. has announced price increases for several of its products effective today—the first anniversary of the steel price hike that led to a clash between some top leaders of the industry and an angry President John F. Kennedy.

Wheeling Steel, the 11th largest steel producer in the nation, announced yesterday it was raising prices on steel plates and other items.

Refugees Vow Fight

MIAMI (UPI)—The Cuban (refugee) Revolutionary Council early today rejected the resignation of its president, Jose Miro Cardona, and vowed it will continue to fight Fidel Castro's regime whether the U.S. government likes it or not.

In a resolution adopted at the end of an all-night session, the council announced its whole-hearted support for Miro's criticism of U.S. Cuban policies which it said had created a "state of crisis."

Oakland Coliseum

OAKLAND (UPI)—The Alameda County Board of Supervisors yesterday approved the proposed 25-million-dollar Oakland coliseum, but with three reservations:

An independent appraisal must be made as to whether or not the tenancy value of the coliseum would be worth 1.5 million dollars annually to the city and county.

Alameda County Administrator Earl Stratham must recommend favorably on the financial feasibility of the project.

The private corporation's board of directors must include three elected officials from cities in the county other than Oakland.

Pope Appeals For Peace, Strong U.N.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII appealed today for an end to the arms race and for the United Nations to be given the structure and means to safeguard world peace.

In an encyclical titled "Paccem in Terris" (Peace on Earth), the pontiff called for reduction of arms stockpiles, a ban on nuclear weapons and a general agreement eventually on "progressive disarmament and an effective method of control."

The Pope warned that the "conflagration" of war "may be set off by some uncontrollable and unexpected chance."

He added:

"Even though the monstrous power of modern weapons acts as a deterrent, it is to be feared that the mere continuance of nuclear tests, undertaken with war in mind, will have fatal consequences for life on the earth."

The Pope called for the deterrent of arms equality to be replaced by universal acceptance of the fundamental principle "that the true and solid peace of nations consists not in equality of arms but in mutual trust alone."

Writing as the "vicar on earth of Jesus Christ" and as "interpreter of the very profound longing of the entire human family," the pontiff beseeched "especially those who have the responsibility of public affairs to spare no labor in order to insure that world events follow a reasonable and human course."

Pope John indicated he hoped the United Nations eventually might become a strong world authority. But he did not specifically mention what peace-keeping means it should have at its disposal, such as a police force.

He said:

"A public autority having worldwide power and endowed with the proper means for the efficacious pursuit of its objective, which is the universal common good in concrete form, must be set up by common accord and not imposed by force."

But the pontiff said nations were "right in not easily yielding in obedience to an authority imposed by force, or to an authority in whose creation they had no part, or to which they themselves did not decide to submit by conscious and free choice."

Pope John said a supra-national world authority must be considered because national leaders in the modern world are "on a footing of equality" and are "no longer capable of facing the task of finding an adequate solution to the problems.

"It is our earnest wish," the Pope continued, "that the United Nations—in its structure and in its means—may become ever more equal to the magnitude and nobility of its tasks, and that the day may come when every human being will find therein an effective safeguard for the rights which derive directly from his dignity as a person, and which are therefore universal, inviolable and inalienable rights.

"This is all the more to be hoped for since all human beings, that take an ever more active part in the public life of their own political communities, are showing an increasing interest in the affairs of all peoples, and are becoming more consciously aware that they are living members of a world community."

The 15,000-word encyclical, or papal circular letter, was the first of the 300 encyclicals issued since 1740 to be devoted exclusively to a systematic anaysis of peace in all its aspects — political, social, theoretical, theological and practical.

It also was the first papal encyclical specifically addressed to non-Catholics as well as Catholics.

Pope John touched on a broad range of current problems, appealing for religious peace, social peace, economic peace and political peace.

"Every human being has the right to honor God according to the dictates of an upright conscience and therefore the right to worship God privately and publicly," he wrote.

"Human beings have the natural right to free initiative in the economic field, and the right to work," he added. This right, he said, includes the right to proper working conditions and to private property.

Politically, he said, "human being have the right to give the societies of which they are members the form they consider most suitable for the aim they have in view."

He condemned colonialism and racism in these terms:

"Men all over the world have today — or will soon have—the rank of citizens in independent nations. No one wants to feel subject to political powers located outside his own country or ethnical group.

"Thus in very many human being the inferiority complex which endured for hundreds and thousands of years is disappearing while in others there is an attenuation and gradual fading of the corresponding superiority complex which had its roots in social-economic privileges, sex or political standing.

"On the contrary, the conviction that all men are equal by reason of their natural dignity has been generally accepted.

"Hence racial discrimination can no longer be justified, at least doctrinally or in theory.

Touching on disarmament, the Pope said:

"It is with deep sorrow that we note the enormous stocks of armaments that have been and still are being made in more economically developed countries, with a vast outlay of intellectual and economic resources.

"And so it happens that, while the people of these countries are loaded with heavy burdens, other countries as a result are deprived of the collaboration they need in order to make economic and social progress.

DRIVER DIES AS TRUCK, BUS COLLIDE

One man was killed and 19 persons were injured when a mail truck collided with this school bus yesterday. The bus was carrying the Adrian, Mich., track team from Monroe, Mich., after completing a meet. The truck driver was killed. Officers said the truck swerved into the path of the bus on a two-lane highway 11 miles west of Monroe but could give no reason for the accident. The truck was broken in half. (AP Wirephoto)

Russia Is Cool To 'Hot Line' Progress Report To Thant

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet Union today vetoed inclusion of the proposed "hot line" communications link in a disarmament conference spring progress report to United Nations Secretary General Thant.

Soviet negotiator Semyon K. Tsarapkin said the conference's report to Thant should avoid mention of a direct link between the two governments until the Soviet Union and the United States can agree on its operation.

This, he said, must be after secret bilateral negotiations proposed by the United States yesterday on implementation of the agreement.

The Soviets agreed in principle Friday to this U.S. proposal to reduce the risk of nuclear war by accident.

The Soviet acceptance of the U.S. proposal was the first positive result achieved here since the 17-nation disarmament conference opened March 14, 1962.

It came as a complete surprise to most delegates, following on weeks of Soviet stalling on the nuclear test ban treaty issue.

Some delegates were reported to have expressed fears that Tsarapkin's reluctance to include the agreement in the current report meant the Soviets may now intend to back down on it.

The U.S. delegation seemed unwilling to push the matter too far. U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle said the United States would not insist on the hot line's inclusion against the wishes of the Soviet delegation.

India raised the issue today when its ambassador, Arthur Lall, rose at the final plenary session to ask the conference to include the agreement in a report scheduled to be sent to the United Nations New York headquarters tonight.

Tsarapkin immediately squashed the suggestion. Stelle, presiding over the meeting, said he agreed the Soviets could have the last word on the agreement.

Earlier, informed sources said Britain has told the United States and Russia it reserves the right for a future hook-up to the "hot line" between Washington and Moscow should it come about.

Present will be planning and recreation commissioners and planning consultants Daniel P. Coleman and William Spangle, who are drawing up the general plan, reported City Planner James R. Garrett.

SEATO ALLIES VOW PUSH AGAINST REDS

PARIS (UPI) — The United States and its South East Asia Treaty Organization allies pledged themselves today to continue fighting Communist subversion throughout the vitally strategic area.

In a communique winding up a three-day SEATO council session, they reiterated their support for a "neutral and independent Laos under a government of national union."

They noted that the government of embattled South Viet Nam has succeeded in checking the Communist Viet Cong rebellion.

They voiced the hope that Viet Nam will progress further towards "international stability and international security."

Named Pote Sarasin of Thailand to continue as SEATO secretary-general for another two years.

Named Manila as the site of the council session in 1964, the 10th anniversary of the signing of the SEATO pact in that city.

The council, the closing communique said, "reaffirm[ed] the main aim of the Manila Pact is to insure the peaceful development, economic stability and national independence of the countries within the area."

"The council expressed concern over the continuing and widening threats to the security of such countries, while reaffirming their determination to maintain vigilance," it said.

House Collapses

CAIRO, UAR (UPI) — Seven persons were killed today when a three-story house collapsed in the Darb Elahmar district of Cairo, police reported.

San Rafael Now Plan Meeting Tonight

A study meeting on the San Rafael General Plan will be held at 7:30 p.m. today in the planning department office in the basement of E Street School.

Present will be planning and recreation commissioners and planning consultants Daniel P. Coleman and William Spangle, who are drawing up the general plan, reported City Planner James R. Garrett.

First San Rafael Cluster Development Approved

San Rafael's first cluster development was approved last night by the city planning commission for Racquet Club Estates, with the proviso that all 48 of the dwelling units shall be individual houses.

The commission also hedged its approval with a string of other conditions, designed to counter protests by numerous Sun Valley residents. At that, several of the throng who turned out for the commission's second hearing were still protesting, indicating they'll be further heard from when the city council holds its hearing on the planned community development.

The motion by Gene F. O'Connor to approve rezoning from a single family dwelling to planned community provided that:

(1) None of the homes have common walls which would make them actually duplexes (plans shown last night called for two such buildings); (2) complete plans must be presented for landscaping open areas, and bond posted to guarantee the landscaping; (3) access and drainage requirements be met; (4) open area use be guaranteed by deed restrictions; (5) all utilities to be underground.

Approval on this basis was unanimous.

Kaehler-Farrar Co., the developers, plan to finance and sell the 48 units as a condominium. The land remains as a single parcel.

EASTER TIME IS NEAR

Children at the Westgate Elementary School of St. Petersburg, Fla., witnessed the birth of a baby chicken recently after 36 eggs that were given to the school by the National Science Foundation were placed in an incubator. If the parents agree, the children will be able to take the chicks home this week, just in time for Easter. (AP Wirephoto)

In Jail For Wife Beating

A family fight in a Novato trailer court last night put a San Rafael man in the Marin County Jail charged with felony wife beating.

Paul Albert Mattox, 53, of 1364 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, was jailed on $1,916.25 bail, charged with felony wife beating, two counts of assault, two counts of battery, disturbing the peace, and being a drunk in public.

The trouble started, said Novato police about 5 p.m. when Mattox went to the trailer of Johnnie O. Howe, 33, of 7060 Redwood Highway to see his sons, James Joseph, 2, and Rex Albert, 3. They were at the trailer with their mother, Rebecca Mattox, 20, who lives in another trailer on the same lot.

Refused permission to see his sons, Mattox entered the trailer and beat his wife about the face, police reported. She called for help. Mrs. Howe tried to stop the ruckus. She told police Mattox threw her out of the trailer.

Both women called for help.

Howe, who was in the bathroom, heard the calls, rushed out and threw Mattox out of the trailer. Both men struggled on the pavement, according to police. Howe finally pinned Mattox's arms.

Mrs. Mattox was bruised on both arms, got two black eyes and a bloody nose, according to police. Howe was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a broken right foot.

While police were looking for Mattox, he showed up at the Novato Police Station to enlist aid in seeing his sons. The officer arrested him there.

Mill Valley Man Hurt As Auto Flips Over

A Mill Valley man was injured when his small German car driven by his daughter flipped on a Tiburon boulevard curve last night, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Herold Doerschler, 41, of 36 Longfellow Road, was to see his own doctor after suffering leg bruises and chest pains when the car, driven by his daughter, Erica, 16, rolled over about 7:15 p.m. near Trestle Glen Drive, reported officer Frank Webb.

Bus Riders Protest Marin City Shut-Down

A petition bearing 1,000 signatures of Marin bus riders, incensed over abolition of the Greyhound station at Marin City, was submitted to county supervisors by Supervisor Peter Behr yesterday.

Behr said many of the signers were from Mill Valley and the Tiburon Peninsula.

The Marin County Housing Authority had given 10-days notice to Greyhound, Behr said, of termination of an agreement covering the station and the plan is to raze the building and substitute a small shelter close to Highway 101.

"That in my judgment will be completely inadequate," said Behr, "as Marin City is a major transfer point often involving a need for patrons to wait at night.

"I believe that the housing authority has a responsibility not only to the residents of Marin but perhaps to the county itself in this matter."

At Behr's urging, the board voted to ask "at least a week's leeway," and put the matter on next Tuesday's agenda, with a request that housing authority representatives appear then.

Bert Klahn, Marin County Redevelopment Agency executive director, said today the 10-day notice was given only after Greyhound announced it was closing down its ticket selling operation.

The agency discussed the matter April 1, and decided it could do nothing about it other than to provide a shelter for bus patrons on Donohue Avenue. Bus passengers now load on Donohue Avenue, Klahn said, which has been completely lighted by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

The ticket agency will be open through April 15, Mamie Rae Judson's depot cafe will remain open through April 30, and the building in which the two are housed is to be torn down beginning May 1. Thereafter, all bus tickets will be sold on the bus.

Klahn commented the shutdown has been public knowledge for one month and has been discussed at three public meetings of the redevlopment agency and housing authority.

Planners Say No Cover On Cascade Bridge

Mill Valley planning commissioners last night recommended to the city council that "if there is to be a bridge" on upper Cascade Drive, it have no cover and be subjected to esthetic requirements as suggested by the Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee.

The commission feels that the G. C. Kott bridge, now half-completed, should be as unobtrusive as possible and "the less construction the better," according to Jean McLean, planning aide.

The commission also said it could not pass on plan review for a Signal Oil Co. service station to be built on Miller Avenue near La Goma Avenue without first reviewing circulation plans relating to the entire Shapiro-Egger commercial development.

Girl To Keep Off Streets

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Mrs. Marion L. L. Short says she plans to teach her 13-year-old daughter, Julie, how to pilot a helicopter before she learns to drive a car.

"I want to keep her off the highways," explained Mrs. Short.

Tachometers Stolen From Two Autos

Tachometers were stolen from two cars in the same area last night, it was reported to San Rafael police.

The owners, Frank Gallardo of 10 Treanor Street and Joseph H. Bordessa of 110 Antonette Avenue, both said their parked cars were broken into and the tachometers snapped off the steering columns. The instruments were valued at about $35 each.

Contract Awarded For County Cars

Larry Brink Motors of Mill Valley was awarded a contract by county supervisors today to provide 10 compact sedans at an overall price of $16,215.80, including trade-ins and tax.

His offer on Rambler Americans worked out as lowest of six bidders both on complete cost and cost per vehicle, which he quoted at $1,777.

James L. Walker, also of Mill Valley, won a contract to provide four four-door sedans with police kits. His overall price of $5,145.85 was lowest of three bidders and his price for each Plymouth was $2,054.29. These cars are for the sheriff's office.

Meeting Postponed

STOCKS TODAY

A New Man For Ward 12?

"Where am I?" he asked as he walked into a strange building.

"It gives you a funny feeling when someone walks in out of the fog and asks where he is," said Mrs. Loretta Grossman, psychiatric technician of Porterville State (mental) Hospital's Ward 12.

"It's even funnier when he tells you he has a plane outside."

will select the delegation," he said.

He said he'll be assisted by Senate Majority Leader Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno); Unruh; the party's state chairman, Eugene L. Wyman of Los Angeles, and the two national committee members.

The governor formed what he termed a representative delegation to the 1960 Democratic convention, nominally pledged to him. Although he came out for Kennedy, he was unable to swing the entire group with him.

Turning to state business, the governor had this to say:

Braceros—He favors a two-year extension of the bracero program and then ending the importation of Mexican farm workers. If it shuts down this year, he said, it will throw a lot of cannery workers out of jobs.

Savings—Brown said a sustained campaign to move mountains of unused files out of state offices has produced savings of $813,300. He said useless records have been destroyed and inactive files shifted from offices to warehouses.

Death Penalty—He expressed satisfaction that an Assembly committee approved his bill to declare a four-year moratorium on capital punishment. He said he's hopeful it will get through the Assembly but that it faces an uphill fight in the Senate.

Chile—The governor said California stands ready to follow up the work of a study team it recently sent to Chile and offer whatever help it can to assist that country. He said Kennedy was very interested in this program.

RABIES

be known by Friday afternoon.

If it had rabies, the health department will try at once to find the owner, Dr. Albrecht said. "We believe he was the only one who was with the dog after the incident with the fox," she said.

Novato policemen spotted the most recent in a series of rabid skunks in the Memorial Gardens Cemetery and called the humane society. Brain tissue tests showed it had rabies, Dr. Albrecht said.

Bat Is Getting Check For Rabies

Mrs. Lyle Cummings of 21 Bigelow Avenue, Mill Valley was told by police yesterday to pen up her cat until it was determined whether the bat the cat brought home yesterday was rabid.

Tests are being made on the bat by the Marin Counyt Health Department.

Novato Teen Girl Runs Away From Home

Sharon Downs, 15, of 1574 South Novato Boulevard, has run away from home, her stepfather, Robert Brisebois, reported today to Novato police.

When last seen about 5 p.m. yesterday, she was wearing black capri pants, white blouse and a gray sweater. She is described as five feet four inches tall, weighing 102 pounds, of slender build with red hair and blue eyes.

OBITUARIES

Joaquin Morales Dies At 64

He had been a helper for the store department of Northwestern Pacific Railroad in Tiburon 15 years. He was laid off work following the San Rafael tunnel fire July 20, 1961.

An autopsy was performed today, according to Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley, and research will be made by a pathologist and toxologist to determine cause of death.

Bradley reported Morales had not been feeling well for two or three days but did not want to go to a doctor. He went to a Tiburon bar last night and had a drink with a friend, Eugene Burke of 681 Hawthorne Drive, Tiburon. Burke drove Morales home. Morales collapsed on his knees and fell forward after he got out of the car in front of his home.

Dr. Donovan O. Cooke of Belvedere was called and pronounced Morales dead at 1:10 a.m.

Morales was born in Mexico. He was divorced and lived alone. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks.

Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Antonio Galvan and Mrs. Marian Morrow of San Francisco; two sons, George Morales of South San Francisco and Rudolph Morales, with the U.S. Air Force in the Azores.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

PATRICK LINDLEY

He was born in Nebraska on St. Patrick's Day, Marcn 17, 1917, from which he received his name Patrick. His birthdays were always a day of big celebration at the bar where he worked. He was also a well known horseman.

He had worked at the Village Inn and for four years had owned his own bar in Novato.

He was a member of Bartenders and Culinary Workers Union Local 126; Ancient United Order of Druids, Novato Grove, and a charter member of the Novato Lodge of Loyal Order of Moose.

He is survived by his wife, June, at the family home in Petaluma; a son, George of San Francisco; a step-son, Michael Tauscher, and stepdaughter, Sherry Tauscher of Petaluma; two sisters, Mrs. Faye Parrmenter of San Francisco and Mrs. Opan Cook of Palo Alto; two brothers, Roy and Ben Lindley of Nebraska, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Burial will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

GUS STENZEL

Funeral services for Gus Stenzel, 76, ranch foreman and former trucker, will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato. Burial will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

Stenzel died Monday night of a heart attack suffered at his home at 45 Ignacio Lane. He was dead on arrival at Novato Hospital.

He was born in Germany on Oct. 10, 1886. He had lived in the United States for the past 30 years. He operated his own trucking firm until he retired 20 years ago. Since that time he has worked as a mechanic and ranch foreman for the Smith Brothers Ranch in Las Gallinas.

He is survived by a niece, Mrs. Frieda Wurche, with whom he made his home; a sister, Mrs. Pauline Gundke of Germany, and a brother, Karl Stenzel of Germany.

ALBERT MURPHY

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Albert Stanwood Murphy, millionaire executive of a large Northern California lumber empire, died in his home last night after a brief illness.

Murphy, 70, was chairman of the board of directors of the Pacific Lumber Co., with extensive mills in Humboldt County.

His family long had an interest in the company which today assets estimated at more than 40 million dollars, including mills and timber lands.

Murphy's family had been in logging since 1833. Murphy himself started with the company as a logger at the age of 18 and worked in every part of the lumber operation before moving up to an executive position.

Murphy was prominent in San Francisco society, he belonged to the Pacific Union Club, the Bohemian Club and the Burlingame Country Club.

In addition to a son and three grandchildren, he is survived by his wife.

Private funeral services are scheduled for tomorrow.

BEULAH FISHER

A private memorial service for Beulah Fisher, 77, of 931 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, will be held at the San Rafael Methodist Church on Saturday.

Mrs. Fisher, a retired school teacher, had lived in San Anselmo the past year. She died last Wednesday in a local hospital after long illness.

She was born in Nebraska and spent most of her life in the Pacific Northwest. She began teaching in the Willamette Valley in Oregon and later taught at St. Helens High School, near Portland, and Oregon State College in Corvallis. She moved to San Francisco in 1936 and later to Marin.

CARL DUNSTER

Funeral services for Carl Bennet Dunster, 84, of Cotati, a former Marin resident, were held yesterday in Petaluma.

A retired mining engineer, Dunster had been an invalid for five years. He died Sunday in a Petaluma hospital.

Dunster was born and educated in Michigan, but spent many years in California.

Foreign Language Plan Approved

By LOREN MACARTHUR

A foreign language program that will be taught to every sixth, seventh and eighth grade student in the San Rafael schools beginning this fall was approved last night by the San Rafael Board of Education.

All students will hear and speak either French or Spanish 20 minutes daily, Dr. Mildred B. Barnard, assistant superintendent for elementary schools, told the board.

"They will learn to speak and understand the language. They will not learn to read and write it until later," she said.

"We have decided that time given to a sporadic study of a foreign language in the lower grades should be stopped," she said. Schools which cannot offer continuous language instruction through all the grades will stop their language program until more teachers are trained in foreign languages, she added.

Dr. Barnard said only two fulltime language teachers of junior high school level must be hired to begin the program in the fall.

"Forty teachers in the elementary district have taken a night language course offered by the district this semester and last," she said. "They all found it difficult in the beginning. Now they're ready to teach in the fall. A number of them want more advanced instruction."

Dr. Barnard said KQED's television language program would be used where necessary to supplement the program, but "our students are fast outgrowing the program."

Tracing the development of the foreign language program in the district, she noted it was begun in 1960, a year before the state legislature passed a law requiring that foreign language teaching begin in grades six, seven and eight by July 1, 1965.

By September, 1962, she said, foreign language was offered in some 33 classes in sixth grade and below and at both junior high schools.

Long-range plans, she said, include teaching foreign language to all fifth grade pupils beginning in September, 1964, to all fourth graders a year later, and to lower classes as soon as teachers are available.

"We have yet to find," she concluded, "a student who is unable to learn a foreign language."

Army Breaking Up Engineer Company

The Army is breaking up Marin's 561st Engineer Company at Fort Baker to make room for "new units of types considered more essential" in the concept of modern warfare, it was announced today.

Some 230 officers and men of the World War II-born port construction unit, many of whom live in Marin communities, will be reassigned at the Presidio of San Francisco and throughout the Army, wherever their skills can be used, Sixth Army headquarters said. The deactivation order was handed down from the Department of the Army.

The 561st, only unit of its kind in the West, has been at Fort Baker since March, 1955.

The unit would have been 21 years old on June 15. It was first activated on that date in 1942 at Camp Edwards, Mass. The port builders served in Scotland, Morocco and Italy; they were in the Omaha Beach landing at Normandy. They also served in southern France, Luzon and Alaska, and later the unit took part in the Korean conflict.

Novato May Need 17 Schools

An ultimate need of 16 or 17 elementary schools in Novato Unified School District was forecast last night by Supt. James N. Bunker to the district board.

The district now has five elementary schools.

"The district will need at least two more elementary schools by September, 1964," Bunker said. He indicated these would probably be adjacent to the high school site and the Sanchez site on Sutro Avenue.

"If the Bahia Development goes ahead on schedule, we might need one school there also," he said.

Hill Junior High School will also need to be enlarged by the fall term in 1964, he told the board.

The board approved an application for $5,800 in National Defense Education Act fund for improvements of foreign language and science programs.

The district is working with the Parent-Teacher Assn. and the Novato Police Department in organizing school crossing patrols, Bunker told the board. The district hopes to get city council approval of having a police officer instruct the children for patrol duty, he said.

The Novato School District board also:

1. Heard from Bunker that all new salary schedules adopted elsewhere in California exceed Novato's. This might force salaries up in the Novato district, he said.

2. Hired Ora Sanovich as part-time bus driver at $2 an hour.

3. 38 In Marin Receive State Scholarships

Award of California state scholarships to 38 Marin students was announced today by the State Scholarship Commission in Sacramento.

The Marin winners are among 1,700 throughout California, selected from some 16,000 applicants. The state-financed scholarships pay up to $900 for tuition and fees at the college or university of the winner's choice. They are renewable annually if the students retain academic and financial eligibility.

Among the 38 Marin winners were two who elected under the commission's new "reserve scholarship" program to hold the scholarship awards in reserve until they complete junior college, then using them to help complete their education.

Ten of the Marin winners attend Marin Catholic High School. Nine attend Sir Francis Drake High; six, Redwood High; four, Terra Linda High; three, Novato High; two, San Rafael High, and one each, Tamalpais High, Dominican Upper School, University of San Francisco, and College of Marin.

Corte Madera — Donna P. Logan of 459 Montecito Drive, Redwood High School.

Larkspur — John N. Faville, 391 Elm Avenue, Marin Catholic High School; Stacy K. Moore, 120 Tulane Drive, and James W. Muzzy, 50 Marina Vista, Redwood High.

Mill Valley — Carole A. Bennett, 242 Flamingo Road, Tamalpais High School; John J. Hassett, 5 Manor Terrace; Donald M. Hemovich, 12 Strawberry Circle, and Sheila M. Quinn, 102 Dela Casa Drive, Marin Catholic.

San Anselmo and Sleepy Hollow—William M. Gavre, 54 Ross Avenue, and Janet E. Scott, 246 San Francisco Boulevard, Drake High (junior college reserve scholarships); Bertil S. Beander, 137 Suffield Avenue; Victoria D. Brown, 101 Hilldale Drive; Peter J. Carlson, 181 Floribel Avenue; Janis L. Goldbaum, 131 Morningside Drive; Stephen R. Kinkade, 30 Van Tassel Court, and Linden B. Press, 8 Brookside Court, Drake High; Durwood R. Dalka, 42 Mariposa Avenue, University of San Francisco; Donna M. Storrs, 15 Timothy Avenue, Marin Catholic.

San Quentin — Jerry S. Smith, Box 205, College of Marin.

Permit To Expand Nursing Home In Larkspur Denied By Planners

A use permit to expand a nursing home at 234 Hawthorne Avenue was denied William Slocum by the Larkspur Planning Commission at a crowded hearing in city hall last night on grounds that it "would change the character of the neighborhood."

The present structure houses 11 patients. The proposed expansion would accommodate 15 more. Residents protested the paving of Hawthorne is narrow and parking and traffic already constitute a hazard.

The Arkites Assn., representing Boardwalk 1 residents, was granted a variance for parking cars on land near their homes, whether on rented property or property of the city.

The variance was sought by residents to cooperate with the city to end parking of about 50 cars on Doherty Drive. Many residents attended the hearing.

At the association's request, City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper has been directed by the council to seek Larkspur School District board approval for a road and parking lot on the edge of Henry C. Hall School grounds.

George Bertram was granted architectural supervision for a warehouse of steel construction on land adjoining the Redwood Empire Lumber and Supply Co. east of Highway 101.

The commission set for 8 p.m. April 23 public hearing on its proposal to rezone a strip of land about 100 feet deep and 1,200 feet long on the east side of Magnolia Avenue from residential to commercial. The strip runs from Hillview Gardens to College Park Avenue. Numerous commercial establishments already have been built in the vicinity after granting of use permits.

Commissioners did not resume discussion of the proposed new subdivision ordinance because Commissioner Earl J. O'Grady was absent.

50 Milers Fail To Make Round Trip

None of 25 Neil Cummins School children who started a 50-mile hike at dawn yesterday got back to the school in Corte Madera to complete the trek.

But the mother of one of them believes her son walked at least 50 miles anyhow, in 17 hours.

Jim Johnson, 15, eighth grader of 17 El Camino Drive, apparently came closest of the 22 boys and three girls to do the 50-miler that became popular after being espoused by President John F. Kennedy. He made it to Point Reyes Station and back to Larkspur before he gave up and telephoned his mother at 10 p.m. to "come and get me."

But, said the mother, Mrs. Dorothy Lauchner, "Jim got confused on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard coming back and walked into Greenbrae, then doubled back to downtown Larkspur, so we figure he hiked about 52 miles."

Fellow pupil Paul Samuelsen, with young Johnson, tired out near the San Anselmo limits. Other parents picked up their hiking youngsters at various points along the route.

Seeks Clear-Cut Property Division

Diane Marie Conlin of 11 Garden Court, Novato, who filed for divorce against Deputy Sheriff Martin Joseph Conlin yesterday, seeks a clear-cut division of community property.

She says he can keep three sheets, six towels, two pillow cases, a 1961 convertible, and his life insurance policy.

She wants $5 per month alimony and suggests that he give up the rest of the community property including:

Blue chips and green stamps, large cutting board for kitchen use, large clothes basket, and a first aid book that was her separate property and is now in his custody.

He's Bothered Out Of Jail Cell

PALMETTO, Fla. (AP)—A Palmetto jail prisoner decided freedom wasn't all it is cracked up to be.

Matthew L. Dunbar and two companions — all serving 100-day sentences on traffic charges—used a rock to laboriously chip away the mortar between concrete blocks in the wall of the jail. Finally, they were able to push out several of the blocks and flee through the hole.

Dunbar returned to jail the next night, however. He had insomnia, he said.

"I couldn't sleep knowing they were looking for me," said Dunbar.

Burglar Gets $700 Haul From Tam Valley Home

The victim is Klaus Baumann, a Greyhound bus driver who lives at 311 Robin Road. Baumann told Deputy Johnsen he left home about 7:45 last night to visit friends in San Francisco. When he returned about 10:30, his 16 millimeter movie camera worth $450 was gone. Also missing are a leather jacket worth $180 and a $64 camera lens.

Theft From Boat

The carburetor, distributor and flame arrester were stolen from his 25-foot inboard boat recently at the Marin boat house, 345 Francisco Boulevard, owner Charles A. Fillingame of 11 Briarwood Drive reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Cows Can Rest And Stay Clean

EUREKA (AP) — "Loafing barns" for cows?

The stalls, 45 inches by seven and one-half feet, are just large enough for a cow to lie down but not to turn around.

The brothers said the stalls keep the cows cleaner for milking.

Spare Tire Stolen

Personality Of Slain Skier Is Probed By Investigators

RENO (AP) — Investigators probed further today the personality of Sonja McCaskie, 24, former Olympic skier, for a key to her mysterious decapitation and dismemberment.

Dist. Atty. Wililam J. Raggio said he planned to consult a psychiatrist about the possible meaning of diary entries and morbid free verse she had written.

Police said they still had no real suspect.

A pathology report, scheduled to be made late today, was expected to help pinpoint the cause of death and the time—now believed to have been between 10:30 p.m. Thursday and 7 a.m. Friday.

Sonja's mutilated body was discovered Friday night by an officer asked by Miss McCaskie's babysitter to check on the girl, who had failed to visit her 10-month-old son Kim.

Raggio denied he had said Miss McCaskie's diary indicated she had been intimate with scores of men. But unofficial reports persisted that she had close relations with a number of male friends, of some of whom she was not too proud.

Raggio and Police Chief Elmer A. Briscoe said the diary and verse, which dealt largely with death and love, indicated a complex personality.

But a close friend, Mrs. Beverly Erickstad of Reno, contended Miss McCaskie was a normal person with normal problems, although moody.

Miss McCaskie had brought a paternity suit against David C. Conrad, 24, University of Nevada graduate assistant in English. Conrad denied he was the father of Kim, born at Palo Alto June 11, 1962.

Court records indicated Conrad wrote to Miss McCaskie after he was married and after Kim was born.

Miss McCaskie has sought medical expenses and "reasonable" child support.

Conrad contended in one letter that Miss McCaskie was "consorting with another individual" at the time the child would have been conceived.

Conrad was questioned last weekend and volunteered for a lie detector test. Briscoe said he was cleared of any connection with the slaying.

Raggio said Miss McCaskie had a wide circle of friends and denied her apparently disturbed personality was necessarily abnormal sexually.

Youngsters Learn Use Of Weapons

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Another 25,000 California youngsters were taught the fundamentals of safe gun handling in 1962, the State Department of Fish and Game reported.

That brought the total trained to 254,149 youths since the program started in 1954.

All under 15 must take the course before they can apply for their first California hunting license.

Reed Teachers Elect

James Mumma, sixth grade teacher at Bel Aire School, has been elected president of the Reed District Teachers Assn. He succeeds Joan Hamren. Other officers will be Seymour Feldman, vice president; Elizabeth de Carli, treasurer, and Patricia Pierovich, secretary.

Death Bill Showdown Is Likely

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Proponents ignored Senate warnings and said today they'll press for an early Assembly showdown on Gov. Edmund G. Brown's plea to suspend the death penalty in California for a four-year trial.

The moratorium bill sponsored by the governor came through its first test yesterday with the help of a vote by a former prosecutor. It was approved by the Assembly Committee on Crminal Procedure, 6-4.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan, (D-Los Angeles) author of the bill, announced he will take it up in the lower house "within a week."

"I don't want to predict the vote," he said, "but I think I can get it out. As for the Senate, I am not making any predictions but I have great hopes."

"I don't think anti-capital punishment measures have any chance in the Senate this year," Burns said.

Birth Control Plan Backing Is Urged

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Alvin C. Weingand (D-Santa Barbara) asked the legislature today to endorse a state-administered birth control program to remove the "cloud of fear" hovering over family planning agencies.

The Protestant lawmaker introduced a controversial resolution urging that the legislature support in principle his proposal to provide birth control services to poverty-stricken recipients.

The resolution asked that such services "should be readily available" and under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Public Health in co-operation with local health agencies.

Senate majority leader Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) gave the measure a 50-50 chance for passage because it's in the form of a resolution rather than a bill.

"This wouldn't require the state by statute to enter into this area. It's permissive legislation," Burns said.

Burns, however, reiterated his opposition to the idea as did other senators who spoke for the record nearly a month ago when Weingand first raised the touchy subject.

Weingand said he would welcome an interim study but only as a second step in the event the resolution fails to gain support.

The senator said in a statement that local public health programs now are giving out birth control information and issuing contraceptives.

McCarthy Hits Brown On Schools

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Sen. John McCarthy, (R-San Rafael) has branded statements made by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to a national school group as "a cover up of the governor's record in education and a distortion of his opponents' views."

McCarthy referred yesterday to statements made by Brown to the National Committee for Support of Public Schools in Washington, D. C. Brown accused Richard M. Nixon, his Republican opponent last November of wanting to limit academic freedom.

McCarthy, Republican caucus chairman, said his party "stood for a belief that the strength and vitality of our educational system lies in the autonomy of the local, diversified school system.

'Quake Proofing' High School To Be $225,000

"Earthquake proofing" the old buildings at San Rafael High School will cost $225,000, which the San Rafael High School District doesn't have, the San Rafael Board of Education learned last night.

Repairing the auditorium, which served as a gymnasium when built in the 1920s, will cost $170,000, San Rafael structural engineer Harold M. Engle told the board. Repairs for the classrooms, which will bring them to state standards, will be $55,000, he said.

Supt. Bert C. Corona told the board that school architects Gromme and Priestly are considering plans to entirely tear down the old classrooms behind the present library and use the space for the new library and 10 classroom addition they have been authorized to design. Funds of $330,000 from a past bond issue are available for the new library and classrooms.

"However," Corona said, "that will leave us eight classrooms short. We had counted on using the old classrooms too. We have no funds for the remodeling job."

Engle told the board the old buildings "have good bones but need new joints. The original poured concrete in the walls is still good," he said, "but the roofs have no bracing. In an earthquake the ceilings could just peel off. Repairing them is like putting the lid on the box."

Board members agreed that funds for the repairs might come from a future bond issue.

San Anselmo Now Has Legal Possession Of Greyhound Depot

San Anselmo now has legal possession of the Greyhound bus depot at the Hub, City Atty. John G. Buresh reported last night.

At the next meeting of the city council, Administrator Douglas J. Flautt said he hopes to have information on demolition of the bus depot building.

The city has deposited $82,500 with Marin Superior Court as security for the Greyhound property. Negotiations are going on for the price of property, and if this fails, the case will go to trial in June.

The San Anselmo City Council last night:

1. Presented certificates of appreciation to Thomas Pring and Geoffrey Fairfax, who resigned from the San Anselmo Planning Commission. Mayor John M. Reichmuch asked his colleagues to submit names of possible successors.

2. Proclaimed May 1 as Law Day U.S.A. in San Anselmo.

3. Postponed a decision on changing the name of Woodside Court to Woodland Terrace. City fathers had no objection, but postal officials pointed out that Woodland Avenue and Terrace Avenue already exist. A street named "Woodland Terrace" would create confusion, they said.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The gas industry, whose Festival of Gas exhibit was the first to contract for space at the New York 1964-65 World's Fair, reports 80 per cent of all exhibit buildings at the exposition will be air-conditioned by gas.

Pay As You Go Solves Problem

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A suburban housewife, spending $150 a month on long distance telephone calls, broke herself of the habit by having a pay phone installed in her bedroom.

Southern Bell first objected to the idea but gave in when its workers figured out a way to screw the device onto an oak bench.

The customer has to guarantee a minimum "take" of $18 a month but she says that's no problem.

Each evening she makes three or four calls, and she continues to phone long distance. Now, however, she hangs up when the operator notifies her "your three minutes are up."

Coleman School Parents Request More Remedial Reading Teachers

Parents want more remedial reading teachers for Coleman School, the San Rafael Board of Education learned last night.

"Our P-TA would particularly encourage the board to support any item in the budget which would strengthen our reading program and provide as many remedial reading specialists as possible," she wrote the board of the Coleman School Parent-Teacher Assn.

"As you know," said the letter, "the primary purpose of the P-TA is the best possible education for our children. We hold the most vital learning is that of reading. . .

"We therefore urge your thoughtful consideration of programs that will lead to greater reading strength in our children. One facet of this is the remedial reading program."

The letter, signed by P-TA board president Mrs. H. Dieter Schugt, was accepted without comment by the board.

Outboard Motor Stolen From Boat

An outboard motor with gasoline tank and remote controls was stolen from a boat owner by Arthur Thomas Flowers of San Francisco at the Loch Lomond Marina, Flowers reported yesterday to San Rafael police.

Flowers said the 22-horsepower motor and accessories were valued at $150.

Button Problem

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The City of Hope, a charitable organization which operates a hospital, has received a gift of 1.2 million buttons but does not know what to do with them. Directors decided to sponsor a contest titled: "Button, Button, Who Knows What To Do With a Million Buttons?"

LANSDALE ZONING BACK TO PLANNERS

Proposed rezoning of the Lansdale commercial area, at Center Boulevard and San Anselmo Avenue, was referred back to the San Anselmo Planning Commission last night because city councilmen could not agree.

The planning commission recommended that most of the Lansdale area on San Anselmo Avenue between Center and Oak Knoll Avenue be rezoned for apartments and duplexes. Planning Commission Chairman Ronald Hill said the trend in the area is for multiple units. The proposal is to rezone everything to apartments and other residential, except for three pieces of property nearest Center Boulevard.

Hill said almost all property owners are in favor of the rezoning.

However, three property owners submitted a letter opposing apartment zoning. They are Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Tucker and Richard L. Savel, who own three small parcels at the corner of Florence and San Anselmo Avenues.

Mayor John M. Reichmuth and Councilman William Franchini voted to approve the planning commission proposal to rezone for apartments. However, the other three councilmen blocked the rezoning because they want the Tuckers and Savel to retain commercial zoning if they want.

Novato Zoning Plan Again Turned Down

For the second time, a request by Harry Lundblad for rezoning from limited agricultural to multiple dwelling of land across Marion Avenue from the Marion School was turned down by the Novato City Council last night. This time rejection was by two-to-one vote.

Mayor M. E. Silva cast the only vote favoring Lundblad. Councilmen Everett Pozzi and John Angeloni were absent.

"I've watched Novato grow from a small town," Silva said in defense of his vote. "It didn't grow by fighting everyone who wanted to build something. It is getting so that people cannot do anything with their own property any more. It doesn't belong to a person any longer."

Lundblad owns the corner of Seventh Street and Marion Avenue. The opposite side of Seventh Street is zoned multiple.

The first request was opposed by the Hidden Valley Home Owners Assn. It was denied by the planning commission and city council. In January, Lundblad asked for rezoning of another section of the land. This was also denied.

Jack Adams, representing the Hidden Valley Home Owners Assn., again opposed the rezoning on the basis that it would add traffic to Marion Avenue when children were going to school.

The council failed to complete zoning matters on its agenda and adjourned to 8 p.m. today to complete the agenda and hold an executive session on hiring and firing city personnel.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Approved rezoning the rear one-third of lots on the north side of Olive Avenue for single family homes.
2. Approved rezoning from duplex to multiple family, a lot at 1020 Third Street, requested by E. D. McGillicuddy, and one at 1041 Third Street, requested by Inge Bald.
3. Ordered an ordinance prepared that would change three sections of the Loma Verde master plan. The commercial zone near Birdie Drive would be split into single and multiple family zones and the multiple family zone near Highway 101 would be changed to professional and administrative zones.
4. Granted use permit for a plumbing shop at 857 Sweetzer Avenue to Harry W. Locke.
5. Accepted Sunny Acres unit 1, on Cherry Street, as completed.
6. Granted two exceptions to a tentative map of a six-lot Mountain View subdivision on Kendon Lane, to eliminate curbs, sidewalks and gutters and allow paving of only half the 26-foot street width.
7. Approved the final map of Rancho Village unit 7.
8. Approved an agreement with Emil and Lydia Yanke to install a street for a subdivision south of their convalescent home on Tamalpais Avenue. When the use permit for the convalescent home was granted, they were to provide access to Center Road in addition to Tamalpais Avenue. This will now be provided through the proposed subdivision.

Planning Contracts Approved In Novato

Final contracts for a $82,670 federally assisted planning grant were approved last night by the Novato City Council.

Original plans for the Novato-Federal government master plan were for $70,470. However, a large portion of this was for aerial mapping of the city. This was increased by $12,200, making a total of $47,100, to take in all of the North Marin watershed. North Marin Water District, Novato Sanitary District, and the County of Marin, are participating also in cost of the aerial mapping.

Schedule To Be Reworked At Del Mar

Because history and geography would be taught for one semester only in the Del Mar Intermediate School scheduled to open next fall, Reed Union School District trustees last night asked the administration to rework the proposed schedule.

The principal objection to such a plan, whereby the social studies would be taught one semester and science the other semester, came from Mrs. Marilyn C. Steinau, spectator. Mrs. Steinau felt social studies should be taught all year.

MODERN

No objection was voiced to other time allotments which include a full year each of English, mathematics and physical education; literature and Spanish on alternate days and 12 weeks of art, music and home economics for girls and industrial arts for boys.

Robert B. Gaw, Reed School principal, described the new school as "the most modern and complete facility of its kind in Marin County."

The board voted to submit an application to the State Department of Education for construction of the first seven rooms of the Marin Estates-Mariner Highlands Elementary School. The board also approved filing an application for state planning funds, not to exceed $16,500.

JOINS APSS

The trustees accepted an invitation to join the Associated Public Schools Systems at a cost of approximately $350. The APSS is a national educational research organization established by Columbia University to promote research exchange among 350 districts which have been invited to join since its founding in 1948. Supt. Edward C. Pino said the "community should feel honored to receive this invitation."

The following were appointed to a planning committee for the Marin Estates - Mariner Highlands Elementary School: Walter Nagel, chairman; Hugh Cox, Jean Eberle, Euguene Lordon, representing the community; Alyce Farkas, representing trustees; Marian Jones, James Mumma and Pauline Scott, representing the teaching staff; Pino, representing the administration, and J. Martin Rosse, architect. Mrs. Ray Williams will serve as an observer.

No decisions were made at an executive session on hiring which followed the meeting, Pino reported. Another executive session has been scheduled for April 16, at 8 p.m. at the district office, to discuss hiring.

Supervisors Decide To Search For New County Building Inspector

Recruitment for a new building inspector to replace resigned Otto H. Meyer will start at once, county supervisors decided yesterday on recommendation of public works director Donald R. Frost.

Frost reported he had conferred with representatives of the building industry, in accordance with promise at a recent stormy session featured by Meyer's resignation, and that minor revisions of the job description were agreed on.

Industry representatives had recommended a two-range boost from the level of Meyer's pay to obtain a man of the desired qualifications and Frost agreed. He later declared that had Meyer remained, the increase would have been recommended for him.

Frost said there had been discussion for additional inspectors, as well as the proper pay scale for inspectors, but it was agreed that overall recommendation would be deferred to budget time. He said it was indicated there is need for at least one more inspector.

E. Douglas Roberts of the Marin Builders Exchange rose from a group of half a dozen representatives of the construction industry to declare that "we have been pleased by the cooperation shown," whereupon Frost said he was similarly pleased by the industry's attitude.

The board backed his recommendations unanimously.

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Voted support of Senate Bill 41 to permit a 30-year rather than 20-year repayment period of state loans to small craft harbor projects.
2. Ordered county counsel to report next Tuesday on a request by Lloyd Kahn Jr. of Mill Valley that his San Francisco brokerage firm be allowed to bid on the Marin County insurance program.
3. Approved an "ambulance disaster program" presented by Jean Smith, assistance county civil defense director, with appreciation for help of an ambulance subcommittee headed by Thomas Larke Jr.
4. Approved, at request of County Librarian Virginia Keating, a resolution supporting Assembly Bill 590, which would increase state aid to library exchange systems.
5. Granted variance to Mary Rowley for construction of a 12-unit apartment at Shoreline Highway and Maple Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, subject to public works department approval of a closed conduit over Coyote Creek.
6. Adopted a resolution to aid the City of Fairfax in improvement of Bolinas Avenue under the urban thoroughfare agreement.
7. Granted Ross General Hospital a use permit for extension of its offices in front of the structure facing Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.
8. Named May 1 "Law Day" in accordance with request of the Marin County Bar Assn.
9. Approved a joint air-mapping agreement with the City of Novato, Novato Sanitary District, and North Marin County Water District, of which the county's share will be $6,400 already budgeted.
10. Approved name change asked by Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District with approval of the only three householders on Reed Court, to become Bay Vista Court.
11. Awarded a contract for culvert pipe arch to Consolidated Western Steel on its bid of $6,208.60, lowest of five; but rejected two bids on a half-ton walk-in type van for the library because of decision to revise specifications for one-ton.
12. Were advised by the Bay Area Water Pollution Control Board of default in Jan. 30 report due on San Rafael Meadows Sewer Maintenance District, under cease and desist order; asked the Public Works Department to file such report by April 18.

Fusselman Blocks Harold Stockstad Reappointment

Reappointment of Harold Stockstad, chairman of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs, to the Board of the County Redevelopment Authority was blocked by acting Chairman William D. Fusselman at a special supervisors session today.

Chairman Walter R. Castro and Supervisor William A. Gnoss were absent because of illness, so unanimous vote of members present was required for an appointment.

Supervisor Peter Behr casually nominated Stockstad to serve again but Fusselman said it wouldn't happen today.

"I wouldn't vote for that fellow for anything," Fusselman snorted. When Behr registered mild surprise, Fusselman amplified, "I've been watching him longer than you've been on this board."

There was no second and no vote was taken.

One fell off the pier and the other dived in trying futilely to rescue him.

CLUB IS WORKING ON BROWN'S HALL

Architectural recommendations are being obtained and an insurance settlement is expected to be concluded this week in line with plans toward rebuilding of Brown's Hall in Mill Valley, Jo Schlesinger, building superintendent, reported at a meeting last night of the Homestead Valley Improvement Club.

The hall was badly damaged by fire March 14. Many contributions have been made toward a rebuilding fund, Mrs. Schelsinger said. Persons interested in contributing may do so through Brown's Hall Rebuilding Fund, P.O. Box 262, Mill Valley.

Last night's board meeting was at Mrs. Schlesinger's home but the meetings are planned to be held in the future at the Almonte Improvement Clubhouse at Almonte Boulevard and Wisteria Way. The latter club has volnnteered use of its clubhouse by Homestead at no charge.

Kentfield To Vote On Bond Issue

Voters in Kentfield Elementary School District will decide next Tuesday on whether to authorize issuance of $850,000 in bonds to finance nine classrooms, a library, storage facilities, and remodeling and site improvements at the district's three schools.

Kentfield voters have never turned down a finance measure presented by the school district.

The present 1,469 enrollment is expected to hit 1,818 in seven years, according to a house-by-house survey taken last spring by the Marin County Planning Commission and Parent-Teacher Associations of the three Kentfield schools.

Planned to be financed with proceeds of the bonds are a six-classroom wing combined with multi-use facilities at Wolfe Grade School, to be built by 1965, along with remodeling a classroom at Greenbrae School into a library and extending the Wolfe Grade parking lot.

New heating and lighting in the multi-use room and shop at Kent School would be installed in 1967-68. Also projected at Kent are a covered walk across Stadium Way to connect lower grade and seventh and eighth grade classrooms, an instructional materials room, site improvements, and acquisition of additional land.

A new kindergarten at Wolfe Grade, development of the new Kent land, and remodeling of a bus shed into storage facilities at Greenbrae are planned for 1968-69.

Supt. Howard Harmon says the bond issue will not increase the district's tax rate. The reason is that the district is already at its legal bonding limit. New bonds would be sold as assessed value increased, meanwhile older bonds being retired. A state aid formula will mean reduction in payments on state loans to balance any increase in bond interest, according to the superintendent.

Somebody Likes Rep. Udall Aide

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Somebody in Tucson likes Ted Heil.

Heil, secretary to Rep. Morris K. Udall (D-Ariz.) received one write-in vote on the general election ballot to the following offices:

Arizona Supreme Court; Pima County Superior Court, Divisions 1, 2, 4 and 5; U. S. senator; governor; state senator; secretary of state; state representative; county supervisor; county assessor and clerk of the superior court.

Fire Meet Postponed

Because one of its members will be absent, the Novato Fire District board has postponed its meeting from tonight until tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Fire Station 1, said Fire Chief George Cavallero.

Non-com Graduates

Army Sp/4 Thomas E. Wilkin, whose wife, Glenda, lives in Point Reyes Station, was recently graduated from the Seventh Army Non-Commissioned Officer Academy at Bad Tolz, Germany.

Dixie Unit To Review Civil Defense Policies

The Dixie School District board will review civil defense policies at its meeting 8 p.m. today in the district's office.

Also on the agenda is the recommendation of Supt. Dennie B. Willis to apply for $11,500 for a science project and $8,500 for a language project under the National Defense Education Act.

Triple Punch Aids Children With Cancer

An antibiotic, surgery and radiation are destroying all visible signs of this cancer, known as Wilm's tumor of the kidney, in 81 per cent of child victims, said Dr. Sidney Farber of children's hospital, Boston. One boy is alive and well six years later, other children seemingly well for two to five years thus far.

Recounting progress to an American Cancer Society seminar for science writers, Dr. Farber also announced initial success in preserving and using an element in human blood—platelets—to combat hemorrhages which are the main cause of death in children with acute leukemia or blood cancer.

He said banks of platelets may become generally available to help treat acute leukemia and acute anemia, and radiation sickness from X-ray treatment of cancer or exposure to nuclear weapons.

The apparent cure rate of the kidney cancer had recently risen to 40 per cent through surgery and radiation, Dr. Farber said. But 60 per cent of children still died, mainly because the cancer had spread to their lungs.

Now the antibiotic, Actinomycin D, has joined the battle. For the first time, all signs of a solid tumor in children are being eliminated fairly regularly.

Eighty-one per cent of youngsters receiving the combined treatment between 1957 and 1960 are alive and well.

Proposal For Rest Home Is Approved

Remodeling of an old two-story home at 116 Clark Street for use as a rest home was approved last night by the San Rafael Planning Commission, but with a warning that parking provisions must be increased.

The commission, after considerable discussion, granted by 3-to-2 vote a use permit for a five-year period for ambulatory patients only. But commissioners made plain that the fourparking spaces were insufficient, and more would be demanded before architectural approval.

The home is to be operated by Anna Demetroff of Fairfax, who now operates a nursing home in San Francisco. She said she would move her San Francisco patients to the San Rafael home.

Just before hearing the use permit application, the commission to split into two lots the large lot at Clark Street and Bayview Avenue on which the house stands. Chairman Pat Hetherton was somewhat annoyed to find the following application called for only four parking spaces on the resulting corner lot.

"What are you doing with the vacant lot we just created?" he demanded.

Cole Jackman, San Anselmo realty broker who appeared with Mrs. Demetroff, said there are no plans for that lot at present.

"There's enough land there and enough profit in the business you propose to operate," declared Commissioner Gene F. O'Connor. "I think you're asking the planning commission to subsidize your operation."

Planning technician David DuBiel said the building department reported cost of bringing the old house up to standard for rest home use, including one-hour fire-resident walls, would be nearly as much as putting up a new building. O'Connor and Commissioner Orlando Conti voted against the use permit.

There are 15 rooms in the home. Mrs. Demetroff plans for 10 patients.

The San Rafael Planning Commission Also:

1. Put off for two weeks decision on a request by S. Dewey to split a lot on Tamal Vista Drive. The second lot does not front on a street, but Dewey was given the delay to try to arrange to purchase enough property from adjoining Racquet Club Estates for a street extension.

2. Granted James Thornton a six-month extension of a use permit for a construction yard at 14 Woodland Avenue which has no water, and instructed City Planner James R. Garrett to have the city attorney serve demand on the subdividers to complete the water line.

3. Put over indefinitely consideration of the Loch Lomond Master Plan, to allow its revision.

4. Delayed for two weeks architectural review of proposed addition of a third unit to a duplex on Paloma Avenue near Lincoln Avenue to give owner Romeo Biasotti opportunity to work out plans for sufficient parking.

5. Similarly held up architectural review of a proposed four-unit apartment at 423 First Street so E. Rosevear, owner, can add another parking space.

6. Granted architectural approval for a three-unit apartment addition to a residence at 401 Mission Avenue, requested by C. Mueller.

7. Held over for two weeks, at request of applicant Gerald Stone, architectural review of remodeling for office use of a residence at 1353 Lincoln Avenue.

8. Granted Peacock Lagoon Construction Co. use permit and architectural approval for 31 condominium apartment units in seven buildings on Biscayne Drive at Riviera Drive.

9. Granted San Rafael Medical Group a use permit and architectural approval for four additional physicians' offices at 1540 Fifth Avenue.

10. Granted Joseph DiGiorgio permission to split a lot on St. Joseph Court off Convent Court, and O. S. Almlie permission for a 12-lot subdivision in Graceland Park Unit 2, off Coleman Drive.

11. Granted Byron Leydecker permission for a three-lot subdivision between Chula Vista and Fairhills drives, provided he installs a city street to serve all three lots and places utilities underground.

12. Gave Robert McCarthy permission to keep a house trailer for a watchman at Loch Lomond Marina for another six months, despite planning technician DuBiel's warning it is contrary to city ordinance.

13. Renewed a permit for D. H. Hudelson to have six floating boat berths at 19 Third Street.

14. Granted D. M. Christensen six-month extension of an earth removal permit at Professional Center Parkway and Channing Way.

15. Granted Hansell Associates permission to operate a "career service" school in the 1000 Fifth Avenue Building.

16. Set for April 23 and May 14 hearings on D. W. Barnard's request for rezoning of Toyon Estates at the end of Clark Street from single family to duplex residential; and on Kay Jue's request for rezoning of property between Belvedere and Larkspur streets from planned commercial-light industrial to special multiple residential.

17. Set for May 14 and 28 hearings on Dr. Robert Oslar's request for rezoning from single family to duplex residential at 219 Ross Street; on a proposal initiated by the commission to extend such zoning to the entire block on Reservoir Road above Ross Street, and on a petition initiated by the city to rezone the E Street School property from unclassified to general commercial with parking requirements.

18. Granted Bank of Marin a one-year use permit for an 18-car parking lot at Fourth and Cijos streets, on property on which the bank had planned to build until it bought the Elks Club parcel at Fifth Avenue and B Street.

Cause Of Infant's Death Revealed

A meningococcal infection, similar to meningitis, caused the death of a San Rafael infant April 1, according to the county health department's report on communicable diseases released today.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, said there was no danger of the spread of the disease because of available antibiotics.

Other diseases reported in the county last week were 34 cases of strep infection, 13 of mumps, eight of gonorrhea, two of infectious hepatitis, two of measles and one of tuberculosis.

Assistants Named At Churches

Appointments of assistant pastors at Catholic churches in Kentfield, San Anselmo and Santa Venetia were announced yesterday by Most Rev. Joseph T. McGucken, archbishop of the San Francisco Catholic Archdiocese.

Rev. Raymond G. Kenny will be assistant pastor of St. Sebastian's Church in Kentfield; Rev. William R. Burns, of St. Anselm's Church in San Anselmo, and Rev. Charles R. Simpson, of Blessed Sacrament Church in Santa Venetia.

Archbishop McGucken announced Rev. Dominic W. Sarubbi had been assigned in residence at St. Sylvester's Church in San Rafael as a member of the faculty of Marin Catholic High School.

T-Men Take Still From His Office

The T-Men took the still, a relic which served as a conversation piece, to the federal building basement. The still went to make room for filing cabinets.

Agents recalled that years ago it was learned moonshine was an excellent item for cleaning ink from the fingers after fingerprinting.

Bernard (Big Six) Henderson, a veteran revenue agent, said it used to be the final insult to make a moonshiner wash his hands with moonshine.

Series Of Cracks Reported In Pool

There is not one but a series of cracks along the 180-foot bottom of the Strawberry Swim Club pool, High M. O'Neill, Oakland structural engineer, told Strawberry Recreation District directors last night.

O'Neill recommended the cracks be chipped out completely to a width of two inches and be refilled with epoxy, a binder, then plastered to the original finish.

The report was accepted by the board as a basis for proceeding with repairs. It contained no cost estimate.

Charles F. Bauman, with Bermuda Mar-Vel Pool Service, San Rafael pool contractors, told directors his responsibility is to make any repairs warranted but he did not apporve of specific repairs itemized by O'Neill. He said it is not known when the cracks occurred and he will consult his insurance company to see what repairs could be made and report back by April 17.

The board recessed, according to secretary Patricia M. Gowen, until the 17th or until a call comes from chairman C. G. Bush in case Bauman reports earlier. In the meantime, the pool, which was scheduled to open April 1, remains closed.

Fishing Pole Rationing Plan

MIAMI (AP)—The Dade County Commission thinks there are too many two-pole and three-pole men around, and it's cluttering up the bridges.

The commission is studying an ordinance providing a person on a fishing catwalk would be limited to one fishing pole.

Board To Study Jury's Report

Acting Chairman William D. Fusselman suggested, and received concurrence of the two others present, that each board member do some home work on the 1962 jury report during the next few days, making notes of what might be said in the comment required of the supervisors soon by law.

It was decided to pool these suggestions at next Tuesday's meeting and appoint one member to draw up a composite comment.

Three Vying For Two Seats On Tam High School Board

Two incumbent physicians and a Larkspur sales engineer are seeking to fill two vacancies on the Tamalpais Union High School District board in next Tuesday's election.

The incumbents are Dr. James M. Stubblebine of Mill Valley and Dr. John C. Siemens of Kentfield. Stubblebine was named to the board in October, 1961, to replace Howard I. McGill. Siemens was elected to the board two years ago, but drew a short term.

JOHN C. SIEMENS

W. G. WOODWARD

SIEMENS, 50 who lives with his wife and three children at 10 Turnagain Road, Kentfield, is a specialist in internal medicine at Ross Valley Medical Clinic, chairman of the clinic, and administrator of both Ross and Novato hospitals.

A graduate of the University of California Medical School, Siemens is a member of the Unitarian Church of Marin, Lions Club, Kentfield Civic League, and has served as chairman of the board of the Young Men's Christian Assn. He served as a doctor in the Navy during World War II.

"We should provide our students with the best possible opportunities for a good high school education, both for those going on to college and for those whose high school education prepares them for work in our community," said Siemens.

"I would like to see . . . the highest possible standards in our instruction program . . . economy in all operations . . . (and) an ongoing program of public relations."

STUBBLEBINE, 42, lives with his wife and four children at 53 South Knoll Road, Mill Valley. A native of Minneapolis, Minn., Stubblebine graduated from the University of Oregon Medical School in 1951.

He is staff psychiatrist for Langley Porter Institute in San Francisco, assistant clinical professor of psychiatry at the University of California Medical Center, psychiatric consultant to the Marin County Juvenile Hall, and a member of the county, state and national medical societies and the American Psychiatric Institute.

Stubblebine has served as president of the board, chairman of the pulpit committee and chairman of the student activities committee of the Denominational School for the Ministry and is one the clinical faculty of another seminary.

He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal as a naval aviator during World War II.

He did not respond to a request by the Independent-Journal for a statement, but his public utterances have agreed in general with those of Dr. Siemens.

WOODWARD, 36, has been a Marin County resident for six years. He and his wife and son live at 15 Holly Avenue, Larkspur. He has worked for General Electric Co. for 15 years and is atomic power equipment sales engineer for Northern California.

Woodward holds a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Illinois Institute of Technology and a master's degree from California Institute of Technology.

He served in the Navy during World War II and again in 1955 and 1956 when he was design officer during construction of atomic submarines in Groton, Conn.

He is a member of the San Francisco Electrical and Engineers clubs and the Commonwealth Club.

"My technical knowledge and scientific background will give the board a better balance and broader view," declared Woodward.

His program includes: "Emphasize academic achievement, particularly in the sciences; insist on fiscal responsibility while providing the best possible educational program; demand maintenance of discipline conducive to the learning process; propose more open discussions of school district business at board meetings; strive for some result from all of the unification studies before the state deadline; recognition and reward for excellence in teaching."

Youth Held To Answer In Ax Case

Claude Burdett Burton, 18, of Marin City, accused of clubbing a Daly City laborer with an ax at Juanita's Galley last month, was bound over to superior court yesterday for trial.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court held Burton to answer in the higher court on a charge of felony assault, after a preliminary hearing.

The victim, Peter R. Page, 26, who is a member of the San Francisco motorcycle club the Presidents, testified he was struck from behind and did not see the assailant. Page was hospitalized for 12 days for brain surgery. He appeared on the stand yesterday with his head still swathed in bandages.

Deputy Sheriff George Johnson testified that he took the ax away from Burton during the March 16 brawl. A San Francisco girl, Linda Oakley, 18, who was near the victim when he fell unconscious to the floor, said she did not actually see the blow. She did, however, see a Negro youth holding the ax, but said she cannot identify the youth.

Burton is scheduled to appear in superior court on April 22.

Completes Training

Michael C. Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Parsons of 536 Belle Avenue, San Rafael, last week completed nine weeks of basic training at San Diego Naval Training Center.

San Rafael Driver Training Increased

Twice as many students will be able to take driving training at San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools next year.

The San Rafael Board of Education last night agreed to hire four instead of the present two driver training instructors. Supt. Bert C. Corona estimated 417 students will take the training program this year. He said 900 students will be eligible for training next year. Cost of the program will go from $3,506 to $4,512.

The board meeting was attended by two "lame ducks," outgoing board members Roderick P. Martinelli, president, and Rex T. Silvernale, who did not run for re-election in Monday's election. Also present were C. Paul Bettini, who was re-elected, and, in the audience, newly elected members Carl J. Brown and Walter J. Doll.

Avoiding policy decisions until the new board is sworn into office at 8 p.m. Monday in the San Rafael City Hall, the board put aside a policy for senior graduation parties proposed by Corona. It would put responsibility for the parties on each school's administrators.

The board also:

1. Approved a salary schedule for classified employees dropipng the number of steps in the schedule.

2. Approved purchase of three "tally dial accumulator boards" for Terra Linda High School, to be used in scheduling classes there.

3. Granted sabbatical leave for Martin Parlan, mathematics teacher at Davidson Junior High School, to study at the University of Notre Dame, and maternity leave to Reiko Y. Hamai, West End School teacher, and to Joyce Hodge and Judy Shillinger, teachers at San Rafael High School. Marilyn Cerwin, teaching in Europe, was granted a third year of leave.

4. Accepted resignations of Larry Dubbs, arts and crafts teacher at Terra Linda High School, for reasons of health, of Judith A. Nielsen, teacher at Laurel Dell School, to move to Idaho, and of Beulah V. Thigpen, teacher at Gallinas School, to do graduate work.

5. Appointed five new teachers: William Monti, physical education, who formerly played football at San Rafael High School; Judith A. Buell, physical education; Mrs. Virginia L. Cochran, business education, and Edith Lew and David Scovill, arts and crafts, all for the high school district.

6. Discussed the acquisition of an elementary school site at Marin Bay and agreed a satisfactory site has not yet been found.

Bomb Is Traced To Army Captain

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A bomb that exploded in a San Francisco postoffice March 18 injuring a clerk, has been traced to a U.S. Army captain in South Viet Nam.

The captain, stationed in Saigon, had packaged an explosive device and sent it to his wife through the Army Post Office system.

The officer is scheduled to be taken back to the United States tomorrow to be placed in a mental institution.

The captain was traced by P.S. postal agents and military agents to a quartermaster detachment in Saigon.

Identification of the officer was not announced immediately.

To Keesler AFB

Airman Basic Robin W. Lampson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Lampson of 221 Brookside Drive, San Anselmo, has been reassigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., for technical training as a maintenance specialist after completing basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Zelinsky Makes Plea To Start On Safeway

Fred G. Zelinsky made a fervent plea before county supervisors yesterday for a use permit allowing work to start immediately on a new Safeway store on Tiburon Boulevard in Tiburon, but reluctantly consented finally to one-week continuance while drainage problems were further investigated.

The Tiburon landowner vainly sought some formula under which he would bind himself to an outside limit of $25,000 outlay whether plans for a proposed assessment district go through or not, but Public Works Director Donald R. Frost insisted there are too many complexities to allow immediate solution. He said it was hoped the store could open by Thanksgiving.

"I'm willing to do my share up to $25,000 but I don't want to bind myself to any open-end contract," fumed Zelinsky, adding: "I'm about ready to close things up and go to Europe. It's not worth all the bother! Building in this area would improve drainage, not detract from it."

But Frost contended fill required before building would accentuate the problem. He said 650 feet of pipe must be laid from Tiburon Boulevard to a drainage outlet in Belvedere Cove, and that the cost would be over $100,000.

The board granted modification of earlier provisions for access to the property.

Father, Son Jail Reunion

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—At 1 a.m., a 61-year-old man was booked at city jail on a drunk charge. At 3 a.m., a 32-year-old sailor on leave was booked on a drunk driving charge.

As jailers put the younger man in a cell, he spotted the older man and called out. The oldster squinted myopically, put on his glasses, and shouted: That's my boy."

Jailers obligingly put father and son in the same cell. The father told Sgt. Gordon H. Hill that he hadn't seen his son for 16 years and "didn't even know he was in Florida."

Sausalito Schools

Sausalito School District trustees will meet April 29, there being no meeting April 22 because of Public Schools Week, according to Supt. Marcus F. Davis.

Giants Send Marichal Against The Colts Tonight

HOUSTON (AP) — Bob Bruce, the young Houston Colt who nearly cost San Francisco the 1962 pennant, faces Juan Marichal tonight as the Giants try to stay unbeaten after yesterday's 9-2 opening day triumph.

Bruce went all the way to beat the Giants 4-2 in the next-to-last game of the 1962 National League regular season, apparently killing San Francisco's pennant hopes. But Los Angeles lost also and so Bruce escaped the Giants' hall of infamy.

He'll bring a 10-9 record for last year against Marichal's 18-11 mark—a record the Giants figure will improve to 20 wins this year if Marichal can stay healthy.

A familiar formula with one new ingredient produced yesterday's victory—the fifth in six opening day games since the Giants moved West.

He relieved starter Jack Sanford during a sixth inning Houston uprising and faced 12 batters, retiring every one. He had one strikeout.

"I'll tell you this," said Manager Alvin Dark after Fisher's debut, "I'll pitch him as much as I can, because that's the way he likes it."

Continued Dark: "He came in as a middle reliever yesterday, but we'll use him every kind of way there is to use him."

An old nemisis helped knock Sanford out — the extra-base hit. His own.

Jack had to let out a triple amidst a four-run second-inning rally and it cost him plenty of energy. Last year virtually every time Sanford had to run the bases hard, he soon tired on the mound.

He held Houston to five singles in his five-plus innings—just enough time to get credit for the victory.

The offensive phase of the victory formula was four home runs swatted by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Felipe Alou and Willie McCovey, the four Giants who topped the team in round-trippers last season.

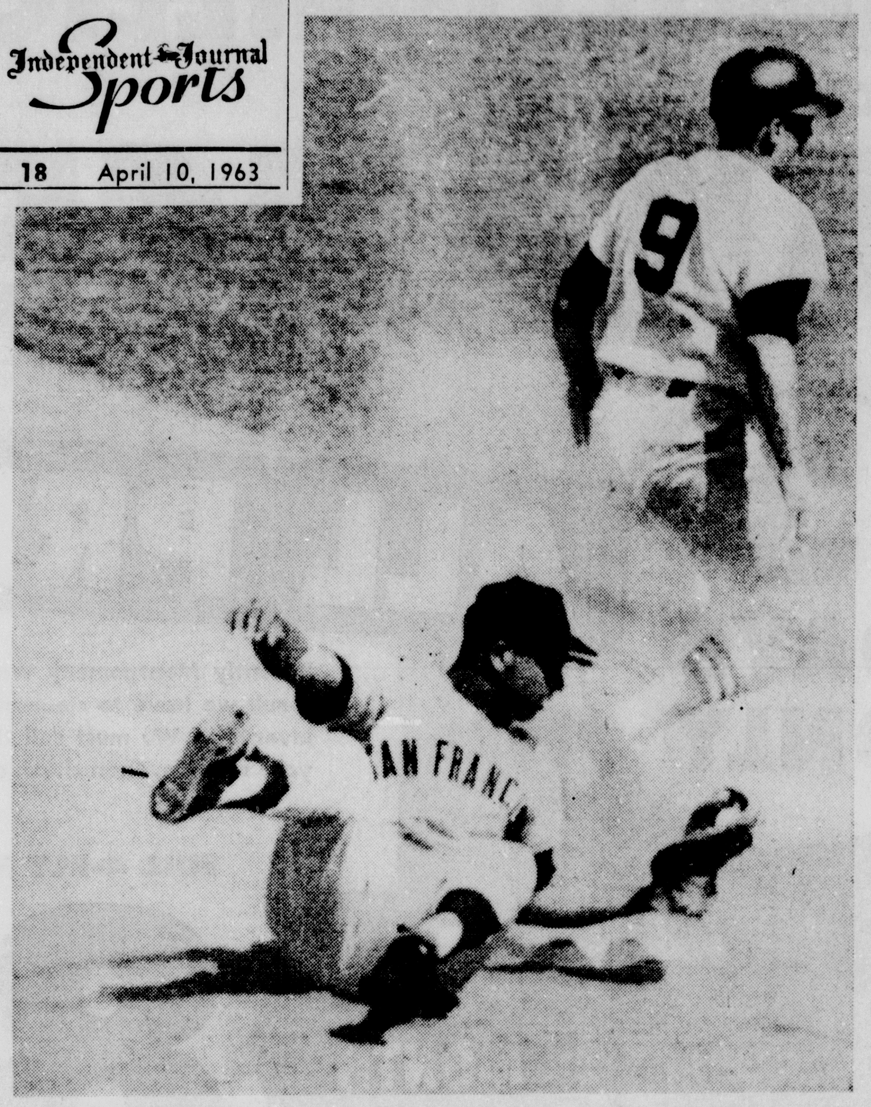
Mays led off the third with his homer, like Cepeda's into the left field seats. Sanford picked up his third run-batted-in with a single off Russ Kemmerer, mound successor to loser Dick Farrell. The hit scored Alou, who had doubled.

Three singles to open the sixth chased Sanford and, with a sacrifice fly, produced Houston's two runs. McCovey's and Alou's homers came in the eighth and the Giants added a final run on singles by Mays, McCovey and Cepeda.



SAFE AT FIRST—Pete Runnels (9) of the Houston Colts is safe at first base yesterday in the sixth inning of the Giant-Colt National League opener in Houston. Runnels hit a grounder to deep short and Jose Pagan's throw to Orlando Cepeda was high, allowing Runnels to evade Cepeda's tag. (AP Wirephoto)

NAT'L LEAGUE ROUNDUP

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

All Art Mahaffey's got is a blazing fastball and a nickel curve, according to baseball know-it-alls, but that big hummer was good enough to get the Philadelphia Phillies off winging in the National League pennant race.

"Just let him throw that fastball," says Phillie Manager Gene Mauch. "He doesn't need those other pitches."

The Cincinnati Reds found that out for the second straight opening day when the big righthander pitched a four-hitter and struck out 10 in a 2-1 victory last night.

"It was just fast balls," Mahaffey said after the game. "I threw only five breaking pitches all night."

LONG-TIME DOORMAT

The Phils, long-time doormat of the senior circuit but the best team in the league for the second half of last season, defeated 21-game winner Joey Jay for the second straight year on opening day. Don Demeter's single drove in the first Phillie run in the fourth inning and the clincher came in when Gordy Coleman muffed a double play ball in the sixth.

The Reds rallied in the ninth off Mahaffey when Frank Robinson singled and John Edwards doubled him home with one out. Mahaffey then settled down, striking out Gene Freese and Tommy Harper.

The National League champion San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers, rated along with Cincinnati as the top contenders for the N.L. flag, won their opening day contests.

Four home runs—by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Willie McCovey and Felipe Alou — powered the Giants to a 9-2 victory over the Houston Colts and 25-game winner Don Drysdale of the Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-1.

TWO-HITTER

In other games, Ernie Broglio pitched a two-hit, 7-0 victory for the St. Louis Cardinals over the New York Mets, and Ted Savage's two-out, pinch-single paced the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 3-2 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves.

Maury Wills of the Dodgers, the N.L.'s most valuable player in 1962, suffered an injured ankle while trying to score in the third and had to be replaced. Drysdale spaced 11 hits and was helped by three double plays. Rookie Ken McMullen drove home two runs for the Dodgers as Larry Jackson took the loss for Chicago.

Larry Burright of the Mets got the only hits off Broglio—in the first and ninth innings. In between, the Card righthander set down 20 straight Mets. Bill White's homer and George Altman's four hits led the Cards' 14-hit attack—12 of them coming off Roger Craig.

Bonus baby Bob Bailey and veteran Smoky Burgess homered for the Pirates, who beat lefthander Bob Hendley. Relief ace ElRoy Face picked up the victory.

Sunny Jim Retires From Racing Scene

NEW YORK (AP)—The doctor looked at the skinny exercise boy and told him: "Young man, you'd better give up racing. Stay away from that excitement or you won't last with that heart." That was in 1887. Grover Cleveland was President. Now, 13 presidents and 76 years later, Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons is going to take the doctor's advice. He is getting away from racing.

The famed, 88-year-old trainer will retire in June, ending a 78-year association with the thoroughbred racing. He was the leading money winning trainer five times, saddled more than 2,000 winners—including two Triple Crown winners—and at one time or another his horses won almost every major race in America.

The announcement of his retirement was made yesterday by Ogden Phipps, one of three generations of the Phipps family for whom Sunny Jim trains. He also handles the horses of Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps' Wheatley Stable and those of her grandson, Ogden Mills Phipps.

He will be succeeded by Bill Winfrey, for many years the trainer for Alfred G. Vanderbilt and now with the California Breeders Assn.

HEART AILMENT

He first became associated with racing as a hot walker, stableboy and exercise boy in 1884. Three years later he contracted malaria at Long Branch, N.J., suffering from palpitations of the heart, he visited a doctor and came away with the basis for one of his favorite stories.

He started as a jockey Aug. 17, 1889 and rode his first winner Crispin, at the Glucester track Sept. 30, 1890. He rode until 1891, and in his later years as a jockey doubled as a trainer.

He saddled his first winner, Agnes D, at Brighton Beach Aug. 7, 1900. Since then have come such notable runners as Nashua, Bold Ruler, Misty Morn, High Voltage, Johnstown, Granville, Isolater, Fenelon, Busanda, Vagrancy, Diavolo, Fighting Fox, Omaha and Gallant Fox.

He won the Triple Crown—the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and the Belmont Stakes—with Gallant Fox in 1930 and Omaha in 1935.

Marin Games Called Due To Wet Grounds

Yesterday's scheduled double-header between College of Marin and Yuba College was postponed because of wet grounds at the San Rafael High School field.

Next scheduled action for the Tars will be tomorrow, a doubleheader against Shasta College at noon on the San Rafael High field. Yesterday's games will probably be made up next Tuesday.

Cubs' New System

CHICAGO (AP)—Opening day was rather trying for the Chicago Cubs' Col. Bob Whitlow, a huge, affable man who has made a niche in baseball lore as the game's only athletic director.

The Cubs — the center of innovations such as a managerless system and now Whitlow —lost their start yesterday in the National League season, 5-1, to the Los Angeles Dodgers, considered a pennant contender.

What was the day like for Whitlow, the former Air Force Academy athletic director hired by Cub President P. K. Wrigley for something?

Whitlow pulled on a winter overcoat to fight the near-freezing temperature and went to a box behind home plate with Bob Buhl. Buhl is to be today's pitcher for the Cubs.

Whitlow charts all games from this vantage point and Buhl was on hand to give him some pointers.

"As far as it is feasible I plan to have the next day's pitcher with me behind home plate to go over the charts together," said Col. Bob, who had some difficulty getting his seats because he had no ticket and the ushers didn't know him.

Finally, room was made and Whitlow and Buhl sat there charting in the biting cold among a group of whooping boosters.

When Cub pitcher Larry Jackson looked shaky, a heckler yelled: "Is that the best pitcher they've got!"

So it went. In one ear of the colonel and out the other.

After the game, Whitlow spent 1½ hours talking to Cub coaches and players.

"The sense of what I said was that the team played a good game and if we maintain the level of play we showed today, we will win our share. I was pleased with our performance.

"As for charting the games, the Cubs have been doing that a long time but not in the detail I think necessary. We will use the charts through an electronic device that whips out tape and relates unlimited combinations that should help provide answers to any siutation—batting, pitching, fielding, etc.

"By these charts, we hope to find significance through repitition of some things to give samples that will make a pattern. At least, they should provide more thought-provoking ideas."

Then Col. Whitlow hit on what he probably thinks is the nub of electronic baseball.

He said: "We do not care to base our findings on recollection or cliches collected by old timers over the years, but rather on actual data required."

Mrs. Johnson Wins In Las Gallinas Golf

Mrs. Bo Johnson, with a 37-9—28, won the Class A Berven Trophy during Las Gallinas Women's Golf action. Mrs. H. R. Sites shot a 40-14—28 to win in Class B.

Sutherland Stars In Stanford '9' Victory

STANFORD (UPI) — Basketball-baseball star Darrell Sutherland fanned 11 men in seven innings yesterday to lead Stanford past Humboldt State 12-5 in a non-league baseball game.

If Cepeda Hits .350 This Season What Pay Will He Ask For In '64?

CONNOLLY

Alvin Dark, S.F. Giant manager, declared in a press huddle that anytime Orlando Cepeda failed to hit. 350 for a season, he would consider it an ordinary season, or words to that effect.

Chub Feeney, vice president of the club, gleefully hopped on Alvin's remarks to justify the salary "cut" he intended for Cepeda that didn't jell. So that brings us up to the gossip now making the rounds and which could mushroom as the season grows.

"Suppose Cepeda hits .350, drives in 125 runs, hits 45 home runs and behaves even better than expected by manager Dark," asks a friend. "What do you suppose he would ask for a 1964 salary?"

AT THE TIME Feeney released the story on Cepeda's signing, I asked him that very question. In his dashing Ivy League manner, the vice prexy, grinning and fidgety, was quick to remark: "Let's wait and see what happens."

That is good thinking. But the gossipers who fondly support the Giants and who have a warm spot in their hearts for Cepeda are already talking.

One veteran of the baseball wars, who in his deyday matches Cepeda's cantankerous moods, explains it this way:

"CEPEDA never has to worry about salary with the Giants," sez this Giant rooter. "All he has to do is keep hitting and being colorful and being controversial. His 'draw' at the gate will pretty nearly establish his paycheck."

Cepeda, if he hits up to snuff, will make Bo Belinsky of the Angels a second rater as an attraction.

Belinsky is a modern day Walter Mails but he has yet to prove he is as good a southpaw as was the Great One.

With Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Tom Haller, Jose Pagan, Jimmy Davenport, Felipe Alou not to mention the pitchers, the 1963 Giants easily could become baseball's greatest globe trotters of the game.

MEANWHILE Feeney and Dark may decide to institute another system of plus and minuses so that Orlando might get a little higher up in the standings.

While Dark insists the plus and minus system is as old as the hills, this is the first time of record that it has been publicly used to drive players to accept salary cuts.

I think Dark inadvertently dropped his plus and minus on Cepeda, never thinking that it would be used as a wedge to support a bit out of his pay-check. Alvin at least made his peace with Cepeda on the plus and minus story and already he is trying to show the "Cheerful Chub" Feeney that he had better get down on his knees and pray he doesn't hit .350. Because if the Baby Bull does hit .350—whoopie!—what a dandy time is in store next winter.

WHILE ON the subject of player improvement it is nice to remember Willie McCovey, who once was considered a fugitive from a fly ball. As an infielder Lovey Dovey had a terror of pop flies, some of which seemed certain to hit him on the head.

But now that he understands how the untamed fly ball roams the prairie outfield, McCovey faces a career that might very well be money in the bank for him. He's happy, contented and confident.

"Ah no longer afreed to tackle the high and mighty fly balls," sez Willie. "Ah just at home there, like I used to be at first base."

So speaking of salary worries, let Cepeda have a great year along with Mays and McCovey and—oh well, Stoneham will do all right.

Redwood Is Shaded By Hogan Club

The Redwood High School baseball team's winning streak was halted at six straight when the Giants fell to Hogan High School 5-4 yesterday in an extra-inning contest at Vallejo.

Redwood used three pitchers with freshman Jim Garrot starting. He was followed on the mound by Scott Murphy and Scott Davi. It was Davi who was on the hill in the bottom of the ninth inning when Hogan scored the winning run to break a 4-4 tie. He suffered the loss.

Terry Jarcik, Steve White and Steve Minutoli each collected doubles for Redwood.

PRUDENCE ON WAY TO SPECTACULAR VICTORY

Prudence Baxter of Sausalito (33), piloting a Lotus Mark II, closes in on the Sondra SAAB Special driven by Hugh Pryor of Los Angeles on the final lap of the Modified Class H race at Sunday's Port of Stockton Road Races. McLeod Great As Seals Win; Playoff Series Knotted Up

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The San Francisco Seals and Portland's Buckeroos will be dead even when they resume their quest for the Western Hockey League's Southern Division crown in San Francisco tomorrow night.

The Seals beat Portland 5-2 last night to tie their best-of-seven series at a game each.

San Francisco took an early lead when Ray Cyr scored and Danny Belisle made it 2-0 with just 34 seconds gone in the second period.

Then the Portland attack began to jell. The Buckeroos fired 11 times at goalie Jimmy McLeod. Only Tommy McVie's shot eluded the rookie net minder.

Al Nicholson scored what proved to be the winning goal shortly before the middle mark of the final period. Again the aroused Bucks, defending champions of the Southern loop, bore down and again McLeod came through magnificently. Gerry Goyer scored with four minutes to play, but that was all for Portland.

McLeod blocked 13 attempts in the third period and wound up with 31 saves for the night.

Only three penalties were called in the game which was watched by 8,741 fans.

Dick Lotz Leads Junior College Golf By 1 Stroke

Lotz toured the Belmont Country Club in par 72 yesterday to edge Barry Cunningham of Chabot J.C. in Oakland. Cam Pickett Jr. of Monterey Peninsula College came in with a 74, while teammate Bob Miller carded a 75.

Apostoli Speaks Up For Boxing; Here's Another Vote For Giants

Ban boxing?

"It's pure panic," offers Fearless Freddie Apostoli, the former world middleweight king. Five deaths in the ring this year have created a controversy over the sport, so Apostoli comes forth with a defense of the game at which he was so great.

The ban boxing move, says Fairfax Freddie, is being used as a political football. Further, "When people go into any professional sport," he goes on, "they know there's a chance of getting injured or even killed. You can't call them any braver than the ordinary citizen who risks his life every day of the year in the most dangerous and greatest killer known to mankind—the automobile. And who's ever come forward and asked to have the automobile banned?"

FRED APOSTOLI

The trim Apostoli looks as if he is still able to go 15 rounds and probably could. A recent physical checkup found him as fit or even better than the average 25-year-old athlete, and Apostoli has seen 50 summers.

He attributes his fine condition to boxing, explaining, "The basic fundamentals and exercises you use while training for boxing are the best all-around exercises in the world. No other sport offers exercises that strengthen and keep every muscle in your body loose and ready for action."

Also, "Boxing has given self confidence and self respect, plus a strong and healthy body, to many young fellows who otherwise very likely would not have had one or any of these three assets."

So, don't knock boxing, bub, or you'll have to answer to Fearless Fred.

Poor A.L.: Yankees Still Look Mighty

Champs Cop Opener As Terry Stars

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The New York Yankees wasted no time letting American League rivals know that Ralph Terry is as good as he looked in the World Series and Joe Pepitone may be better than Joe DeMaggio predicted.

Put the two factors together and they spell calamity for long-suffering American Leaguers who are hoping their majesties will lose the pennant this year. The A.L.'s "shirtless ones" had hoped (1) Yankee pitching might be vulnerable and (2) the Yanks had outsmarted themselves by trading first-baseman Bill Skowron to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But Terry and Pepitone threw plenty of cold water on those hopes yesterday when the Yankees opened their season with an 8-2 victory over the Athletics in Kansas City. Even the fact that the Athletics were all dolled up in their new gold and green uniforms wasn't enough to make the 30,976 hometown fans confuse them with royalty.

Terry, who added two World Series victories to his 23-12 record in 1962, pitched a six-hitter and walked only one batter while Pepitone, making his varsity debut, led the Yankees' 13-hit attack with two homers and a double.

Pepitone is the 22-year-old free-swinging first-baseman who had a sensational homer-streak early last season but who cooled off to .239 and was farmed to Richmond. His biggest booster is DiMaggio, who has assured Yankee brass that Pepitone will make the big time this year.

Pepitone hit the first pitch offered him for a homer yesterday and also homered in the eighth inning. Elston Howard weighed in with a homer and Bobby Richardson had a triple in the New York attack. Terry, meanwhile, breezed seven shutout innings before yielding solo homers in the eighth and ninth innings to Bill Bryan and Chuck Essegian.

The Chicago White Sox got an early dividend from their key winter trade in toppling the Detroit Tigers, 7-5, the Los Angeles Angels beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-1, and the Cleveland Indians shaded the Minnesota Twins, 5-4, in the other American League games.

Rookie Pete Ward and veteran relief pitcher Hoyt Wilheim, obtained in a winter deal with the Orioles, were the stars of the White Sox victory. Ward clouted a three-run homer in the White Sox's game-winning four-run seventh-inning rally and Wilheim protected the lead with three innings of one-hit shutout relief ball. Joe Cunningham homered for the White Sox and Gus Triandos homered and Rocky Colavito had three hits for Detroit.

Ken McBride pitched a four-hitter and struck out six for the Angels, who clobbered Bill Monbouquette for all their runs in the fifth inning.

WILLS IN ACTION—Maury Wills, Dodger shortstop, leaps agilely over Cubs' Dick Bertell on forceout at second in third inning of yesterday's opener in Chicago. Wills later hurt his ankle, but insisted he would play today. (AP Wirephoto)

Wills Jams Ankle, But He Will Play

CHICAGO (AP)—Maury Wills, who sought the help of a hypnotist to cure himself of some imaginary ills, now has some real ones to worry about.

The Los Angeles Dodger shortstop, the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1962, jammed his ankle in a daring base-running play yesterday, but insisted he'd play today regardless of the injury and without the benefit of hypnotism.

Wills, who stole a record 104 bases last season, told Melvin Durslag of the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner that he visited a hypnotist during the winter when he was suffering from aching legs.

"My legs hemorrhaged toward the end of last season," Wills said. "Ever since, they ached me. Or at least I got it into my head that they ached me. I began to worry."

He said he visited hypnotist Arthur Ellen in Las Vegas, Nev.

Ellen said he hypnotised Wills, then asked him to do some leg exercises. He said he told Maury his legs would hurt if there was something wrong with them.

"It was amazing," Wills said. "I felt no pain in my legs. And I don't to this day. Of course, some people will say that the pain in the first place was all in my head, which is true."

RAIDERS MOVE TRAINING SITE TO SANTA ROSA

OAKLAND (AP) — Further developments in the reorganizational program for the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League came today when general manager and head coach Al Davis announced a change in pre-season training quarters.

The new site will be in Santa Rosa some 50 miles north of Oakland, at the El Rancho Santa Rosa Hotel. The facilities will include two fields, a field house, and squad meeting rooms. Davis said the training establishment is being built expressly for the Raiders.

Davis will announce the date for the opening of camp in May. Last year's camp started July 13.

A Circus Wagon Party For Kids

It'll be a culinary circus for the kids when you throw a "Circus Wagon Party" in the backyard. Exciting as it will be for the youngsters, it'll be little work for you—either in preparation or clean up.

EVERYTHING on the menu is a top favorite with children. Wieners are served in frank-fitter rolls. With a groove down the middle, these buns are "tailor made" to hold franks. Canned fruit cocktail in red gelatin is served in shiny little aluminum foil pans. Dessert is a three-ring attraction with "Confetti Cupcakes," glistening "Candied Applies" and a big bowl of popcorn mixed with packaged pink candy popcorn.

For the gay circus wagon, cover a shoe box with colored foil and decorate it with foil or paper cut-outs. Not-too-young children can make it by themselves or with very little help.

CONFETTI CUPCAKES

1 cup fresh California dates
1 package (1 lb. 3 oz.) chocolate fudge cake mix
1 package (6¾ oz.) creamy vanilla frosting mix
1 package (9 oz.) creamy fudge frosting mix
Cake decors

Chop dates. Prepare cake mix as package directs; stir in dates. Bake according to package directions for cupcakes. Remove to rack to cool. Meanwhile, prepare frosting mixes as packages direct. Spread half of cupcakes with vanilla frosting and remaining with chocolate frosting. Sprinkle with decors.
Makes 24 cupcakes.

CANDIED APPLES

12 red eating apples
2 cups sugar
1 cup water
⅔ cup light corn syrup
Few drops red food coloring

Wash and thoroughly dry apples. Insert skewers or strong round wooden sticks into stem ends or if stems are on apples, tie with 6-inch length of string. In a tall narrow pan, such as top of double boiler, combine sugar, water, syrup and red food coloring. Heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved. Cover and boil to 290 degrees or hard-crack stage. Remove from heat and quickly dip apples into sugar mixture, coating all sides. Place on aluminum foil or greased cooky sheet to cool.
Makes coating for 12 apples.

Salad Topped In Pineapple Ring

Big beautiful slices of canned pineapple decorated with toasted coconut are the main attraction in this refreshing ham salad bowl. Stuff them with ginger accented cream cheese then pile atop the ham and vegetable salad.

The salad itself is an excellent way to use up leftover Easter ham. Cut it in cubes to mix with crunchy chunks of cucumber and celery and crisp greens. A lively pineapple cream dressing provides the final touch for this salad. It has just the right amount of heartiness to be an entree.

PINEAPPLE RING SALAD BOWL

1 (1-pound, 14-ounce) can pineapple slices
Pineapple cream dressing
1 (3-ounce) package cream cheese
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon finely chopped preserved ginger
2 tablespoons finely chopped walnuts
Packaged toasted coconut
Cucumber ham salad

Drain pineapple slices. Save ¼ cup syrup for Pineapple Cream Dressing. Soften cream cheese. Beat smooth with 1 tablespoon syrup from pineapple and lemon juice. Add ginger and walnuts. Stuff into center of pineapple slices. Roll edges of each slice in toasted coconut. Lay slices on flat tray or platter. Chill. When ready to serve, place Cucumber Ham Salad in large bowl. Top with stuffed pineapple slices. Serve with additional Pineapple Cream Dressing, if desired. Makes 8 servings.

CUCUMBER HAM SALAD: Have all ingredients well chilled. Peel and dice 1 large cucumber. Combine with 1½ cups thinly sliced celery, 2½ cups cubed or slivered cooked ham and 1 quart torn crisp salad greens. Toss lightly with enough Pineapple Cream Dressing to combine ingredients.

Pineapple Cream Dressing

1 egg
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon flour
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup syrup from pineapple chunks
⅓ cup cider vinegar
⅔ cup evaporated milk

Beat egg. Blend in mustard, salt, flour, sugar, pineapple syrup and vinegar. Cook over boiling water until slightly thickened, 5 to 10 minutes. Stir now and then to keep smooth. Beat in undiluted evaporated milk. Continue cooking until thickened and smooth, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and cool. Store in covered jar in refrigerator. Makes 1½ cups.

Open At Bottom

Removes Onion Odor

Protein Rich Wheat Germ Contributes To Quick Bread

Although we are aware that wheat germ is a rich source of protein and chock full of B vitamins and minerals — and even the idea of all those nutrients is like a quick dose of energy—still the reason we have wheat germ around in our kitchen is because we like it.

And we recommend it to you. Use it in the following recipe for a quick bread. See if you don't agree with us that it makes a worthwhile contribution to flavor and texture.

We sliced half this loaf as soon as it came from the oven so it would be enjoyed fragrant and warm. The rest of the loaf was cooled, wrapped tightly, and refrigerated. Such cold storage helps to keep baking powder breads from drying and makes them easy to slice. We like this loaf, after overnight storage, toasted and slathered with butter.

RAISIN NUT WHEAT LOAF

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup sugar
¾ cup wheat germ
½ cup raisins
½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans
2 eggs
1 cup milk
⅓ cup butter or margarine (melted)

Onto a piece of waxed paper, sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and sugar; stir in the wheat germ, raisins and nuts. In a medium mixing bowl, beat eggs slightly; add milk and beat to combine; add the melted butter and the flour mixture; stir only until dry ingredients are moistened. Turn into a greased loaf pan (9 by 5 by 3 inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 55 minutes. Loosen loaf from sides of pan; turn out on wire rack; turn right side up. Cool. Store in tightly covered container. Loaf may be sliced shortly after baking but for thin slices, leave overnight.

Add Salt Carefully

Add salt carefully to a dish containing cheese; the cheese you've used in the dish may be quite salty.

SPRINGTIME SALAD BOWL

Friends Will Enjoy Cheese Pastry Sticks

Cheese Pastry Snacks
Fresh Fruit Bowl
Raisins and Nuts Beverage

CHEESE PASTRY STICKS

2¼ cups Homemade Pastry Mix
1 cup (¼ pound) medium-grated cheddar cheese
1 teaspoon caraway seed

With a fork, stir the grated cheese and caraway seed into the Pastry Mix. Sprinkle with 4 to 6 tablespoons ice-cold water — try to use a minimum amount — and mix lightly until dough begins to stick together. Turn out on a prepared pastry cloth and press dough together. Roll dough ⅛-inch thick into a square (12 by 12 inches). With a pastry wheel cut the square into 18 strips (each 2 by 4 inches); roll up each strip jelly roll fashion (the long way). Use tag ends of dough to make 4 more rolls. Bake on an ungreased cookie sheet in a hot (425 degrees) oven until lightly browned — 15 to 20 minutes. Note: Instead of Homemade Pastry Mix, you may use rich dough for a 2-crust 8 or 9-inch pie and follow directions above.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Marin To Have An Auto Show –But Along Different Lines

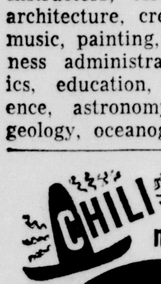
Marin County will have an auto show this year—but it will be along different lines from the usual run of such events.

Instead of dealers displaying at a central location, they'll all put their best models forward in their own showrooms, giving rise to the name "Showroom Auto Show." This will be tied in with the I-J's automobile edition on April 20. The show will run for a week.

It's a time when mid-season models are "hot" on the market, and you'll be able to see many more varieties than could be shown at any one spot in Marin. Special showroom events are expected to be featured by individual dealers.

DIRECTORS of Crocker-Anglo National Bank and Citizens Bank have approved a definite merger agreement, and shareholders of each will meet in June to vote on it.

Proposed is an exchange of stock with each outstanding share of Crocker-Anglo constituting one share of the merged institution. Citizens National shareholders would receive 1.9 shares for each share they now hold. The banks would be combined as Crocker-Citizens National Bank under Crocker-Anglo's charter, with northern division headquarters in San Francisco and the southern division headquartered in Los Angeles. If approved, the new bank will be the fourth largest in California and one of the 12 largest in the U. S.



Woolston

WILLIAM C. WOOLSTON, salesman for McGraw-Hill magazines and a resident of Kent Woodlands, has been appointed regional vice president of the publishing firm's north Pacific district, with headquarters in San Francisco. His appointment is effective upon the retirement of John W. Otterson. John W. Patten, currently division manager, will become regional manager of the Rocky Mountains district.

TAFT TRAVEL of San Rafael, agent for the Holland-America Line, announces a "floating university" aboard the motorship Seven Seas for 750 students in two semesters commencing Oct. 22. First trip will last 110 days, sailing eastward from New York and landing in San Diego in Feb., 1964. Second semester ensues almost immediately thereafter and ends in June, 1964. During this time, calls will be made at 22 ports.

The university afloat will have about 40 professors and instructors; offer courses in architecture, creative writing, music, painting, theater, business administration, economics, education, political science, astronomy, geography, geology, oceanography, public health, languages, history, anthropology, philosophy, religion, sociology and speech.

MRS. EVELYN PIERROZ of Belveron Gardens, secretary with Wells Fargo Bank in Mill Valley for nine years, will be associated with the new Tiburon National Bank now being organized.

Easter Egg Hunt Set In Novato

The Easter egg hunt for children not over eight years old, sponsored by the Novato Volunteer Firemen, will be held at noon Saturday at the Patterson Ranch at Grant Avenue and Seventh Street.

The firemen will spend all day Friday boiling and coloring 2,160 eggs. On Saturday morning, they will hide them in the field, where the grass has just been cut.

There will be three age groups again this year: from one to four years, five and six years, and seven and eight years. Parents again will be barred from the hunting areas.

A prize egg wil be marked and hidden in each age group area. Finder of this egg will be entitled to a big filled Easter basket.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Better Ask Extension Of Time If It's Impossible To File

P. J. Wikel

If for some reason beyond your control it is impossible for you to file your Federal and California income tax returns by midnight Monday, April 15, 1963, then you should request an extension of time. Extensions are usually granted, for good reason, for a 60-day period.

Requests for extensions of time should be in triplicate and signed by you or your agent.

Forms are available at your local office of the International Revnue Service and Franchise Tax Board. All requests for extensions should be on these forms and three copies are necessary. However, if you are unable to secure the forms, a letter in triplicate will do.

Your application should clearly set forth the full cause of the delay and the probable time that you will be able to complete your return.

It should give your full name and address as it will appear on your tax return when you do file.

Extensions are usually granted for a good reason such as illness, accidents, etc. Extensions are never granted because you are unable to pay the tax or because you neglected to keep your records in order. If you cannot pay the tax due, file your return anyway.

You will get a bill and you will have to pay it sooner or later. You will be charged interest, but there will be no penalty.

If you do not file your return on time, you will be subjected to penalties. So, either file the return or apply for an extension.

Mount Tam Property Bargaining

Marin County supervisors yesterday authorized County Counsel E. Warren McGuire to "continue bargaining" for possible county purchase of 15 acres on Mount Tamalpais to prevent its subdivision.

McGuire told the board he has received no answer yet from the State Division of Beaches and Parks as to possibility of state purchase of the land for an addition to Mount Tamalpais State Park.

Conservation groups have urged the county to act pending state purchase and obtain an option on the land. Owner Roy M. Scott of San Francisco informed McGuire he would consider a six-month option for $10,000.

Scott says the land is worth at least $82,000, but the state has made a tentative appraisal of only about half that amount, or $42,000.

Supervisor Peter Behr said the county should "know what the state is going to do before we amake any commitments. We can't walk into this blind."

Disabled Teen-agers May Apply For Jobs

Disabled Marin County teen-agers may apply for summer jobs in the San Francisco plant of Goodwill Industries, according to William A. Marcus of Mill Valley, president of Goodwill.

Application for the jobs should be made through Rose Resnick at the California League for the Handicapped offices in the St. Francis Hospital, San Francisco.

Private Subscription Plan Best For Charity Financing

A preview of the number of charity-welfare fund appeals, now in the drawing board stage, for Marin this year, has given an unfortunate bit of ammunition to those who would have such functions financed by tax money, and operated by bureaucrats.

For the most part, this is based on mis-information, which puts the whole picture of the typically American appeal of a private welfare group for contributions from the public, completely out of perspective.

True, the continuing appeal of many agencies in Marin County and each of its 10 communities, can, at times, be a bit vexing.

But, in the interest of getting the largest amount of money to the agency with the greatest need and in the shortest time possible, it is much better that way.

In the same vein, many short-sighted groups are vexed at the funds being raised for research into such problems as cancer, and are raising the hue and cry of "let the government do the job."

Again, it is our opinion that these matters can be handled much better, and in the long run, more efficiently if left in private hands.

True, there are many drives, the United Crusade, the various health and welfare agencies, and many others. But, there is a need for each type of organization. Each renders a specific service to their respective community.

Frequently, we hear loud protests about the seemingly high percentage of public subscriptions in these campaigns that go for salaries and overhead. It may sometimes seem high.

But, if these agencies were financed by taxes, and operated by bureaucrats, the costs would rise many, many fold.

And, if we are to keep the whole matter in perspective, one must remember that the total function of a number of these agencies, which come under such criticism, is almost entirely a problem of administration.

Many agencies, too often, are confused with outright charity organizations, which disburse funds and supplies to needy persons. Actually, there are many agencies of the other type. Take the Boy Scouts, for example.

The entire function of the Boy Scouts of America, through their local units, is one of administration, management and motivation of a program for guidance of youth. They do not give a dime directly to any boy. In fact, their particular program would be completely sidetracked, if they gave a boy one dime. There are many such organizations in a similar situation.

Even Joys Of Spring Pose Problem

But gentle Spring has some problem children.

The gophers we struggled with all last summer have produced several lawn-humping, bulb-consuming offsprings.

Baby snails are ready to take over the garden. Except for a free hand with the snail bait they would doubtless do so.

With Spring comes a tawdry horde of insects and fungus diseases to plague and perplex the gardener. The flood of insecticides and fungicides grows and so does the outcry against them.

Youth Vs. Middle Age—Want To Be A Youngster Ever Again?

NEW YORK (AP)—Who, being middle-aged, would ever want to be young again?

When you're young you wait impatiently at life's second table to be served. When you're middle-aged you point pontifically at the roast beef as it comes hot from the oven and say, "I'll have a slice there."

That's the big advantage of being middle-aged. You know better how to pick and choose among life's various possibilities. You learn to prefer durable contentments to present dismays.

It is the dream of youth to gallop toward every goal. It is a satisfaction of middle age to appreciate any distance you no longer have to march.

Youth eagerly tries to lift itself up by its bootstraps. Middle age would rather take its shoes off and rest on the sofa.

Youth believes you can mail away a box top with a quarter and you'll get something back that will make life greater, happier or better. Middle age prefers to hold on to the quarter.

When the sap flows freely in the ambitious sapling, it tries desperately to climb the sun. When the sap flows slower, the older tree is glad enough to be able to hold up its arms and take the climate as it comes.

The young dog winces and cries in the throes of puppy love. His elder watches the pretty ones go by, sighs reminiscently, and is grateful that a gay old dog can't be taught new tricks.

In youth one chases the horizon from dawn to dusk. In middle age one goes to bed before midnight comfortably sure that by morning the horizon will still be safely there to admire, no more perilously near than before.

When young, one feels the urge to write long and passionate love letters. As age takes its toll, one takes a nostalgic delight in reading someone else's foolish letters in the tabloids while munching a sandwich.

Youth doubts; age knows.

There is no place that youth feels it can't get to. There is no place that middle age would rather be than here.

Youth argues with the wife; age just turns off the hearing aid and sits back and listens.

THE YOUNG MAN wonders if he can ever pile up enough money. The older man feels pretty sure he can't.

Youth can't wait to be hurt; age recoils from pain by remembering days of gladness.

TO THE YOUNG the day is swift and the years seem long. To those older, each day is a forever but the years fleet by on invisible wings—so that afterward he never is quite sure where they flew.

Who, being middle-aged, would ever want to be young again?

Creeping Inflation Causing French Price-Wage Pinch

By PHIL NEWSOM
(UPI) Foreign News Analyst

A LARGE PORTION of President De Gaulle's continuing popularity among the French people is his undisputed claim that they never had it so good.

French incmes are going up. Economically, the country is developing faster than Germany and more than twice as fast as either the United Sates or Britain. There is a healthy surplus of exports over imports.

But there also is a problem which could drastically alter the picture.

The problem is creeping inflation, which has seen the cost of living jump 5.3 per cent in the last year and 17 per cent since De Gaulle devalued the French franc in 1959.

The result is that individual incomes barely have kept pace with increasing prices and in some cases have fallen considerably below them.

SO LONG AS he had the Algerian war to worry about, De Gaulle was able to remain fairly aloof from the problem and leave it in the hands of his experts.

The French government is the nation's largest single employer and it is the unions in state-owned industries who now are making their bid.

In the state-run coal mines, some 230,000 workers have struck. It is possible they will be joined by nearly 500,000 others on the state-run railroads and in the sate-run gas and electricity industries.

The De Gaulle government has appealed to private employers to limit wage increases to no more than 4 per cent per year. But France has a labor shortage and the pressure of demand has in some cases forced wages up to more than twice the government ceiling.

This is the prosperity in which the government workers now demand they be allowed to participate.

They are supported by the Communists, who demand that savings resulting from the end of the Algerian war be pumped into wages instead of new armament.

In the summer of 1961, when the potato price collapsed, French farmers blocked roads with their tractors and forced the government to double its costs for price supports.

De Gaulle's determination to protect French agriculture was a prominent factor in his veto of British membership in the European common market.

Agriculture remains the largest industry in France, but it operates at an efficiency below that of its neighbors. The government is pushing a program of modernization and is attempting to siphon off a sizable portion of farm workers into industry.

Solutions to the problems of labor and agriculture are necessary if the wage-price spiral is not finally to wipe out the economic miracle of France.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Vast Weapons Cost Questioned

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Our nation now has 3,400 nuclear weapon delivery vehicles. These missiles and bombers can deliver nuclear explosives equal to 22 billion tons of TNT. These facts were read into the Congressional Record by Senator Wayne Morse.

Columbia professor Seymour Melman has determined that if we lost 50 per cent of these vehicles we still could destroy every Russian city of 100,000 population and over 1,250 times. Every city of 100,000 and over in the world could be destroyed 125 times by our present nuclear force, even allowing for a 30 per cent loss.

In this situation . . . the military budget has become self-defeating . . . helping to keep the world poor. Totalitarianism thrives on poverty.

We need to develop economic and political strategy just as we developed military strategy. But we cannot do this when two-thirds to three-quarters of our scientists and engineers are concentrated on military development. We cannot do this when the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency has a $10 million budget limit established by law and the Defense budget is $56 billion.

The question of the Defense budget is now before the Senate Armed Services Committee . . . Citizens can speak out on this matter . . .

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

After the worst sandstorm in those parts in a generation, a rancher stumbled over a hat, and found it was on the head of an unfortunate buried in the sand. After the poor fellow was almost dug out he implored, "Dig a little deeper, Brother: I'm on horseback."

One of Abraham Lincoln's favorite anecdotes: "I passed by a field where a farmer was trying to plow with a very decrepit and emaciated horse. I noticed on the flank of the animal a big horse-fly, and was about to brush it off when the farmer stopped me with, 'Don't you bother that fly, Abe. If it wasn't for that fly, this danged old hoss wouldn't move an inch!"

OVERHEARD:

At a cocktail party: "He makes people happy wherever he goes—er, I mean, WHENEVER!"

Big Risk In Asking State To Meddle In Home Affairs

WOULD THAT I could take the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce by the hand and toddle through some of my personal, but international history of watching what can happen if business asks government to solve its problems.

Business always has problems, everywhere.

Things like trying to shut down your Sunday competitors because you don't want to work Sunday are among the simplest.

Governments don't always wait for mandates-to-meddle. But, they often think it pretty nice when businessmen actually holler "Help!"—as in Senate Bill 845 for compulsory Sunday closing.

Mighty often, I've noticed, the sequence goes like this. What you ask for today is forced down your throat tomorrow.

TODAY YOU'RE BOSS. Tomorrow you wonder. Next day there's no doubt, you AREN'T boss. I saw this happen three times and three times was out in my own case.

All these lessons happened in a far-off land. Quit reading right here if you're like a lot of American businessmen who are forever saying "Yes, but it can't happen here." My observation is that things are the same all over.

First sequence was when the Japanese closed in on Shanghai during the late 1930s. They could see competition was very wasteful, especially between Japanese businessmen and foreign businessmen. So they put the squeeze on the latter. This job was finished after Pearl Harbor and then the government began to suck Japanese business into it all the way.

PEACE PUT the checkerboard back something the way it was before and then we saw Chiang Kai-shek's government do the same thing. Since the war ended extra-territoriality, this time it was Chiang putting the foreigner out of business, while he got the Chinese businessmen all tangled up in totalitarianism.

WHEN THE Communists chased Chiang off to Formosa they didn't quite know what else to do in the cities for a while, being boys from the hinterland.

But after they'd trifled around a while, letting labor think it was getting a grip on business, they moved in on labor and capital both with results usual under a Communist crew.

So I came home to enjoy association with free enterprise. I think it was the so-called "fair trade" laws that jolted me first.

A COUNTRY founded on competition and built up by individualism seemed to be dedicating itself to government control to prohibit competition. Any merchant who wanted to hustle a little faster and cut his prices a few cents was being told the government didn't allow such things and he might land in the pokey any minute now.

Nobody was being asked whether he wanted to be a tax collector for Uncle Sam, either. Every merchant was in just about anywhere you looked. And, I was surprised to find that the federal and state government both had a sort of non-risk partnership with the gasoline companies—every time I filled my gas tank it was a nice profit for them and no work.

Well, it has me pretty dizzy but I can see reasons for part of it such as the heavy taxes. If Washington didn't have a lot of money to give to such foreign countries as I used to live in, they probably couldn't get up enough strength to throw the Americans out.

And the more complicated our country gets the more need there must be for somebody to tell the businessman how to run his business.

Just the same, I don't see why the businessman should like it or ask for it.

Before asking for any more compulsions than the government is bound to saddle on us, I think the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce ought to buy a telescope and have a look at how all this has worked out elsewhere.

The tendency for officialdom to try to run private business is always with us. And in my view it should always be resisted, not encouraged.

Conflict In JFK Cuba Policy On Raids, Troop Removal Argued

WASHINGTON—The more the Administration explains its command to the anti-Castro Cubans to stop their attacks on Castro-Soviet forces, the more it seems to be a hasty response which had not been thought through.

President Kennedy is as eager as others to see a free Cuba and to get Soviet troops out of the hemisphere. Obviously he very earnestly believes—or at least instinctively feels—that intervening to prevent the anti-Castro, anti-Soviet Cuban raids is the best way to do both.

But is it? At the very least we ought to take a good questioning look at the arguments the Administration advances to justify its policy and to weigh the case on the other side.

There are three main contentions the President and others make for trying to erect a wall between the attackers and the Soviet ships and troops.

ARGUMENT ONE — That the anti-Castro Cuban attacks on Soviet-manned installations will make it harder for us to persuade Khrushchev to withdraw the Soviet troops.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — Asserted but unproved. If we insure the Soviets against any hazards for their troops in Cuba, there is absolutely no incentive for Khrushchev to withdraw them. Mr. Kennedy has announced that 4,000 Soviet troops were removed in March, the first withdrawals since last November. The raids were in March. The withdrawals were in March. Where is there any basis for the argument that the raids prevent the withdrawals?

ARGUMENT TWO — That the anti-Castro raids should be stopped because they involve risks for the U.S.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — True, there are risks. Castro might go beserk and attack the U.S. instead of the anti-Castro Cubans. Soviet forces might get involved. But we aren't going to help insure the freedom of nations and peoples who want their freedom without some risks. We are taking greater risks in Vietnam today where the stakes are less than in Cuba.

ARGUMENT THREE—That we must not let the "reckless" Cuban refugees dictate U.S. foreign policy.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — Right. But isn't there a corollary? If we are going to leave the overthrow of Castro to the Cubans, how can we assert the right to tell them how not to do it?

ARGUMENT FOUR — That the hit-and-run raid's don't weaken Castro, might help him.

COUNTER-ARGUMENT — The anti-Castro Cubans are not. just attacking Castro They are attacking a foreign power—Russia, which has put its troops into Cuba to fasten the Communist tyranny on the Cubans. Why should we protect the Soviet troops from the consequences of their presence in Cuba.

How do we know these raids have no future? Castro started by doing less.

Donkey Basketball Game Wednesday For Field Service

Laughter and spills will be the order of the day next Wednesday when the Community Ambassadors sponsor two performances of donkey basketball in Novato High School gymnasium.

Proceeds from the shows will go to the Ambassadors, the Novato Chapter of the American Field Service, to help sponsor foreign exchange students. The week of April 14 to 20 has been proclaimed American Field Service Week in Novato.

High school boys will play a girls team at 3:30 p.m. At 8 p.m., faculty members will play students.

Advance tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Richard G. Prasil of 1406 Buchanan Street or Mrs. Philip Rosenberg of 775 Sun Lane.

No Center Use For Civic Affairs Unit

Otherwise, the supervisors postponed until next Tuesday decision on what to do about charging rent for meeting rooms—a plan that brought outcry from that same Marin Council for Civic Affairs.

Harold Stockstad, the council's chairman, showed up later to apologize for a phrase in a letter to the board last month which Supervisor Peter Behr had challenged as reflecting on supervisors' integrity. But Stockstad stuck to his contention that the Civic Center belongs to the public and should be made available for public meetings without cost.

No charge has been imposed for such use of the county courthouse. Administrator Alan Bruce suggested the board should make a uniform policy and "charge for both or neither."

Supervisor George Ludy said Sonoma County does not permit use of its adminstration building for any use save that of governmental agencies, while its charge for use of a memorial building is much higher than has been contemplated by Marin for its Civic Center. The same is true of memorial buildings in all other counties, said Ludy.

Behr attacked cost calculations of the administrator, saying that necessity to take down the partition between supervisors and planning areas is exceptional and that groups might do their own tidying-up. As to taxpayers as a whole paying the costs of meetings by organizations, he said "Marin is very group-conscious" with almost everybody belonging to at least one organization.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman taunted Behr with having previously favored screening between organizations which should pay and those which shouldn't, to which Behr retorted that "consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds."

To Show Slides

Mrs. Ruth Shehi of Mill Valley will show slides of her recent trip to Egypt and Palestine at a meeting of the Marin Nature Group at 8 p.m. Friday in Room 40 of the Chemistry Building of the College of Marin. Sunday a trip to the Mountain Theater will start at 10 a.m. from the college circle.

REA VISITOR-Information Center To Open In San Francisco In May

A visitors-information center designed to send thousands of new travelers into the Redwood Empire will open in downtown San Francisco in the middle of May. This was announced today by Jack Craemer, president, Redwood Empire Assn., to the nine-county organization's quarterly meeting in Napa.

Craemer explained the association will operate the center in conjunction with the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau in a ground-floor location at 476 Post Street.

He predicted it will be the "most productive single project REA has ever undertaken," and said he expects it will result in many one and two-day visits from San Francisco to Marin, Sonoma, Napa and Lake counties as well as longer trips up Highway 101.

Director Dwight O'Dell of Fortuna asked the Redwood Empire Assn. board to "de-emphasize the re-examination of State Beaches and Parks policy" citing the fact that a beautiful grove of redwoods has been logged off beside Highway 101 in northern Mendocino County.

Craemer referred the issue to the counties which are involved, suggesting they take action under an REA proposal to set up Parks and Recreation priorities for recommendations to the state.

The next executive board meeting will be held at Crescent City, July 19, the day before the dedication of the seven-million-dollar Miller tunnel nearby on Highway 199.

Many Boilers Called Defective In State

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Maintenance experts said yesterday boilers in many California buildings are defective, that inspection regulations for low pressure boilers are inadequate and luck alone is keeping more of them from exploding.

This criticism from the International Union of Operating Engineers came after several recent boiler blasts. One at San Jose last month killed five persons and injured 69. San Jose and San Francisco each had less serious explosions last week.

The maintenance union called for drastic action to avoid such accidents.

The State Industrial Welfare Division, which has charge of safety regulation for boilers, declined comment on the union charges.

For years the state has tightly regulated so-called high pressure boilers, those developing 15 pounds or more pressure to the square inch. They are inspected periodically and must be attended constantly by men who have passed state tests.

In recent years many of the high pressure boilers have been replaced by low pressure equipment, supposedly self-regulating and under existing law, requiring less frequent inspection.

Gallinas Zone Proposal Is Due Planners

A proposal to rezone eight acres in Gallinas Village to allow construction of duplexes will be considered Monday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The area is bounded by North San Pedro Road, La Brea Way, Adrian Way and Vendola Drive and is now zoned single-family residential. The zoning change is requested by International Investment Co. of San Francisco, which plans 36 duplexes on 7,500-square-foot lots.

Principal Planneer David Van Pelt said there would be no area in the proposed subdivision for public use other than streets and sidewalks. The lot sizes for duplexes would be the same as for single-family homes.

A strip of property along La Brea Way is already zoned for apartments, although most of the surrounding area is single-family residential.

The commission will meet at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center. The proposed subdivision and zoning will be heard as agenda items 6 and 7.

Hollis Will Talk On Election Of Superintendents

Virgil S. Hollis, Marin County superintendent of schools, will speak in favor of election of county and state school superintendents tomorrow at 9 p.m. on television station KQED.

The discussion, on "Bay Area Profile," will also feature Adm. C. Julian Wheeler in favor of election of school superintendents and James R. Tormey, San Mateo County schools superintendent, in favor of appointment. The program will be rebroadcast Monday at 10:15 p.m.

Hollis will again discuss election versus appointment of superintendents Saturday at the San Mateo County Hall of Justice. State Supt. of Public Instruction Maxwell Rafferty will also speak on the proposed county-wide school tax and unification.

AUXILIARY LEADER HONORED

Reedlands Couple Host To Scientist

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

From England Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bartholomew of the Reedlands have an interesting houseguest visiting them, Dr. Mary Glynne, who has retired after 45 years as a scientist at Rothampstead Experimental Station in Hartfordshire.

Dr. Glynne, who was decorated by the Queen with the Order of the British Empire for outstanding service, is on her way around the world via Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong, Australia and India.

This week she will read a paper at the University of California on plant pathology dealing with viruses and bacteria in plants, particularly wheat.

Dr. Glynne is godmother of her host, whom she previously visited in 1959. The Bartholomews plan to take her to Yosemite before she leaves for Honolulu.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID W. NURSE (Betty Lutgens) of Ridgewood, N.J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith Anne, to Lt. Alan C. Scheaffer, who is stationed at March Field in Riverside, Calif.

Judy, who will graduate in June from Mills College in Oakland, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutgens of San Rafael (he is the former owner and publisher of the I-J), and Col. and Mrs. H. B. Nurse of San Francisco. Colonel Nurse was in charge of construction of Hamilton Air Force Base. Judy's brother, Howard, is a sophomore at Stanford University. Judy is the niece of Kenneth Nurse of Honolulu and Mrs. Thomas M. Gannon Jr. of San Rafael.

Alan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gibson Scheaffer of Wilmette, Ill. He is a graduate of Dennison University and attended law school at Ohio State. He became a second lieutenant in the Air Force in February. His sister is Mrs. Ralph Smith of Columbus, Ohio.

The couple will be married in First Presbyterian Church in Ridgewood on Sept. 7 and a reception will follow at the Ridgewood Country Club. The newlyweds will make their home in Riverside.

MR. AND MRS. FRED REDDEN of San Rafael are en route to Texas, where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Roberts (Elaine Redden), of Kingsville and family and see their youngest grandson. En route the Reddens stopped in Palo Alto to breakfast with their other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray, and their young son, and in Taft they visited Mrs. Redden's brother, W. A. Brooks, and his wife. From Kingsville the Reddens will go to see friends in Port Neches, Texas, and in Oklahoma City. They'll return home about the first of May.

FRIELIND WAGNER, granddaughter of Richard Wagner and great-granddaughter of Franz Liszt, will be the speaker at an unique Junior League preview, Monday at Hotel Mark Hopkins. The league has many members in Marin who will attend the preview and hear the descendant of the famous composers. Miss Wagner and her brothers, Wolfgang and Wieland, are directors of the Bayreuth Festival in Germany. The sister and her brothers who are known for staging operas on completely bare stages, are perpetuating their grandfather's dream of having music 365 days a year in his home town.

After the preview, Miss Wagner will lunch with Mrs. Robert Watt Miller and Mrs. Stanley Powell, prominent music patrons, and league president, Mrs. William Luttgens.

FAIR LADY GOVERNESS

Julie Andrews, the English girl who became a Broadway star with the hit musical "My Fair Lady" tries on one of the hats that she will wear in the Walt Disney production on "Mary Poppins," the story of an English governess. (UPI Telephoto)

Larkspur Club Will Celebrate 51st Anniversary On April 17

The Larkspur Women's Club will celebrate its 51st anniversary luncheon at Tiburon Tommie's restaurant on April 17 at noon. Mrs. Jeretta Russell and Mrs. Donald Denton are co-chairmen of the affair.

Decorations will carry out a Hawaiian theme with leis and corsages for the honored guests.

EASTER CUSTOM

Pointers On Type Of Corsage To Be Worn With Ensembles

As old as yesterday . . . and as new as tomorrow, that's the custom of wearing flowers on Easter. Whether you choose rose buds or chaste, velvety white gardenias makes no matter. The charm of fresh flowers remains ever the same.

The Society of American Florists has some pointers on the type of corsage that should be worn with various outfits.

For a tailored suit, try a tight bunch of varicolored carnations. If the stems are cut short and the flowers placed close together, the effect will be of one extremely large carnation. Add a few slender leaves for accent, but no ribbons here, says the Society.

TO PIN on a muff or to tuck into the belt at a slender waist, there is nothing lovelier than a quaint, old-fashioned nosegay edged with a frill of snowy white paper lace. The Society suggests baby rose buds, carnations, and stephanotis. The color of the flowers, of course, depends on the color of the outfit with which they are to be worn. Yellow flowers are lovely with a tan suit . . . or with one of a soft muted blue. Pink roses area flattering accent to dove greys and pale pale lavendars.

St. Stephen's Guild To See Japanese Ceremonial Dolls

Ceremonial dolls of Japan more than 150 years old will be displayed by Mrs. Herbert H. Scheier of Belvedere and she will discuss the famous doll festival at a meeting of St. Stephens Guild on Apr. 17 at 1:30 p.m.

This will be the first time these dolls have been shown outside of the Scheier home. They will be displayed on a platform constructed for the event by Mr Scheier.

The Scheiers lived in Japan for 10 years where he served as an attorney on the United States Army staff. Japanese friends often invited them to their homes for the doll festival. Mrs. Scheier was so enchanted with the beautiful little dolls and the charming ceremony she hoped to obtain a set to bring to the United States. Just a week before departure an antique dealer informed her he had obtained a set in perfect condition. This is the set which will be shown. The unusual collection is still clothed in the original antique hand-woven brocade. Traditionally they are exhibited only once a year during the Girls' Festival (Hina Matsuri) which honors the daughters of a Japanese household.

In keeping with the occasion, tea chairman Mrs. John D. Malling, will serve Japanese tea. According to guild president Mrs. Walter Simi, all who are interested are invited to attend.

Nature Study Course Open For Parents

To help families enjoy walks together and to coordinate teacher and parent guidance in this field, a nature study course for parents of young children will be held Tuesdays, Apr. 16 and 30 from 8 to 9:30 p.m. at Whitaker Hall in Belvedere. The course is under the auspices of the Belvedere and Tiburon Peninsula Nursery Schools.

The lectures will be given by Mrs. Janet Nickelsburg, teacher, writer and consultant for natural science programs, who recently conducted a four weeks course for the nursery school teachers and who is currently instructing a course in San Rafael for elementary school teachers through Sonoma State College extension service. Resource materials will be displayed.

Enrollment is open to the public. Registration will start at 7:30 p.m.

Tennis Club Lecture Set

Mill Valley tennis clubwomen will have an opportunity to bring their contract bridge up to date following their regular monthly meeting Tuesday. Contract bridge expert Mrs. Lina Crossley of Greenbrae will be the speaker.

Sherry will be served at 12 p.m. before the 12:30 p.m. luncheon, which is under the direction of Mrs. N. C. Ortman Jr. She will be assisted by Mesdames Jack Creighton, Lowell F. Jett, Paul Clark, A. R. Whittlesey and Palle Skjoldborg.

Rainbow Reception Honors Sue Olson

Twenty-one members of San Rafael Assembly, 195, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, Mrs. R. B. Willits, Mrs. Gwen Vincilione and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Roberts, left by car this week to attend the 1963 Grand Assembly in Sacramento.

Representatives from all California will number 5,000 girls. Each Assembly may be identified by like dresses. San Rafael girls chose flowered cotton.

Prior to the departure on Sunday, members honored Sue Olson, past grand representative to New Hampshire, at a reception in San Rafael's Masonic Hall. Her theme was "A Dream Come True", carried out with hearts and hats in pastel colors of spring. Kathy Scott, worthy advisor, presided. Skits were given with each presentation of a gift by the Assembly, members of her term, worthy advisors, grand officers, other assemblies, advisory board and Mothers Club. Ushers were Marin Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Daniel Rein Pilgrimage Area Winner

The 17-year-old Tamalpais High School junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rein of Tamalpais Valley, will now go on the tour starting around June 10 to New York to observe the United Nations in action.

Mrs. Russo is Mill Valley's Blythedale Rebekah Lodge chairman for the project under which Daniel, who was the delegate sponsored by the lodge, won the area contest on March 31 in Willits.

Women Voters Name Delegates To Convention

Five members of the League of Women Voters of Southern Marin will attend the 40th state convention of the league in Sacramento April 16 to 18.

Delegates are Mrs. Donald Robinson, president, and Mesdames Alan F. Kappelman, Homer Hixon and Jerome F. Downs. Mrs. John R. Barnes will go as an observer.

STATE PRESIDENT Mrs. Lauffer T. Hayes of Oakland will preside at the convention expected to draw about 300 delegates from 68 local leagues. They will bring together the thinking of 12,000 members in arriving at conclusions and planning future action on the "State's Role in Local Government" and regional planning problems.

They will adopt a new subject for study and action for the next two years. Debate will center around topics in which local leagues have expressed the greatest interest. These include factors affecting legislators, responsiveness and responsibility, financing higher education, how educational policy is determined, political parties and legislative redistricting and apportionment.

El Marinero Women To Hear "Pennies For Pines" Speech

El Marinero Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its regular monthly meeting at 1 p.m., April 15 in the home of Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, 18 Edgewood Avenue, Mill Valley.

Miss Lelia G. Crouch will speak on "Pennies for Pines." Miss Crouch, a native Californian, has been with the U.S. Forest Service, California region, for the past 18 years.

The chapter regent, Mrs. Bruno L. Ercolini of Fairfax, will give a short talk on Father Junipero Serra to commemorate the 250th anniversary of his birth.

Luncheon hostesses will be Mesdames Henri M. Boussy, Thomas Harris, A. A. Laurence and Arthur L. Piver, all of Mill Valley.

Hay Balers Dance

The Hay Balers Easter Square Dance will be held on April 13 at the IDESI Hall in Novato. Jim Hilton will be caller for the 8:30 to midnight event.

Water Ski Sport May Smooth Out Sags And Bulges

Al Tyll, a champion water skier from Litchfield, Conn., said the sport is one of the best in the world for shaping up.

"In my lectures to parents, I tell them that if they want their daughters to have beautiful figures, start them water skiing. Skiing uses the whole body, even if you just ski a straight line."

Mrs. John F. Kennedy often has been photographed water skiing, sometimes with her daughter, Caroline, with her. Tyll, a bachelor of 30, is a specialist in trick skiing, one of three types in competition, he said. The other two are jumping and slalom.

Tyll said the American Water Ski Assn. rates between 50 and 60 tricks in competition. These include skiing backwards, doing a complete circle and something called the toehold side slide with one foot hitched into a loop at the end of the tow rope, the other on a ski traveling sideways.

"The last is like being on a million ball bearings," said Tyll.

He holds a conventional job from 9 to 5, as court reporter for the Court of Common Pleas, Litchfield.

He serves as water ski consultant for Johnson Motors, appearing at boat shows and making educational films; is a consultant to Cypress Gardens in Florida; and currently is editing the forthcoming "ABCs of Trick Skiing."

The Water Ski Assn. estimated that eight million persons will water ski one time or many times in 1963 and that of this total, 300,000 will be beginners.

Students With Broad Horizons Don't Make Good Fraternity Men

MR. H. P.—He'll be better off if he joins mine.

DONALD P.—It's my dad's fondest hope that I join the Greek-letter fraternity at college to which he belonged, even though it was another chapter and another era. They're a nice enough bunch, but I don't need that sort of a crutch.

It's like saying hello to yourself every day and I'd rather say hello to a wider circle. There's something sacred and snobbish about fraternities. I don't need or want that sort of protection. I can make friends on my own.

MR. H. P.—Each generation of my family has had at least one man in Kappa Alpha, the oldest of them all. There's nothing like it to help a young fellow grow socially. My two closest friends, to this day, are men I met first as fraternity brothers. But Don knows I have other friends too. It's just that at 19 he's foolish to turn down a ready-made circle of buddies. They constitute a core of wonderful contacts for the rest of his life.

THE COUNCIL: According to a University of Michigan survey, there's the "fraternity type" and the non-fraternity fellow. The former is described as an extrovert, athlete, politician, and undistinguished scholar.

Non-members, on the average, get higher grades, are more creative, original, nonconformist. The consensus is that fraternities, while a good thing, will get less and less important on campuses.

Everything must come to an end, Mr. P., and if Don chooses to have the old tie end with him, please, no moaning at the bar. Blame it on his mother's side of the family, but he prefers to furrow out his own circles of associates rather than inherit them. In addition to growing socially, he's out to grow intellectually and emotionally.

"You don't make fraternity men out of people with broad horizons," declared a Williams College professor recently. Well, there are exceptions to that view, but Don isn't aiming to be one. We think he'll make the right "contacts," Mr. P., on his own and as your son rather than your "brother."

ANACIN® contains the pain reliever doctors recommend most for headaches. In minutes—pain goes, so does its tension, mental fatigue and depression.

New York, N.Y. Medical reports confirm that tense, nervous headaches are by far the most common kind. They are caused by tension that presses on the nerves. But fortunately, one can get remarkable relief in minutes with this special tablet—Anacin.

Anacin not only relieves the pain, but also relaxes its tension and releases painful pressure on nerves—bringing you fast 'all-over' relief.

Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, a combination of ingredients. The reason Anacin Tablets are so effective is because they contain the pain reliever doctors recommend the most plus an extra ingredient not found in leading aspirins or buffered aspirins. And Anacin has such a gentle action. Doesn't leave you depressed or 'let down.'

This big difference in Anacin makes the big difference in the way you feel. Buy Anacin today.

June Nuptials Set For Susan C. Young

Mr. and Mrs. Graham W. Young of San Anselmo announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Camille Young, to Allen John Maxey of Mill Valley.

The bride-elect is the sister of Elizabeth Ann Young and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Fletcher of Washington, Kan., Mrs. Clara W. Young of Norman, Okla., and Mr. Bob H. Young of Wichita, Kan. She was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is presently a sophomore at College of Marin in Kentfield.

The future benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Maxey of Mill Valley and the brother of Herbert F. Maxey. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Maxey of Lake County.

He was graduated from Tamalpais High School, attended the College of Marin, and is presently stationed at Travis Air Force Base in Fairfield.

The wedding will take place June 22 at the Community Church, Mill Valley.

A JUNE 22 wedding in Mill Valley is planned for Susan Camille Young and Allen John Maxey, both of Mill Valley, whose engagement has recently been announced.

Home Economcis Grads To Form New Organization

Mrs. Virginia Porter, Marin Home Advisor, will act as advisor to the group.

Already Two Pairs

If you're an average American woman, you wear a size 7-B shoe, have purchased two pairs already this year, and will purchase two more pair before the year ends. And because you're more concerned about fashion than the exact fit you need for comfort, you're likely to have rough, reddened calluses just above the backs of your heels where the inside of the shoe presses against the heel tendon and rubs when you walk.

Tips On Proper Care For Easter Corsage, Plants

If properly cared for, flowers in a corsage worn on Easter Sunday, or any other special occasion, may be reused for wearing, used in a basic arrangement of foliage, or floated in a shallow bowl of water, says the Society of American Florists.

REMOVE ALL ribbons and submerge the flowers in very cold water for about 20 minutes. (However, do not submerge orchids, because they will spot.) Then shake off the water gently, wrap the flowers in foil or wax paper, seal the edges and place the flowers in refrigerator. Do not place them in the freezing compartment, however.

PROPER CARE of spring potted plants will extend their blooming period and increase your enjoyment of them.

Hydrangeas are thirsty plants which may need watering every day, and twice a day in a dry atmosphere. Water Easter lily plants every other day and, as new buds unfold, remove the yellow anthers carefully.

KEEP HYACINTHS, tulips and other potted plants in a cool, light location and water them when the soil starts to dry out. For best results, keep the soil of azaleas uniformly moist. If the soil becomes dry, submerge the pot in water until the topsoil is wet again.

Curve spring flowers—such as snapdragons, iris, delphiniums and even pussy willows—to achieve a wider range of design in arranging flowers.

Sausalito Easter Party Set Sunday

An Easter party for children will be given by the Sausalito Cruising Club from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the clubhouse.

It will consist of an Easter egg hunt followed by games with prizes offered.

In charge of coloring eggs and preparing refreshments is auxiliary president Mrs. John Erkelens and her committee composed of Mesdames Alfred Lawson, Harry Kramer, Lewis Deppman and Allen Kennett. Assisting Mrs. E. J. Moody on the entertainment are Mesdames Roy Schwartz and Newton B. McCarthy.

Commodore Ron Dover is reservations chairman.

Hot Spring Items

Hottest spring items in sportswear, are shifts and wrap skirts, Women's Wear Daily reports. The skirt comes in dozens of variations — front wrap, back wrap, side wrap, slim, full, A-line, reversible.

Quality of Fats Is Satiety Value

CHICAGO (UPI) — An important quality of fats is their satiety value, says Dr. William C. Sherman of the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

From a nutritional standpoint, satiety means the ability of certain foods to delay the onset of hunger. Dietary fats remain in the stomach longer than carbohydrates or protein and also have the ability of holding other foods in the stomach for a longer time, said Sherman.

He said the physical presence of food in the stomach and intestines delays the onset of hunger.

"It is for this reason that substantial amounts of fat in reducing diets are highly important," he said.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

Vienna Coup Loses Its Terror As Viewed In Modern Times

One hundred years ago the greatest player of the age spent three days trying to work out a play that became known as the Vienna Coup.

Just a few weeks ago a hand of this kind was solved right at the bridge table by many contestants in the annual Intercollegiate Bridge Championships.

East wins the first trick with the ace of hearts and returns the five of clubs. South has eleven tricks in top cards and needs one other trick for the slam.

RAN SPADES

Some of the college students ran the spades and then tried the diamond finesse. Down one.

Some of them led out the ace of diamonds first, hoping to drop a singleton queen, but then went after the spades and a diamond finesse. Same sad fate.

This sort of play couldn't be a Vienna Coup. After all, the greatest player of the 19th century wouldn't have spent three days on an ordinary finesse.

INDIAN GIFT

The Vienna Coup is a sort of Indian gift. First you set up a trick for an opponent and then you squeeze him out of it.

South wins the second trick with the king of clubs and cashes the high hearts. West discards a club on the last high heart. South also cashes the ace of diamonds.

South next cashes the ace of clubs—the key play. This is the unblocking play that brings home the wampum topped with whipped cream. East discards a heart.

DUMMY SPADES

Declarer then runs dummy's spades, noticing that West can follow suit only once. West is known to have started with one spade and two hearts. Since East could play only one club, West started with the remaining seven. This accounts for 10 cards, so that West's other three cards originally must have been diamonds.

Declarer runs the rest of dummy's spades, watching West's discards. When the last spade is led, dummy has only the ten of diamonds and the jack of clubs. South has two diamonds, and West can likewise save only two cards.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, April 10, the 100th day of 1963.

The moon is approaching last quarter. The morning stars are Venus and Saturn. The evening star is Mars..

In 1941, Horace Greeley published the first issue of the New York Tribune.

In 1962, an increase in steel prices so angered President John F. Kennedy that he stepped in and forced the boost to be wiped out.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

New Step In Cancer Research —Tumors Induced In Animals

VAN DELLEN

It is possible to produce tumors in laboratory animals that correspond to human cancers. Research was hampered in the past because most of the skin cancers induced in animals experimentally were not seen too often in man. The newcomers include carcinoma of the lung, stomach, pharynx, mouth cavity, tongue, kidneys, and bladder.

We need tumors like these to test the hundreds of drugs that might be useful in the treatment of cancer. Even more important is the ability to detect carcinogenic agents that are responsible. This is vital because prevention is one of the best weapons against this disease. Eliminate the causes and the problem will be solved.

BUT IT TAKES time to produce many of these malignancies in laboratory animals. The continuous inhalation of beryllium sulfate produces lung cancer in rats but the rodents must be exposed to the chemical for 30 days. Another 10 to 11 months pass before the tumor appears.

Dr. Arthur J. Vorwald of Detroit injected beryllium oxide into the wall of the windpipe of a monkey six and one-half years ago. The incident was almost forgotten until the monkey developed a lung cancer that was identical to those of humans. But this is too long a time to wait if the method is to be used to screen out thousands of carcinogenic agents.

THERE ARE MANY theories on the cause of cancer. A chemical is blamed for the malignancies mentioned above. But authorities may argue the point by saying that the chemical provokes or triggers a virus to form the tumor. We know this is possible because viruses are capable of transforming or altering the genetic code in a cell. They say to the cell, "From now on you must grow like a cancer cell and all your progeny will follow suit." This is the way an innocent cell is changed into a malignant cell.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE that we associate viruses with infections; this makes many persons assume that cancer is contagious. This concept must be changed. It is only the nucleic acid in the virus that enters the cell and is the link with cancer. The part of the virus that initiates cancer disappears from the scene. It cannot be isolated in the tumor in the same way as viruses are isolated from the secretions in viral infections.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

STILLBIRTHS

J. H. writes: Could hypothyroidism cause a stillbirth?

REPLY

It may, but a lazy thyroid must be a remote possibility considering the number of women with a normal thyroid who have had stillbirths. More common causes are toxemia, Rh incompatibility, kidney disease, diabetes, difficult labor, infections, and malnutrition.

NEEDS HALF INCH

V. F. writes: Are there any exercises that could stretch my son an extra half inch? He's only five feet seven and one-half inches tall and would like to be a policeman and needs another half inch.

REPLY

Not to my knowledge. He may be able to pick up the one-half inch by standing tall.

ALLERGY FROM EMOTIONS

Mrs. Q. writes: How does allergy from emotional upsets affect a person?

REPLY

REACTIONS TO CONSTIPATION

J. M. writes: Can constipation disturb sleep, affect the nerves, and sap your pep?

REPLY

Corte Madera Hill Residents Unit Discuss Incorporation

Residents of the Corte Madera hill area bordering Larkspur will discuss articles of incorporation at the next meeting of "Christmas Tree Hill Dwellers" at 8 p.m. May 7 in the library of Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

The residents decided on the name of their association Monday night at a meeting which heard a review of the town's master plan as it applies to a 65-acre tract on the hill.

The master plan will be given two public hearings by the town planning commission April 19 and 29 and a hearing by the town council later.

The plan was reviewed by Architect Jerry Rubin of 171 Summit Drive, who said town consultants Livingston and Blaynet favor cluster type development for the greenbelt area bordering Corte Madera Avenue on the south flank of the hill.

Rubin said a plan defeated two years ago had proposed two-story apartment structures.

The residents decided to meet the first Tuesday of each month and invite membership by those paying rent as well as owning their homes. The The group invited membership by all living west of Corte Madera Avenue on the hill. This would include about 10 families in Larkspur.

The organization resulted from a dispute over a patio and fence blocking Ridgeway, a path between Morningside Drive and Crescent Road. The fence was removed last weekend.

Huey Long Killed 28 Years Ago; Heirs Powerful, Bitterly Split

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Twenty-eight years ago, a bullet killed Huey Long, but his family remains a political power in the state.

Louisiana, where politics is even stronger than the coffee, is waiting to see which faction, if any, still has that old magic.

The No. 1 faction, based on elective eminence, has Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) throwing his weight behind a cousin, Rep. Gillis Long (D-La.).

The widow of former Gov. Earl Long and two sisters of Huey are backing John McKeithen of Columbia, a public service commissioner.

Still another Long, State Sen. Speedy Long of Jena, was the first to issue a formal announcement as candidate for governor.

This campaign gumbo, coming rapidly to a steaming simmer, may be a major test for Senator Long, 44, the nervous image of his father, Huey.

Both Russell and Gillis know a governor is the real political chief in the state, no matter whom the voters send to Washington.

The senator's endorsement, coming before Gillis even formally announced as a candidate, was viewed as an effort to unite the clan.

Gillis, a nimble-witted freshman congressman from the Eighth District, tickled some of the Long lieutenants with a campaign voice that rosped in the file-tongued style of the late Earl, one of the most colorful speakers to ever grace a stump.

But Gillis faces the dilemma of a three-way split plus the threat of numerous and experienced foes moving carefully around the outside looking in.

McKeithen, 44, also a pleasing orator, was House floor whip for the gallus-snapping, tempestuous Earl.

"I think he has an excellent chance of winning," said Mrs. Earl Long.

If McKeithen and Speedy don't withdraw, and they show no sign of it, Gillis could have his problems.

There were unconfirmed reports that Gov. Jimmie H. Davis and some of his backers seem to be leaning toward Gillis—but in politics anything can happen.

The field would jam up with high-stepping candidates if it looked as though the governorship might be up for grabs.

Any candidate would have to make a good showing in New Orleans, which has a fourth of the state's votes. Thus far, city politicos have remained mum.

Others making their plans include former Gov. Robert Kennon, the Eisenhower Democrat; deLesseps Morrison, the ambassador to the Organization of American States and four times mayor of New Orleans; Shelby M. Jackson, state education superintendent; Cap Barham, former lieutenant governor, and Claude Kirkpatrick, state public works director.

The first primary is Dec. 7. The campaign won't really get started until July. Politically, it's going to be a hot summer.

Public Schools Week Coming

Lewis G. McCall of San Rafael, president of the California School Employees Assn., today urged the association's 22,000 members in 350 chapters, as well as the public, to observe Public Schools Week, April 22-26.

Theme of the week this year is "Our Public Schools—Symbols of Freedom," McCall said.

McCall, who is maintenance director of San Rafael Schools, said there are more than 220,000 men and women—school board members, administrators, teachers and non-teaching employees — involved in running California schools. He urged citizens to visit their schools and take an interest in their operation.

Garbage Worker Charged In Theft

A Sausalito garage worker was to appear in Marin Municipal Court today on a charge of receiving property stolen from cars parked along Rose and Monte Vista avenues in Mill Valley.

He is Dennis Lock, 24, of Gate 3, Sausalito, who was arrested by Mill Valley police last Friday.

Stock Market Traders See Improving Profits

By SAM DAWSON

Rising sales have cheered many companies that earlier feared stagnation. A sizeable number have been at least partially successful in combatting the rising production costs that were squeezing earnings. Modernization and automation of plants and traditional cost-cutting campaigns have helped. And steady, if slow, growth of the general economy has pushed sales and profits up along with everything else.

Net income after taxes for the nation's corporations set a record in 1962 at better than 51 billion dollars. Early reports on results in the first quarter of 1963 show the trend is continuing, with ing nice gains over the first many top companies report-three months of 1962.

The steel industry, most publicized casualty of the 1962 production slowdown and profit margin squeeze, should do better this year. Production is rising, new orders pouring in. The leaders complain that profit margins are too low, but the total figures should be higher.

The auto makers are boasting of record or near-record sales in the opening months of 1963. And their 1962 profit gains were impressive.

Already reporting profit increases for the first three months of their fiscal year are such leaders in their industries as American Telephone and Telegraph, Firestone and General Tire, International Harvester, Chesapeake and Ohio and Illinois Central railroads, Korvette, Corning Glass, Avco, Carrier, Fedders, Dresser Industries, Kroger.

For many corporations the big spurt in profits started in the final months of last year. Manufacturing firms averaged 25 per cent increases in the fourth quarter over their profits in the preseding three months. The October - November - December results were about 8 per cent better than in the final months of 1961.

Government figures show manufacturing after-tax profits for all of 1962 care to 17.7 billion dollars, up 16 per cent over the previous year, and topping the previous record of 16.3 billion dollars set in 1959.

The profits were made on record sales of 389.4 billion dollars, a 9 per cent gain over the previous high set the year before.

But the stock market is more interested in the profit prospects than in the past it already knows. So it is scanning closely the first-quarter reports just beginning to flow in volume. And it is paying heed to predictions made at the annual meetings, already under way and reaching a peak by the end of the month.

The early reports show far more profit advances than retreats. And the predictions—even with allowance for the compulsion of corporate heads to comfort the shareowners—are much rosier than this time a year ago.

The word "boom" isn't mentioned. But "more and better" are.

Highway Patrol Set Examinations June 15

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Highway Patrol has announced a civil service examination for state traffic officers throughout California on June 15.

CHP Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said the examination will be open to men between the ages of 21 and 32 who meet the requirements with regard to education, citizenship and residence, physical condition and character.

Expert Asks Why Speedup In Learning

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Pretty soon someone will come up with a device for teaching reading at age 2—perhaps even prenatally," a Stanford researcher said today, tongue in cheek.

Then Joseph Katz added seriously:

"But what's the hurry about reading, particularly if we consider what sort of things people actually read?"

The research coordinator of Stanford's Institute for the Study of Human Problems was making this point:

The technology age is so bent on speeding up the educational processes that some of life's deeper values are being bypassed.

"Where I live, a kindergarten advertises that by entering it a child can shorten the time it takes to get a Ph. D. by one year," he told a national meeting of the Philosophy of Education Society.

"We need to study students as attentively as doctors study patients or as physicists study electrons," Katz contended.

"We will never reach students unless we know them."

Another point:

"In our society, parents either work apart from their children or are too impatient with them to be appropriate educators. Schools, then, are good places to get the young out of the way.

"Paradoxically, some educators want to leave the job of personality development to the very parents who have abdicated it to the schools in the first place."

What to do?

"We need to ask curselves what will make the college years more effective and meaningful for different individuals. Once we raise this question this way, we will soon cut across our departmental approach to subject matter and, instead, define our objectives more along task lines.

"Thus intellectual tasks would include the ability to make generalizations, grasp of methods that lead to results, independence of thinking, communicating one's knowledge to others, and the capacity to listen and read to understand what another person or an author has in mind."

Another thought which summed up Katz' thinking:

"We are well washed and clean, but some of the character and sweetness of life has been rubbed out with it."

Mill Valley To Meet On Streets, Library

The Mill Valley City Council will hold an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. today to discuss the neighborhood streets report and financing of a new library.

First on the agenda will be the streets report made by a committee of Councilmen Michael Wornum and William E. Secor and City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants. Two hours is to be allotted to this discussion. The library, estimated to cost $375,000, will then be discussed.

Ross Is Meeting On Retirements

The Ross Town Council will consider an ordinance tomorrow night approving a contract with the State Employees Retirement System to provide benefits for town employees.

The council, which will meet in the town hall at 8 p.m., also will discuss flood control, parking on Ross Common, an ordinance on septic tanks, services and charges of Marin Sanitary Service, and a series of planning and zoning matters.

RESOLUTION NO. 3875 N.S. RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MILL VALLEY GIVING NOTICE OF PROPOSED "DOUD-OEHLER ANNEXATION"

Whereas, the City of Mill Valley desires to annex the territory more particularly described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, and

Whereas, said proposed annexation has been submitted to and approved by the Boundary Commission of the County of Marin, State of California,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby resolved, ordered, and declared:

1. The City Council of the City of Mill Valley does hereby give notice of the proposed annexation to said City of that certain territory more particularly described in Exhibit "A," attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. Annexation proceedings will be conducted pursuant to the Annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939.

EXHIBIT "A"

BEGINNING at a point on the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley which lies 500 feet due west of the center of Section 20, Township 1 North, Range 6 West, Mount Diablo Base and Meridian, which point is also the point of junction with the exisiting corporate limit of the City of Larkspur, thence along the said corporate limit of the City of Larkspur, North, 2,166 feet; thence leaving said corporate limit, due West 1,700 feet more or less, to the intersection with the easterly line of the 75 foot wide right of way of the abandoned Mill Valley & Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway, as said right of way is described in the Quitclaim Deed, dated November 28, 1930, by Mount Tamalpais & Muir Woods Railway, a corporation, to the Marin Municipal Water District, a public corporation; thence following the easterly line of said right of way which lies 37.5 feet east of and parallel with a center line described as follows:

Curving to the left on the arc of a circle whose radius is 100 feet a distance of 102.5 feet; thence North 58° 05' West 80.3 feet; thence curving to the right on the arc of a circle whose radius is 100 feet a distance of 91.8 feet; thence North 5° 19' West 214.1 feet; thence curving to the left on the arc of a circle whose radius is 478.3 feet a distance of 30.0 feet; thence North 8° 54' West 18.4 feet; thence curving to the right on the arc of a circle whose radius is 359.3 feet a distance of 50 feet; thence curving to the right on the arc of a circle whose radius is 150 feet a distance of 50 feet; thence North 18° 14' East 33 feet; thence curving to the left on the arc of a circle whose radius is 70 feet a distance of 155 feet to the center of the Arroyo Corte Madera del Presidio.

Thence radially 12.5 feet from the northerly line of the said 75 foot wide right of way to the most northerly and westerly right of way line of the 100 foot wide right of way of the abandoned Mill Valley and Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway, as described in the above referenced Quitclaim Deed: thence following the northerly and westerly line of said right of way on a curve to the left whose radius is 120 feet until the point of intersection with the line of Rancho Saucelito, said Rancho line bearing South 6° East from survey station P.Q. 104 of the Rancho Punta de Quentin;

Thence from said point of intersection and following the said line of Rancho Saucelito, South 6° East, 230 feet, more or less, to the point of intersection with the easterly line of the said 100 foot wide right of way of the said abandoned Mill Valley and Mount Tamalpais Scenic Railway;

Thence from said last point of intersection following the easterly line of said right of way which lies 50 feet east of and parallel with a center line described as follows:

Beginning at the point where the center line of the said railroad intersects the middle line of the Arroyo del Corte Madera del Presidio and thence ascending and curving to the left 95 feet with a radius of 70 feet; then South 7° 26' East 16.6 feet; thence curving to the right 71 feet with a radius of 193.1 feet; thence South 13° 53' West 34 feet; thence curving to the left 42.9 feet with a radius of 222.3 feet; thence South 2° 43' West 149.8 feet; thence curving to the right 58.4 feet with a radius of 302.9 feet; thence South 13° 49' West 41.3 feet; thence curving to the right 53.2 feet with a radius of 100 feet; thence South 44° 24' West 19.5 feet; thence curving to the left 161.1 feet with a radius of 80 feet; thence South 71° 36' East 46.5 feet; thence curving to the right 42.9 feet with a radius of 100 feet; thence curving to the right 96.6 feet with a radius of 116.7 feet; thence South 0° 36' West 25.6 feet; thence curving to the left 30.1 feet with a radius of 287.9 feet; thence South 5° 28' East 114.3 feet; thence curving to the right 93.3 feet with a radius of 100 feet; thence South 48° 10' West 39.6 feet; thence curving to the left 141 feet with a radius of 90 feet; thence South 41° 53' East 64 feet; thence curving to the right 81.1 feet with a radius of 150 feet; thence South 10° 55' East 76.7 feet, more or less, to the point where the easterly line of the right of way intersects the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley; thence along the said corporate limit the following courses: North 71° 31' East, 273 feet, more or less; South 18° 00' East 90 feet; South 64° 16' East 63 feet; South 3° 10' West, 41 feet; South 53° 55' East, 60 feet; South 70° 30' East 88 feet; North 87° 00' East 72 feet; South 10° 00' East 147 feet; South 25° 00' East 78 feet; South 56° 05' East, 65 feet; South 11° 15' West, 46 feet; South 2° 41' West, 81.91 feet; South 63° 06' East, 70 feet; South 50° 07' East, 125.91 feet; South 5° 02' East 256.13 feet; South 27° 25' East, 184.29 feet; South 76° 49' East 147.9 feet; South 36° 34' East 83.29 feet; South 15° 22' East, 137.61 feet; South 35° 21' East, 173.81 feet; thence due East, 740 feet, more or less to the point of beginning.

Containing 65.57 acres, more or less.

2. The proceedings for the annexation of said territory have been initiated by the City Council of the City of Mill Valley on its own motion and the reasons why it desires such annexation are as follows:

a) Said territory, because of its location, topography and other features, should be subjected to the same planning and zoning regulations which are applied by the City of Mill Valley to adjacent incorporated territory.

b) Said territory is so situated that it should receive the protective services of the police and fire departments of the City of Mill Valley.

3. Said annexation shall be designated as the "Doud-Oehler Annexation".

4. Notice is hereby given that on the 1st day of May, 1963, at 8 o'clock P.M., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the council chambers, City Hall, Mill Valley, California, the City Council of the City of Mill Valley will meet to hear written protests against the annexation made by any person owning real property within said territory proposed for annexation.

5. That the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to cause a copy of this Resolution to be published in the manner prescribed by Section 35311 of the Government Code of the State of California, and said Clerk is further directed to cause such other notices of the proposed annexation to be given as may be required by said Section.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Mill Valley on the 3rd day of April, 1963, by the following vote:

AYES: Councilmen Wornum, Monardo, Blackwell, Mayor Sheeks
NOES: None

No. 14218

Guardianship of Estates of FREDERIC M. RAMSEY, PATRICIA R. RAMSEY and SUSAN L. RAMSEY, Minors.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on or after May 3, 1963, the undersigned, as guardians of the estates of Frederic M. Ramsey, also known as Rickey Ramsey, Patricia R. Ramsey, and Susan L. Ramsey, minors, will sell at private sale to the highest bidder, subject to the confirmation by the above-entitled Superior Court, all of the right, title, interest and estate of the said minors in and to that certain real property located in the City of Sausalito, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

BEGINNING at a lead plug with brass seal marked "L.S. 2535" set in the North face of a concrete wall, which plug marks the point at which the agreed Westerly line of the lands of Frances Quelle Harris described in the Decree Establishing Fact of Death of Joint Tenant recorded in the Office of the County Recorder for the County of Marin in Book 1508 of Official Records at page 387 and the agreed Easterly line of the lands of Stephen M. Ramsey and Billie B. Ramsey, as guardians of the Estates of Frederic M. Ramsey, Patricia B. Ramsey, and Susan L. Ramsey, minors, meets the Southerly line of Excelsior Lane, and running thence along said agreed line South 27° 00' East 161.12 feet to a point distant 40 feet, Northwesterly, measured at right angles from the Northwesterly line of Lots 4 and 5 in Block 3 of the Official Map of the Sausalito Land and Ferry Co. as the same is filed in the office of the County Recorder for the County of Marin on April 26, 1869, running thence parallel with said line of Lots 4 and 5, South 63° 58' 10" West 1.32 feet, thence at right angles, Southeasterly 3 feet, thence parallel with the aforesaid Northwesterly line of Lots 4 and 5 and distant therefrom 37 feet Northwesterly measured at right angles, South 63° 58' 10" West (called South 63° West in various deeds) 118.64 feet to the Easterly line of Harrison Avenue, thence Northwesterly along said Easterly line 168 feet more or less to the corner common to Lots 9 and 10, Block 3 of the map above mentioned, thence along the line common to Lots 9 and 10, which common line is the Southerly line of Excelsior Lane, aforesaid, North 63° 09' 40" East, 91 feet more or less to the point of beginning.

Commonly known as 100 Harrison Avenue, Sausalito, California, and containing 18,420 square feet, more or less.

Sale will be subject to current taxes, covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, rights, rights-of-way, easements of record.

Bids or offers are invited for the property and must be in writing and may be delivered to the office of the guardians' attorney, Paul Micou, of Severson, Zang, Werson, Berke & Larson, Suite 800, 433 California Street, San Francisco 4, California, or may be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Superior Court at any time after the first publication of this notice and before the making of the sale.

Terms and conditions of sale: Cash in lawful money of the United States of America; ten per cent (10%) of the amount bid must accompany the offer and the balance must be paid upon confirmation of sale by the Superior Court. Taxes, operating and maintenance expenses, and premiums on insurance acceptable to the purchaser shall be prorated as of the date of confirmation of sale. The examination of title, recording of conveyance, and any title insurance policy shall be at the expense of the purchaser.

All bids must be on forms available from the guardians' attorney. Bids must be sealed and will be opened at the office of Severson, Zang, Werson, Berke & Larson, 433 California Street, San Francisco, California, at the hour of 2:00 p.m. of the above date. Any deposit must be by cashier's or certified check, payable to "Stephen M. Ramsey and Billie B. Ramsey, guardians of the estates of Frederic M. Ramsey, Patricia R. Ramsey and Susan L. Ramsey." The undersigned reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated: April 4, 1963.

Start Your Own Business With a Magic Fingers Franchise

MAGIC FINGERS is a massaging device that converts any bed into a massaging bed. The MAGIC FINGERS program originated in the Motel-Hotel field. Later MAGIC FINGERS expanded into "No-Man's Land", the beauty salon, by converting the hair dryer chairs into relaxing massaging chairs. As more and more people became exposed to the MAGIC FINGERS massage in Motels-Hotels and Beauty Salons across the country, they clamored for the wonders of the MAGIC FINGERS' exhilarating massage in their own homes. Thus was created the Home Sales Program. To further assist you, we have a National Dealer & consumer Finance Plan designed to eliminate sales resistance and increase your earning capacity over and beyond your expectations. The initial investment is small, only $2,500 to $5,000, the training is thorough and the advertising constant. This is not idle chatter. Accept our invitation and we will prove that a MAGIC FINGERS franchise is the nearest thing to Instant Success. You will hear the story first-hand from the modern day Horatio Alger in the person of our president, Mr. John J. Houghtaling. We will be delighted to talk to you in person in San Francisco at the Hotel Sir Francis Drake Wednesday, April 17th at 10 a.m. and Thursday, April 18th at 10 a.m. Ask for Mr. T. Philip Andrews. See you there.

Mental Health Panel On KTIM

Members of the new Marin Mental Health Foundation will comprise the KTIM "Sounding Board" panel tomorrow at 9 a.m.

They are Dr. Aaron Ungersma, president: Dr. J. M. Stubblebine, psychiatrist; and directors Florence Scott, executive director of the Marin Council of Community Services, and attorney Leland H. Jordan.

Listeners may send in questions for the panel, which will be moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer. The program will be repeated from tape at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Clausen Vote Urged

Roger Kent, chairman of the Northern California Democratic State Central Committee, disclosed today that he has sent a telegram to Rep. Donald H. Clausen urging him to vote for the public works bill, which Kent said includes 15 "important projects in the First District totalling over three million dollars."

Government Forum At Center April 27

Twelve panelists involved in various types of local government will participate April 27 at Marin County Civic Center in a forum designed to acquaint the public with the functions of cities, counties and special districts.

The forum, which is free except for the price of lunch, is sponsored by the Marin County Development Assn. and 15 other civic groups. It will go on from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the supervisor's chambers.

The objective of the forum is to stimulate greater and better-informed activity by citizens in their government.

William R. Zion, governmental consultant from Lafayette, will lead a panel on city government, composed of Roger F. Morse, former Corte Madera councilman and mayor as moderator, Dan E. Anderson, San Rafael city manager, and Arthur H. Brandow, Corte Madera city manager.

A session on special districts will be introduced by Jerome F. Downs, Mill Valley attorney, with moderator Mrs. Paul Holmer of Kentfield, Jerome B. Gilbert, manager of North Marin Water District and Jack Brandon, a director of the Terra Linda Recreation District.

An afternoon session on county government will be moderated by Mrs. Joel Nemschoff of Kentfield with panelists Alan Bruce, Marin county administrator; Mrs. Alfred Azevedo, former member of the County Planning Commission, and Leland H. Jordan, former county counsel and city attorney of Sausalito and Mill Valley.

Dutchman From Borneo Is New Citizen

Abraham Christiaan Vonk is a Dutchman from The Hague who came to be an American citizen after a nine-year stopover in Borneo.

He now lives in Mill Valley at 320 Ross Drive with his wife and three sons, John 30 months and twins, Peter and Don, 18 months.

Vonk went to Indonesia with the Army in 1947 when he was 20. For many years he worked for the Borneo and Sumatra Trading Co. in Borneo as a trader. His business: supplying Chinese grocerymen with goods from soap to food to shirting material.

Coming to the United States in 1957, Vonk became an accountant with the import-export firm of California Commodities, San Francisco. His business: spices and coffee.

Vonk explained that "in 1956 I was out of a job. There was no future for Dutch people" with the changeover from Dutch to Indonesian rule. "Lots of people wanted to come to the U.S." Also Vonk's brother lives in Palo Alto.

Vonk was delighted that he was among new citizens representing 27 nationalities who took the oath last week in U.S. District Court in San Francisco. One of them was Enrique Jorda, San Francisco Symphony conductor.

Highway Death Toll On Rise

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Highway Patrol reports the statewide death toll on the highways skyrocketed by 61 over last year to 309 in the month of February alone.

Four persons were killed in each of three accidents during the month.

Meanwhile, in an attempt to stem the carnage, the CHP arrested 84,928 violators, up more than 14,000 from the previous year. This brought the total arrested in the first two months of 1963 to 183,678.
